County News

Sunburch.

June 25.

Our statement in the previous issue of the TRIBUNE to the effect that Rev. Jordahl officiated at the interment of the remains of Knut Torseth on the 18th inst., is fallacious. This last service was performed by Christoffer Torseth, an uncle of the deceased, on account of Rev. Jordahl's absence.

A vast cavalcade of carriages and bicycles departed hence last Monday for the purpose of arriving in Willmar in time to obtain a view of the magnificent aggregation of monstrous paragons commonly designated by the cognomen of Sells & Forepaugh's circus. Whether the realization proved as congenial to the pilgrims as their anticipations, we are unable to state.

At the annual school meeting in our district last Saturday, Bernt Peterson was elected director and P. A. Gandrud clerk. Free text-books were adopted. Truls Stengrim Olson was elected librarian of the district without any opposition whatever.

We understand that the local board of school directors will endeavor to secure the services of Gustave A. Erixon as instructor for the ensuing year. This is highly commendable, as Mr. E. is conversant with the requirements of the school, having been its instructor for more than three years.

Rev. B. Sund, of Belgrade, conducted religious services at the Sunburch church last Sunday.

Mr. Herbjorn, from Belgrade, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Gunnufson last Sunday.

Ole Hagen, a teacher from Brooten, is spending his summer vacation here.

Mrs. William Snyder returned last Sunday to her home at Willmar, after making a brief visit with her father, Lasse Bendikson.

Of the 38 pupils enrolled in the Sunburch school this year, 28 are entitled to state apportionment. One pupil has attended every-day of the entire school year.

Ole Eliassen of Gilchrist, attended our school meeting on the 18th inst., and tendered his resignation as clerk of the board, as he intends to establish his future home at the above place.

At the republican primary election held here last Monday the following delegates were elected: Lasse Bendikson, P. A. Gandrud, Anton Palmeson and John J. Week.

June 27.

Peter Palmeson attended the summer session of the district court.

We are informed that the services of C. G. and Albert Gandrud and G. Gunnufson as musicians have been retained for the ball which is to be given in connection with the celebration at New London on the 4th.

Moan & Gandrud have just secured a large supply of job printing from the TRIBUNE Printing Co. of Willmar.

John A. Jorgenson returned from Hopkins last week. Mr. J. has completed a course of instruction in steam engineering at above place.

Mrs. E. Soland arrived from a trip to North Dakota recently and is at present visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Even O. Glesne.

Andrew Jorgenson transacted business at Benson last week.

The national bird of American liberty will be honored by a program of promiscuous entertainments at Fish Lake next Monday.

Gustave A. Erixon closed the summer term of instruction at the Sunburch school last Friday by a series of appropriate exercises followed by a farewell address to the pupils.

O. O. Bergstrom, deputy state boiler inspector, spent some time here last week testing our local steam engines.

E. G. Erixon of Irving was the guest of H. O. Hystad last Saturday.

Kandyohi.

June 20.

'Rah for John Lind.

Mrs. D. Langtry, of St. Paul, is visiting her parents.

Miss Nellie Mattson is contemplating a trip to Montana to visit her brothers.

Several from this place attended the C. E. convention at Atwater.

At the annual school meeting Saturday evening Wm. Cook was re-elected treasurer.

Quite a number of our local pedagogues are making preparations to attend the teachers' training school at St. Cloud.

Miss Maggie Lawler, at the close of her school, gave a most enjoyable party to her scholars the following Saturday.

Bert Lee left Thursday for a short vacation from his many duties at the depot. John Lawlor will run the "ticker" during his absence.

Peter Henderson of Spicer will run a meat wagon to this place once a week. When the busy season begins he will come oftener.

H. M. and R. W. Stanford returned Monday from a trip to Dakota on their wheels.

Irving

June 24.

A game of ball was played last Sunday between "pick-ups" and the local team. The score stood 18 to 23, in favor of the latter. The latter challenged the Spicer "cranks" for a game on the 4th for $100, but the Spicer boys could not go that.

S. Simonson and wife returned home last week from Aitkin county, where they had been visiting Lewis Simonson. Mr. Simonson did not think much of that country.

Will Maddock will work at Albany and vicinity for the interests of the Champion Harvester Co.

Scholars in district No. 53 will picnic at Calhoun Lake Monday.

Guy Cotter is in the employ of Chas. Campbell.

The Paulson boys say they are going fishing at Green Lake for a week. Edwin informs your scribe that he will catch every fish in the lake. Please do leave a bullhead or two.

Patriotic Celebration.

The Patriotic Fourth will be celebrated in a patriotic manner under the auspices of the Lutheran Tripolis church in Mr. Jeppson's grove near the church. All are most cordially invited to attend and participate in an outburst of genuine and sound patriotism. The grand document, the Declaration of Independence, will be read. The oration of the day will be delivered by Senator L. O. Thorpe. Music and singing will form an important part of the programme. Will commence at 10:30 o'clock a. m. sharp. Dinner and refreshments will be served at nominal prices. Let everyone come and spend the Fourth in a pleasant manner.

The 4th at the M. E. Church.

A grand 4th of July celebration will be held at the grounds of the M. E. church of Kandyohi, six miles south of the station. Besides our home pastor, Rev. E. A. Wahlquist, we expect Revs. C. J. Andreen of Minneapolis, J. A. Forsberg of Farwell and J. A. Wagner of Atwater, to be present. Besides the program, a good dinner will be served for 10 and 25 cents. Candy, nuts, oranges, lemonade and rich ice cream will be sold during the entire day. Instead of going off to indulge in sinful sports come and celebrate the glorious Independence Day with us. We guarantee a good time to all who come.

Sandbo's Bakery.

Fresh baked bread every day at Sandbo's bakery. Special orders for cakes or anything in the line of pastry promptly filled. Our bread is also for sale at Burr & Johnson's.

Refreshments will be served on the grounds all day. Come one, come all. A good time guaranteed.

COMMITTEE.

THE GLORIOUS

FOURTH!

will be celebrated at

New London.

We invite everybody to celebrate the day with us, and assure all who will come a hearty welcome. The war stirs all hearts to patriotism and we will celebrate as we have never celebrated before. Come and enthruse with us.

Among the many attractions provided for the day are the following:

Salute of 122 guns at sunrise. Grand street parade—music by New London Cornet Band.

Patriotic address by

Prof. T. J. Caton of Minneapolis.

Music, singing and flag drills.

Sham Naval Battle,

"DEWEY'S CAPTURE OF MANILA."

on the lake.

Game of base ball.

Bicycle, foot, sack, boat and swimming races, etc.

Grand bowery dance.

Open air concert during the evening.

The day's festivities will end with a magnificent display of fireworks.

Come one, come all, and stay until the last rocket is fired.

Hon. Nels Quam, president of the day; Rev. R. Drysdale, chairman.

COMMITTEE.
