

IN SIGNING
THE

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

John Hancock wrote his name in big letters, then he looked at it with pride and remarked: "King George will be able to read that signature without spectacles." The Big Store has been writing in a bold hand "Honest Values" in all its transactions the past 25 years so people could read them without spectacles. There is economy in the signature of the Big Store for the people of Kandiyohi county. Possibly you don't know qual...

We are on the threshold of what promises to be the largest season's business in the history of The Big Store. We have provided accordingly. Grand Assortments of the latest goods in all departments, and prices that will make The Big Store's name and renown ring in the people's ears in such a way as to compel attention to the advantages it offers. High grade and dependable merchandise never so cheap as now.

The Josephine Bonaparte Rice Company gave a meritorious entertainment at Seminary Hall last Thursday evening. Being a benefit performance as well as one of great merit, it is to be regretted that there was not a larger turn-out to enjoy it. The different selections by both Miss Paulson and Miss Rice were highly appreciated. The former has a well-trained voice and her piano selections were of a high order. Miss Rice in her dramatic selections was all that was claimed for her, being a finished artist.
