FENCE-RAIL PHILOSOPHY

I notice by a lait kopyy of the Gazette that Henry Feig has so far recovered from the shock given him last fall as to be able to talk his pen in his hand and ask a hoal lot of kwestyuns.

But I was offery sorry that I koodent hev the pleshewr of heerin' him pawt owt thoes saim kwestyuns oarely. His remarks look koad and taim when they apaar in print.

Henry's strongest pint is his throet, no matter which direkshun it wurks. I missed the thunderin' rore and the prokjektid, glowerin' fais thet maik Henry sech a pikewreak orritor.

If he hed advertized that he wud deliver thoes kwestyuns from the staj of owr ellygant oppery house he wud hev hed a larj awdyens, and it wud hev amewed the peepel lots moar than the simpel reedin' of thoes kood do.

But at enny rait I was glad to see it. It shoat that Henry hadent gon klear back on us, as I feerd when he left the kowaty. It wud shoat that, awtho he kant forgiv Nelson and Grue for beetin' him and his pard, he bes partly forgiven the peepel, and is willin' to shoat them what a grate mistaik they maid when they diskerded the owly genewin staitisman ewr prowded in this kowaty.

It givs us hoap that he may repeat entirely of his desishun to turn his back on us, and may return to us wons moar. It wud jest tikkel me awlmost to deeth if he did, bekaws othere ways the republirkans mite put up sum man that the peepel hev a littel konfidens in, and then wuddent hev sech a waukaway as we hed last fall.

There aint nothin' like hev'in a plaidow pollytishan at the hed of the oppoasin' tikkel. Henry is deaply in lov with himself, but he hant got rivels enuff to maik him daingerus.

There ar othere reasons why we ar glad. The tikkel of folloers he hed in this kowaty hev bin lookin' es loansum es a lot of hens on a rainy day sins he left, and it is wurth five sents of most enny man's moony to see how they hev brent up after readin' thet letter. They seem to thik that the TRIBUNE hes bin wipt of the fais of the urth by won mity stroak, and life for them wud hearafter be one glorius Foarth of July.

I like to see chearful peepel, and am glad Mr. Lawson hes given them another weak to enjoy thare dream, befor he walks them up. There is won moar reason why I hoap Feig will return. If he shud stay away for good what wud bekome of the grand sistem of spellin' skools instituted by him sum time ago?

They wud dropt, and the yewth of owr kowaty wud groa up so ignorent that after sum time they mite be benewolyent assymilayed by the enlited peepel of Chipaway, who hed enjoyd the blessin' of the hyer sivilizashun brot in by Henry's spellin' skools.

No, it wont do, Feig! Yu hev got to kom back! We kant afford to loos yu. JIMMY CRICKETTS.

THE NEW YORK WORLD, THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the price of a Weekly. The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD to every reader.

For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD is improvement. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and WILLMAR TRIBUNE together one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.
