

WILLMAR TRIBUNE.

Vol. 3.

Willmar, Minnesota, Nov. 30, 1897.

No. 42

LOCAL BREVITIES

Supper at Odd Fellows hall Tuesday.

John Norrell has taken a position at the Boston Bargain House.

For Fire Insurance call on John T. Otos, office 1st floor, Tribune Building.

Miss Tait, of Harrison, was a guest at Mrs. John Harrison's over Thanksgiving.

Miss Julia O'Brien came up from St. Paul last week to spend a few days at home.

Frank Doran and wife spent several days with Eden Valley relatives the past week.

Sam Porter and Willie Markhus made a business trip to Granite Falls last Saturday.

Miss Gardner, of St. Paul, has been visiting here the past week with her brother and wife.

Messrs Lawson and Erickson were down from Murdock to spend Sunday with Willmar friends.

Roy Sperry returned to St. Cloud to-day to resume his studies at the State Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Huffman left last week for a visit with Mr. Huffman's parents at Albany, Ill.

Frank Stansberry, of the post office force, spent Thanksgiving with his parents at Howard Lake.

N. M. Mossberg came down from Amenia, N. D., and spent the past few days with his family here.

Mrs. James Schaffer left for Minneapolis Sunday morning, where she was called by the illness of a sister.

Misses Gertrude and Lottie Sprague, of Minneapolis, have been visiting Willmar friends the past week.

Miss Katherine Mossberg is home from Minneapolis, enjoying a vacation from her studies in shorthand.

Miss Martha Haley came home Morris Thursday morning to remain over Thanksgiving at her Willmar home.

Miss Libbie Gallagher came up from St. Paul last Wednesday night for a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. T. Bogart.

Miss Hulda Holmgren, of Kerkhoven, spent the past few days here as the guest of her sister, Miss Minnie Holmgren.

The Swedish Baptist Ladies Sewing Society will meet with Mrs. L. Rodlund next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"Our Prescription" is a cool, delightful 5 cent smoke. It leaves no after taste. Manufactured by F. W. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ramsett entertained over Thanksgiving the families of James Wright, of New London, and Chas. Wright, of Fosston.

Chas. W. Thompson, who is now located in the banking business at Chokio, has been spending the past week with his family here.

The ladies of the Odd Fellows hall serve supper at the Synod church hall Tuesday evening of next week. Supper 25 cents, coffee and cake 10 cents.

Mail Agent Ole Paulson returned Friday from a visit in St. Paul. His brother Paul accompanied him home for a brief visit with Willmar friends.

The following University students from Willmar spent Thanksgiving vacation at home: Misses Jessie Spicer Helen Jenness, Josephine Jenness, and Mr. Elias Wennerlund.

Among the Willmar students attending the St. Cloud Normal school, who were home to spend Thanksgiving vacation, were, Roy E. Sperry and Misses Ella Gould and Mamie Haley.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 4th, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the following day (Sunday) Helge Akesson from Sweden will hold meetings in the Methodist church, in the Swedish language. All are welcome to hear him.

The Elsie de Tourney company was obliged to cancel its date here for the last performance, owing to financial difficulties, we understand. The play, "Richard III," was presented on Friday evening by only a small part of the company. The troupe was no doubt a first class one, but adverse circumstances were against them.

Harry Thompson, of the Western Union telegraph, returned home Saturday night from Lanesboro, where he had been called by the sad news of the death of his sister, Miss Nettie Thompson. The deceased had many friends in Willmar, having spent several months here some two years ago, and they will be pained to hear of her death.

MISS BREHM AT WILLMAR.

Last Sunday our city was honored by the presence of Miss Brehm of Chicago, a National worker of the W. C. T. U., and our citizens enjoyed not less than four opportunities during the day to hear this splendid speaker. She spoke at the United Lutheran church in the morning using as her subject the Master's words to his disciples. "Ye are the Light of the World," etc. In the afternoon she gave an interesting talk to the children at the Union Sunday School Temperance Rally held at the Presbyterian church. At this rally the children acquitted themselves with credit in a program of recitation and song. In the early evening Miss Brehm addressed the Society of Christian Endeavor at the Presbyterian church, speaking of consecrated temperance work. At eight o'clock she appeared at the M. E. church where she delivered an able address, being a powerful and searching application of the parable of the "Good Samaritan" upon the temperance question. Miss Brehm is possessed of strong commanding features, yet is womanly in appearance; of a powerful, yet feminine voice; and she held her audiences spellbound with her eloquent and logical reasoning. Miss Brehm's visit and her successful meetings cannot but greatly strengthen the local W. C. T. U. and the temperance cause in general.

Lutheran Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the United Lutheran congregation of Willmar will be celebrated on the 20th day of December next. Not many of its present members were here at that time, but those who were, and those who lived in the city then, will remember that it was organized under anything but the most favorable circumstances. The old court house was its place of service for a period of two years, when a little church building was erected which, with an enlargement, is the building used at present. Rev. Ole Paulson, now of Blanchardville, Wis., was its organizer and first pastor and it became a member of the larger organization popularly known as the Conference. After the resignation of Rev. O. Paulson, Rev. M. H. Hegge was its pastor and during his stay here the congregation became a member of the United Lutheran church, which is the successor of the Conference and two other divisions of the Lutheran church. Rev. Hegge was succeeded by the present pastor, Rev. E. E. Gynild.

About two years ago the congregation was, together with ten other congregations, expelled from the United Lutheran church for refusing to support the new school erected to take the place of Augsburg Seminary. At present the congregation acts independently, but sympathizes with the Augsburg faction. We can not at present give the number of its first enrollment, but its membership has increased many fold during the quarter century of its existence. An effort is being made to have Rev. Paulson here at the festival on Dec. 20th, and undoubtedly other outside talent will be present.

Another Victim.

One more of our popular young men has grown weary of his present condition of life and has contracted for a young woman to share with him, and he with her, the ups and downs of the future. At the rate this business is going on, it would seem that the great question which is now being agitated in this and other countries—how to induce men to marry, has solved itself amicably, as far as Willmar is concerned at least.

This time it is Ole A. Jacobson of the First ward that could no longer alone endure life. The fortunate young lady of his choice is Miss Anna Nelson, of Eau Claire, Wis. As she is unknown to the writer we can say nothing of her, but Ole is a boy who would not foolishly lose his head, so it is safe to assume that Miss Nelson is a young lady of high esteem and whom we can heartily bid welcome to our city. The marriage ceremony will take place Dec. 4th, at the Lutheran church in Eau Claire, Wis. Several from this place are invited to attend.

The Eyesight!

Eye troubles are manifold. Sometimes the eyes are only tired; they need a rest and then are as good as ever. Some troubles are inherited. Other troubles arise from previous injuries. Most of them come from advancing age. In any case you should have determined by an examination what the trouble is. I make examination of the eyes free. I have the best instruments to be had. I have the latest theories of scientific writers. I have made myself familiar with all new discoveries as far as they apply to my profession. Careful, conscientious service is my specialty. If your case is beyond my practice, I tell you so.
