How to get the Original, Genuine Dr. Ward's Vegetable Anodyne Liniment.

The same that has been sold to you in this county for the past seventeen years by DeCamp, Pickle and others on its own merits and has always stood the test.

Call at the house in block south of Post Office, where A. H. Pike, the General Agent for this county, lives. Or when buying from the medicine wagon that will call on you twice each year, see that the trade mark Dr. Ward's is blown in the bottle; that it is made in Winona by the J. R. Watkins Medical Company, and you will never be disappointed with what you buy, whether Liniment, Barb Wire Embrocation, Petro-Carbo Salve, Stick Salve, Condition Powders, Gen De Candra for the Blood, Oriental Nerve Tonic, Carminative Cough Syrup, Headache Tablets, Pills, Root and Herb Tea, Extracts, or Spices.

Furnished room for rent, on first floor. Two blocks from depot. Inquire at this office.

DIED.

The sad news reached us last Thursday evening of the death of our beloved sister, Amanda, who passed away at five o'clock that afternoon, at Aspen, Col. The following obituary notices are clipped from the Aspen papers:

FOUND PEACE AND REST. DEATH CLAIMS A BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL ON THE THRESHOLD OF WOMANHOOD.

DIED—On Thursday afternoon, January 5, 1899, at 5 o'clock, of lung trouble, Miss Amanda Nelson, aged 20 years, 10 months and 21 days. Miss Nelson had been a sufferer with the disease which caused her death for eight months. Upon the advice of physicians she came to Aspen two months ago, from her home in New London, Minn., in search of a more favorable climate and was accompanied by two sisters—Miss Esther Nelson and Mrs. V. E. Lawson. They were joined by Mr. Lawson three weeks ago. The change to this high altitude proved to be most unfortunate for the invalid, who had a severe hemorrhage soon after her arrival and never rallied sufficiently to permit of removal to a lower altitude.

Miss Nelson realized that her malady was incurable, but she bore her affliction with quiet resignation and when the end came it was the silent opening of the gates to the realms of eternal peace. A father and mother, three brothers and four sisters, residents of Kandiyohi county, Minn., are left to mourn the deceased. To them the hearts of many new found friends in this city go out in sympathy for their loss and so far as poor human power can avail would help them bear the heavy burden. Services will be conducted by Rev. Webb of the Methodist church at the residence of the family, 208 South Center street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to New London, Minn., for interment. Miss Esther Nelson expects to make her home in Aspen and Mr. and Mrs. Lawson will remain with her for a short time.—Aspen Daily Tribune, Jan. 6, 1899.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE. Services will be conducted by Rev. Webb of the Methodist church at the residence of the family, 208 South Center street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to New London, Minn., for interment. Miss Esther Nelson expects to make her home in Aspen and Mr. and Mrs. Lawson will remain with her for a short time.—Aspen Daily Tribune, Jan. 6, 1899.

The remains arrived at New London yesterday, and were taken to the home of the sorrowing family. The funeral will be held to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon. After a short service at the family residence, the remains will be taken to the Swedish Lutheran church, New London. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Collin at two o'clock p. m.

County News

Ringville.

We have had some cold weather now. Parties have been quite numerous. Carl Gunderson is very sick yet.

The sad news reached us last Thursday of the death of Hans Paulson, of Irving. Mr. Paulson is well and favorably known in Ringville, and the news was far from pleasant. The bereaved family has the sympathy of many Ringville people.

The Christmas tree festival in Gausdahl's church Dec. 27 was well attended. Geo. O. Newgord and Sam Lohn left for Minneapolis last Friday, where they will attend Colon College.

School will not open at New London again until Jan. 23. Aug. Sonstegard & Co. visited at Warner during Xmas.

Louise Larson, who has been attending the Willmar Seminary, is now home again. Last Friday (Jan 6) Carl Wold, formerly a Ringville boy, now of Chokio, Stevens Co., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony, his mate being a farmer girl of that place by the name of Hattie Wohlel. We extend our best wishes and congratulations.

John Johnson and Henry Halvorson will attend school at New London. Johan Gunderson will return to Wisconsin today Monday. Elias Johnson will accompany him. Georgeville creamery will open again Feb. 1. Peder Miller is in St. Paul at present.

A number of Ringville people are planning to attend a show in Belgrade January 14. Miss Mary Coyne returned from St. Paul last Wednesday evening.

Ole Anderson wants to sell his wind mill. It is a 10 ft. wheel, Airmotor, 50 ft. frame. Will sell cheap.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. ABSOLUTELY PURE. Makes the food more delicious and wholesome. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Amund Larson is reported to be sick. Kasen Mork is on the sick list. John Johnson, of Dakota, has been visiting relatives in Georgeville and vicinity during Christmas.

East Lake Lillian.

The enrollment of pupils in Dist. No. 81 has now reached 41, and as the seating capacity is 36, conditions are somewhat crowded. The puzzle has partially been solved. Our new post-office has been given a name, and a location decided upon. But the post master? In deciding upon a name, one of our statesmen has been immortalized.

Of course, our members of the legislature take with them to St. Paul the good will from at least this part of the county, and we do not doubt that they will prove themselves as able men as their predecessors, although chosen from the rank and file of the common people. The creamery began operation Jan. 6. The plan for the present is to run it twice a week. Prospects are not as bright as one could wish, but the human race lives on hope.

Horace and Rebecca Anderson are attending the Seminary at Willmar. This is a matter-of-fact world and in this country this truth is perhaps felt more than at any other place. I tell the busiest person has some leisure moments. These are too often squandered and thoughtlessly spent, owing to the false idea that inactivity is rest. Rest does not consist in doing nothing, but in change of work. A man, kept busy with manual labor during the day, need, in order to rest himself, some mental work. The reading of good books will supply this work. In most school-houses are found libraries. From personal observation we know that these are not utilized as they ought to be. Even in this enlightened age of ours, the expression that farmers need not read, is often heard. The absurdity of this statement needs no demonstration. A good book, say a good novel, thoughtfully read, will open to the reader new avenues of information and pleasure, and thus give ample compensation for the time spent. It will ennoble the man, and through the man ennoble his position in society.

Roseland.

Poor sleighing, poor wheeling. There are a few cases of sickness in the neighborhood. Thomas Edison entertained us last Friday evening at the Rosellilian school house. It was the talking machine, of course.

The people of Roseland are looking for the new railroad to come through. If it should, there are speculators ready to buy the 80 acre lot just across from the school house. Carlson, Johnson and Walleen have started out with a new graphophone. The instrument gives good satisfaction.

Dist. No. 64 is preparing for a basket social for the purpose of adding books to the library. There was a reception given to the young folks of Roseland at P. Lindquist's on New Years Day.

Irving.

Frank Wermelin departed en route for the northern part of the state last Tuesday. Miss Nina Olson left for St. Cloud last Monday to resume her studies at the Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larson returned to their home at Waverly this week, after having spent Christmas with Mrs. Larson's parents at this place. Ernest and Roscoe Abbott have returned to the St. Cloud Normal School to continue their studies.

Eric Wermelin went to Mamre last week to attend to his brother-in-law, Chas. Halldin, who is dangerously ill. Jacob Anderson, formerly a resident of this locality but now of Cass County, spent Christmas with friends here.

Mr. Ed. Hallol, of Gotha, Minn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Kullberg at this place. Hiltman Johnson, of Crow River, is employed as assistant butter-maker of the Irving Creamery.

Miss Louise Olson has purchased a fine cabinet organ from Chas. E.

Krause of New London. S. Stenberg, formerly manager of the Irving Creamery, departed last week for Lake Elizabeth where he has assumed charge of another creamery. Mr. Stenberg was employed as our butter-maker for four years, and his work gave the highest satisfaction. Though we regret to see him leave us, we cordially wish him the best of success in his new field of labor.

Nels J. Nelson Seltors spent Christmas with friends at Willmar. Anthon M. Anderson made a business trip to St. Cloud last week. Gustave A. Erickson resumed his duties as instructor in Dist. 92 last Monday. The attendance in the school is larger than it has ever been before. The majority of the students are between 15 and 32 years of age. Many of these are residents of other districts.

Knud Lee, of Little Falls, has located at this place. Mrs. Ole Solum and her daughters Magda and Nellie spent last week visiting with friends at Eagle Lake. Gustave A. Erickson is kept busy after school hours giving private lessons in English and Muste.

Chas. Lindgren is absent on a trip to Duluth this week. Edwin Solum arrived from Cass County last Saturday and is at present sojourning with friends at this place.

Spicer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson departed for Chicago Thursday. A. J. Anderson, J. Holland and Oscar Orred were at Willmar one day last week to transact real estate business. Mr. Anderson has purchased a Spicer lot from Mr. Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Olson entertained a large number of friends one evening last week. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hillman gave an evening party to many friends Friday evening.

Mr. Hugh Campbell smiles and says it's a girl. We congratulate. The live alligator shipped here by Geo. Martin some time ago, passed away one night last week. Peace to its ashes.

Ye correspondent and wife, Mr. and Mrs. P. Henderson, F. Harris and F. Pullen visited the home of E. E. Kelly Friday eve and were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mardin, Mrs. Hagenstine and son Fernando, attended the Royal Neighbor and Woodmen installation at New London.

The Woodmen of Green Lake Camp No. 5135 held their installation Saturday evening. A short program had been arranged by I. Courtright and was well carried out. Past Venerable Consul A. F. Nordin, of Willmar, tendered his service and installed the officers. He was the chief entertainer, and his fine speech on Woodcraft and reading will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to be present. I. J. Courtright also delivered an able address. A fine supper was prepared and served by the wives and sisters of the Woodmen. Quite a number from New London were present and we believe all were well pleased.

Ida Hild and brother, from Kerhoven, visited with the Hillman family here over Sunday.

Prinsburg.

Miss Van Der Einde has left Prinsburg, to spend the winter in Atwater. Rev. Haynes' singing school is doing noble work among the young people of this neighborhood.

The Prinsburg school opened up Jan. 2, with an increase of three members. Parents, children and teacher all rejoice, vacation is over. Rev. H. Knott spent Sunday and Monday, assisting Rev. Page during revival meetings.

A peanut party was the occasion of a jovial time at Mr. Damough's. In spite of the winter's cold, the flame of love seems to be at its height. In lieu of "Lover's Lane", maidens and swains may be seen tumbling about in kitchen, parlor, etc., in a most homogenous nature, though sometimes in a rather turbulent manner. No wonder many succumb to Cupid's treacherous warfare.

Mr. Rasmussen, of Willmar, has been working in this vicinity, and we congratulate him upon having successfully placed two organs; one with Rev. H. Knott and another at Mrs. Huisings's. "The young idea how to shoot" is rapidly being imbibed by the recipients of his ministrations.

Dovre.

Jan. 5. Mrs. S. S. Fladebo has been very sick with blood poisoning, but is now recovering. In almost every house the la grippe is raging. C. J. Rykken has just returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Teigon, of Chippewa county.

Miss Lena Thompson, of Dwight, N. D., visited with friends here during the holidays. Olaf Swalin is attending school at Willmar. John Swalin is in Minneapolis attending the agricultural school.

The Vickers sewing society met at K. O. Axness' Wednesday, but on account of the cold weather few attended.

Edwards.

Jan. 7. Andrew Erickson departed for Wright Co. last Monday. Mrs. A. B. Thorson has been on the sick list, but is around again. Ole Flekke transacted business in Willmar last Tuesday.

We expected the wedding bells would ring during Christmas, but unfortunately they did not. Some of our farmer friends are complaining because we are not having any snow; but would it not be better the way it is?

After one week's vacation, school opened again in Dist. 101 last Monday; and C. J. Hanson is again at the helm.

Pennock.

Jan. 9. An accident occurred last Thursday which resulted in a broken wheel and a damaged horse. When Mr. Johanson came from Willmar he left his horses untied in front of A. O. Sather's store. After a while the horses became homesick and started for home. They took the road leading north, and came into a pasture, where they had gone but a short distance when they got tangled up in the wire fence. The phones were brought into play and the horses were soon discovered.

Thom Thompson is on the sick list. P. C. Greenfield expects to build a residence in the spring. A prayer meeting was held at Mrs. J. Johnson's Wednesday night.

C. Berglund has been working for A. O. Sather the past week. Some of our boys went to Willmar Thursday night with the intention of going from there to Minneapolis, but they came back the next day with quite long faces.

Svea.

Jan. 7. Hon. N. O. Nelson went to St. Paul Monday, Jan. 2, to enter upon his duties as representative. We wish him success and God speed. A good deal of sickness is prevailing in our neighborhood. We understand that P. Johnson's family is stricken with la grippe.

Albert Hegstrom returned to his field of action at Watertown, Carver Co., Minn., Jan. 4th. He has been engaged as organist and parochial pedagogue in that congregation for the year just commenced.

Peter A. Johnson has moved to Aleck Westerberg's for the winter. The annual meeting of the Svea congregation was held as announced Jan. 2nd, '99. Many members were present. A good deal of business was transacted. Sam Nelson was elected secretary for the ensuing year. After that the different reports were read and approved. The outgoing officers were: Two deacons, E. Hagstrom, Sr. and Aug. Johnson; trustees, J. Frid and S. Rasmuson. Mr. Rasmuson and Johnson were re-elected as trustee and deacon. Mr. John A. Lindblad took the place of E. Hagstrom, Sr. as deacon, and Aug. Swedberg instead of John Frid as trustee.

Two months Swedish parochial school is to be held in May and June with Sam Nelson as teacher. Nels Nelson was elected janitor instead of Erick Hagstrom, Jr., resigned. Sam Nelson was re-elected organist and choir conductor. The Sunday school will continue as usual, every other Sunday before services in the afternoon. $150 are to be paid to the mission and school fund. It was further decided that a furnace is to be put in, under the church this year, and that the inside is to be renovated also, after the furnace or heating apparatus is in place. A committee of seven was chosen, the members being as follows: Olaf Wallin, J. O. Lundberg, Aug. Swedberg, Olof Lindgren, Ole S. Rasmuson, P. N. Olson and Hjalmar Norstrom. This committee will also receive bids for excavating the cellar under the church for the furnace. Also for renovating the inside of the church, either by plain painting, papering or frescopainting. The said committee to report not later than April 1st, after which a special meeting of the congregation will be called, to consider the bids and information received.
