A STARTLING EDITORIAL.

Information Regarding the Gigantic Plot to Seize China for the Benefit of Trade. (?)

The Purpose of the Proposed "Anglo-Saxon Alliance Against the World" Made Plain.

The New York World editorially gave the following startling information in its issue of last Saturday, under the caption of "Glory Unveiled":

February 1, 1899, was thirty-five days after Mr. McKinley had issued his unlawful proclamation to the Philippines which made war in the Philippines inevitable—the proclamation that falsely alleged, first, that the United States had assumed sovereignty over the Philippines; second, that the Filipinos were to have no voice in determining their form of government or their political rights; third, that they must submit without question and must become the passive objects of a "benevolent assimilation."
On February 1—thirty-five days after Mr. McKinley had thus unlawfully attempted to make us an Asiatic power whether we willed or no—the British and Chinese Corporation, Limited, and the American-China Development Company entered into an agreement of which the following is the most startling part: "The purpose of this agreement is to secure to the British and Chinese the right of the most extensive and complete control of the Chinese Empire as far as practicable as possible, the purpose being to secure to the British and Chinese the right of the most extensive and complete control of the Chinese Empire as far as practicable as possible, the purpose being to secure to the British and Chinese the right of the most extensive and complete control of the Chinese Empire as far as practicable as possible."

What are these two corporations? They are two organizations, one of Englishmen, the other of Americans, which have obtained from corrupt and unpatriotic Chinese officials concessions which in effect make China assign to them all the essential rights of sovereignty over the richest, the most densely populated, the most favorably located part of the Chinese Empire—a territory vast in extent, boundless in resources. That is, these two organizations have obtained by corrupt methods from corrupt Chinese officials rights and privileges which extinguish Chinese sovereignty in the most desirable part of the Chinese Empire.
Who are in these corporations? In the English corporation, according to its official statement, we find: "Such great banking-houses as the Rothschilds, the Barings, the Sassoons; several of the great colonial exploitation companies, partly commercial and partly banking, in which the most influential public men in England are interested—the great families, the great financiers, the members of the Cabinet and of both houses of Parliament; John Walter, who controls the London Times, the great organ of British imperialism; that is ever urging the spending of British blood and British money in promoting private commercial enterprises."

In the American corporation, according to its official statement, we find: "Representatives of most of the great banking-houses of this country, including J. P. Morgan & Co., Brown Bros. Kuhn, Loeb & Co., etc.; the great families, the great financiers, the members of the Cabinet and of both houses of Parliament; John Walter, who controls the London Times, the great organ of British imperialism; that is ever urging the spending of British blood and British money in promoting private commercial enterprises."

It was the men composing the British corporation who brought England to the verge of war with Russia a few months ago. All will remember how Mr. Walter, disguised as the London Times, threatened that he would withdraw his support from the British Government unless it would give up its rights in China to enable these syndicators to enrich themselves.

What have the United States to gain by interference in China? "Do we want a part of the Empire which if we took it would already be a 'vested right,' a private possession of a small group of American syndicators? Can we in honesty interfere in the sovereign Chinese state to enforce a corrupt contract which China ought to repudiate for her own sake? Shall we expend American money and perhaps American blood in obtaining for a few of our private citizens a monopoly which cannot possibly benefit the masses of our people, while all the trade that results will be in the hands of the monopolists? Shall we become the monkey to pull chestnuts out of the fire for a group of syndicators in this country and for the group of syndicators that controls to a great extent the aristocratic class-government of England?"

Is it not rather the truth, as Mr. Choate said the other day, that we are on friendly terms with all nations and purpose to remain so? Is it not a matter of indifference to us what nation is dominant in China, since no matter what nation it may be, we can sell the Chinese all the goods they want if our goods and our prices are the best?

The publication of its plans and purposes by the "pulse-feeling" syndicator except away the last veil before those secret agencies that have been impelling the administration to draw the American republic away from its splendid natural destiny and to drag it up those toilsome, bloodstained steps of imperial tyranny to "glory-crowned heights." At last we understand the frantic enthusiasm in certain quarters for an "Anglo-American alliance against the rest of the world."

The "glory-crowned heights" are at last in full view. Upon them we see a people sweating and toiling, paying enormous taxes and pouring out their blood to enrich syndicators and monopolists.
Mr. McKinley and his friends have their fingers at the public pulse. Does it respond to their shout for glory and patriotism and meddling in China?

First come first served; so march up and pay for the WINE a year ahead. This will secure that good little paper, the Farm Journal, for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, without any further pay. Shall we hear from you within one week?

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Jacob Peterson has purchased the Coleman Williams property.

Thomas H. Olson, the enterprising Edwards farmer, was a Willmar visitor last Friday.

Miss Grace Wilcox left last Thursday for a visit with friends and relatives in the cities.

A. Benham, the real estate man, was up from Hamline last week attending to business matters.

Misses Florence R. Porter and Gerda Wenerlund were the guests of Atwater friends last week.

A Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention will be held at Murdock to-day and to-morrow.

Ex-Senator O. H. Campbell came up with the Litchfield crowd last Friday and witnessed the ball game.

A. O. Forsberg has been rusticated the past week on the old farm in the town of Mamre, and expects to assist in the work during harvest.

Simon Hanson and family, of Kenville, stopped off here last Wednesday on their way through Willmar, being guests at the Marlow House.

Will Grandjean, the popular Great Northern brakeman, has been enjoying a vacation with a camping party on the shores of Big Stone Lake.

Chris Reichtfert, from Willmar, is visiting with his parents on Sunday. Chris is getting to be an expert at rolling the weed and his employer says he is doing well.—Chippewa County Herald.

Clement J. Baldwin returned to Minneapolis Saturday, after a pleasant vacation of a week spent at Green Lake and with his folks in Willmar. Clem has a lucrative position in the city as stenographer for the cigar house of Wincke & Doerr.

Three Minnesota men have received appointments in the volunteer army as lieutenants. They are Cushman A. Rice, of Willmar, formerly first lieutenant in the Fifteenth Minnesota regiment; George E. Gibson, a former captain in the Fifteenth, and Alfred S. Morgan, the Thirteenth.

Miss Anna Rahm returned to Willmar Monday after a two weeks' visit with her folks in the town of Hays.

Willmar oculist, kept an appointment here Tuesday and reports having met with good success. * * * A. P. Backlund attended the Rebekah installation at Willmar Tuesday evening.—Kerkhoven Banner.

A good game was the general verdict of those who attended the ball game last Friday between the Litchfield and Willmar clubs. The two teams are well matched and their playing is always looked forward to with considerable interest by all lovers of the game. The visitors won the game by a close score of 4 to 2. A series of games are expected to be played during the summer.

J. W. Johnson came in from a point two miles west of Sabin last Tuesday with samples of grasshoppers, which stated were plentiful on land belonging to C. B. Benedict, and it was feared they would destroy the crops. The hoppers have produced quite a scare among the farmers of the neighborhood. Mr. Johnson was sent by the editor to Andrew Holes, who said, as soon as he saw the hoppers, that they were the common kind or green grasshoppers and not the Rocky Mountain locusts. These hoppers are capable of doing considerable harm, but they are not usually abundant enough to wreak a large amount of destruction. It is not believed, therefore, that the farmers have much to fear from this particular pest.—[Moorhead News.

Attorney Kane, Otto Olson and several others received interesting letters from the soldiers who are at Manila. One of the writers in particular does not enthuse very much over the country and is anxious to be returned to the United States. The climate there is very hot, and as the rainy season is now the duties of a soldier are anything but pleasant. * * * The political writer of the Minneapolis Journal refers to Henry Feig, who recently furnished voice for all of Kandiyohi county, as William Feig. For six years Henry did as much talking as anyone in the state legislature and no one was better known to the reporters. Now that he has dropped out a session, they have even forgotten his first name. Such is the fleeting fame of statesmen of the state legislature stamp.—[Benson Monitor.

How to Escape Heat—Picnic Notes, &c.

WILLMAR, MINN., July 21, '99.
EDITOR TRIBUNE: A tramp through the country at this season of the year unrolls before the vision a panorama of beauty and a wealth of abundance, but earnest prayers are being voiced against cyclones, hailstorms, machine agents and mortgage notes in order to relieve the look of anxiety on farmers' faces.
The following remedy to avoid the discomforts of excessive heat is said to be infallible: Don't lie in the shade; never talk about heat, but think of the north pole and talk snowdrifts and icebergs all the while. By doing this we obtain relief from this everlasting iteration and reiteration. "It's hot!"
The parochial school at the Conference church numbers about eighty pupils. The teachers are Mr. A. J. Vigestad and Miss Gynild. The school's picnic at Asiakson's grove, July 18, was a Klondike of innocent amusements, because the parson, the sexton and grandpa and everybody else were "in it."
And now, in the words of the Argus concerning our recent school meeting, let the matter rest." OBSERVER.

TEMPERANCE COMMENT.

(Edited by the Press Superintendent of the W. C. T. U. of Willmar.)
At a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. held on July 20th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Olive M. Young; vice president, Mrs. Johnson; recording and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stansberry; treasurer, Mrs. Rodlun.

The following departments of work were voted to be taken up the coming year, with a superintendent of each: Evangelistic and Sunday school (under one sup.); mothers meetings; prison and jail work; flower mission; distribution of literature; work among railroad men; unfermented wine; conical work; subscriptions to union signal and white ribbons; and press work.

It is hoped that the plan of work for each of these departments can be carried out more fully and with better results than ever before.

The next meeting will be held on Aug. 10 at 3 p. m.

The general secretary of the Congressional Club of Chicago, at a recent meeting in that city, gave some startling facts in regard to Chicago saloons. He said:

"Thirty-one thousand inhabitants of Chicago—saloon proprietors, saloon porters, and bartenders—are making it their special business to ruin young men. The figures do not include gamblers nor any others who might be put in the same class. The daily receipts of the saloons alone were $316,000. In one saloon on Madison street, connected with a theater, at 7 p. m. one Sunday, there were counted 485 young men, and between 7 p. m. and 9 p. m. 524 more young men were seen to enter. Some of these were standing in a row six deep about a gambling table."

Does Mayor Harrison think this a good way to train young men to go into politics?

Fergus Falls Sentinel: The existence of the liquor traffic and other forms of human greed, only demonstrates that there is a great deal of Christianity, and but little Christianity. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

National Temperance Advocate: Scolding about the liquor power, and then scolding rather harder at anything that really antagonizes it, does not impress us as either consistent or heroic.

Uncle Sam has always devoutly desired prohibition for his red-skinned wards. For sixty years the United States has endeavored to suppress liquor selling in Indian Territory. It is a penal offense to carry any kind of intoxicating liquor into an Indian reservation, and the same penalty is imposed upon its sale to Indians everywhere. To enforce this law courts have been increased, and deputy marshals, running into the hundreds, have been added in the territory and along the border.

While the Indians were comparatively alone upon their reservation, it was difficult to control their thirst for fire-water, but with 350,000 white men added to the population, the evil is multiplied tenfold. A sober Indian may be made into a good citizen, but drunk, his savage instincts and passions convert him into a demon. Ninety-five per cent of the crime of all kinds committed in Indian Territory can be traced to drink.

Ex-Representative Springer, of Illinois, one of the judges of the territorial courts, has decided that any liquid containing more than two per cent of alcohol is intoxicating. Hard cider, "hop tea," Jamaica ginger, vanilla extract, many kinds of "grocery goods" and various decoctions, sold under the name of patent medicines, have been shown, by chemical analysis, to contain more alcohol than the law allows, and have been ruled out, although it has been proved that a man might have to drink gallons before he would be intoxicated.

Why cannot Uncle Sam show the same interest and consideration for those of his own immediate household as for his wards? Charity, in this case, should begin at home.—Union Signal.

William E. Curtis, the well-known correspondent of the Chicago Record, after making a tour of Kansas, thus testifies to the good results of prohibition in that state:

"Prohibition is not a dead letter nor a failure by any means, and I am told by almost everybody I ask that any proposition to repeal the law would be defeated by an overwhelming vote. Wherever there is a 'dry' town the police force is idle and the police court sits but once a week. In the 'wet' towns it sits every morning, and has plenty to do. A temperance argument of equal force can be found in the poorest houses. In some of the 'dry' counties none is needed. In all the 'wet' counties they are found well filled."

Arise! fair daughter of the earth, Work! where our beloved laid it down, Go forth each day with courage new, Thus to win with her a golden crown.
The pathway to a noble life Lies open so straight before us all; Go forth and labor in his cause, If we will but listen for His call.
For the young womanhood but holds The future's destiny in her hands; 'Tis hers to mould in many ways The character, life of future lands.
For God and home and every land, Put on the armor of ribbon white; Go forth and labor in His cause, For soon, too soon, will come the night.
—ESTHER LINTON GRAHAM.

August Flower.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feeling from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at Carlson Bros. & Frost. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.
