Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Renstrom were the victims of a surprise by some of their relatives Saturday, Nov. 10.

Andrew Swedecr, Jr., has bought a farm. Andrew I. doubtedly harbors matrimonial intentions.

Miss Thilda Renstrom called on Lake Lillian friends last week.

We hereby take the pleasure of informing our friends that the great temperance champion Andrew Renstrom is about to become a citizen of Roseland.

Fishing is quite good in Roseland this year. The young men spend all their spare time at this sport.

Some of our young men contemplate going up west to take homesteads this fall.

Andrew Tatting, one of the pioneers of Roseland, has decided to quit farming and take a rest.

Pat is not a beginner; he is an old man at it.

Nov. 18. "The Kid," not appreciating the cold winter as well as he does the warm summer, determined to do as the birds do—leave for the south.

While on his way he struck Roseland, where he decided to remain for some time to see how Pat and the Roselandites were getting along.

Alfred Nordahl is slowly recovering from the bruises sustained in a runaway last week.

Miss Annie Anderson is in Willmar learning the dressmaking trade.

Chas. Sandberg, of Willmar, is at present employed at O. N. Bengtson's.

EAST LAKE LILLIAN.

Nov. 13. Too late for last issue. Watch the signs of approaching winter.

Chris Bomstad contemplates building an addition to his store. Mr. Bomstad was recently appointed postmaster at Thorpe, vice Mrs. L. P. Owre, resigned.

The all-absorbing item of interest the past week and beginning of this was the dedication of the Norwegian Baptist church. The church is pleasantly located on an eminence overlooking Dog Lake, and is a neat structure, dimensions 26x40.

The interior is handsomely and becomingly decorated and the executions of the designs bespeak well for those who had charge of the work. On Friday, visiting ministers began to arrive among whom were Revs. Nelson and Weeding.

The dedication sermon was preached Sunday morning by Rev. Dahl of Bird Island. The church was at all the services filled to its utmost capacity, and seats were at a premium.

An unusually attractive feature of the program was the excellent music furnished by the young ladies and some of the visiting clergymen. Rev. Weeding is to be the pastor of the congregation.

SVEA.

Nov. 20. A happy reunion was held at L. A. Freeberg's Sunday, Nov. 12th, in that Messrs. Sam Nelson, A. O. Freeberg and Louis Hed with their wives visited there.

The Svea creamery has been closed for general repairs for a couple of weeks but started up again Friday, Nov. 17, so those wishing to leave milk may do so.

We are very happy over the safe arrival home of our mate for life.

O. B. Berkness of the western part of town of Whitefield called at Svea Wednesday night to listen to the music made by the Svea Silver Cornet band. Call again.

John Sandberg was seen among us again last week. Svea has attractions for everybody concerned.

Supt. Fink made a very pleasant call at school-house in Dist. No. 55, last Thursday, Nov. 16.

Swan Swenson had a cornhusking Wednesday. All the young folks in the neighborhood attended, and as usual stayed till late.

Pat seemed to be the target for good many sharp arrows from archers who think they can shoot pretty well. But don't you mind them. Pat go right on with the work. It is good. Sincerely, Pat we are on your side.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Nov. 18. My attention has been called to an item which appeared in the correspondence in the Willmar Republican Gazette last week, which appears to be couched in rather strong language.

In my associations with the people of this vicinity I have found them with but very few exceptions to be sober and intelligent, always acting in every way as ladies and gentlemen.

A few young men however have on several occasions, against my protests, made themselves obnoxious at my store, and if any of my patrons have found it disagreeable, I am very sorry and beg leave to apologize. It is indeed a pity that in this age of civilization it should become necessary to remind anyone of the necessity of proper behavior in a public place.

IRVING.

Nov. 20. S. Simonson of Altin Co. is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. Nels Johnson and daughter Emma, and Albert Paulson and sister Julia, were at the county seat Saturday.

Horace Peterson, of Grove City, is up here looking for game of the feathered species.

Eli Busch, having secured a position in New London, moved his family thither last week.

Dan Nast left for the pinneries last week. All the best wishes of the community go with him, especially so of the feminine sex.

A girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson, Union Grove, last Thursday. Alfred now has the honor of being called papa.

Congratulations are in order, and A. C. is busy handing out the cigars.

Edwin Paulson expects to take a trip to Eagle Bend soon, to see Dr. Van Selden. He received some medicine from the doctor some time ago, and says he is improving gradually.

We hope for Edwin's permanent recovery.

KANDIYOHI.

Nov. 14. George Norman and his sister Lydia drove down from Prion Saturday evening and Sunday at home.

Mrs. Anna and Tena Enblom visited their cousin Mrs. Isaacson last Friday afternoon.

Quite a number of our young people attended the dance at Atwater Friday evening.

Harry Anderson was at Litchfield Saturday to see Dr. Cassel. He has been in failing health for some time, but we hope he will recover.

Mrs. G. P. Holm entertained a few of the ladies at a quilting party last Tuesday.

Reports are that A. O. Hedberg, of Genesee, had an accident last week in which he had his face badly scorched.

As a result Atwater's foot ball team will, no doubt, lose one of their best players for some time.

Messrs. Albert Enblom and Arthur Erickson, of Whitefield, biked through town Sunday, bound for the latter's home.

The "auto" artist, who is attending the New London school, Sunday at home.

Members of the Georgoville Creamery Association had a meeting on the 11 inst. and decided to operate the creamery all winter.

We thought that some of our young men felt sore because they had to pay so much for their baskets. This can not be so, because some of those that were lucky enough to secure baskets could have sold them again at a handsome profit. One was offered $1.20 profit, and yet wouldn't sell.

He who doesn't know, but knows that he doesn't know, is all right. But he that doesn't know, and doesn't even know that he doesn't know, is foolish and hard to get along with.

If Belgrade cannot support a local paper it ought at least to keep a correspondent for the TRIBUNE.

The Bethania Sewing Society met with Mrs. Amund Stenstegard last Wednesday.

We have long forgotten to mention that Ole Kallevig, of Norway Lake, has bought the old Torgerson farm. We welcome Mr. Kallevig to our midst.

Martin Gunderson and family have moved into D. S. Christenson's house.

GREEN LAKE.

Nov. 20. What is the matter with the Green Lake correspondent?

A progressive sinch party will be given at John Carlin's Friday evening. Everybody is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins left Monday for Wisconsin. Miss Fanny Lawler accompanied them as far as the cities, where she will remain until spring, visiting friends.

A Pioneer Minister Called.

Rev. Daniel B. Jackson, a pioneer resident of Minnesota and of Meeker county died suddenly at his home in southeast Minneapolis Tuesday morning Nov. 13. At nine o'clock he complained that he did not feel well and in half an hour death relieved him, with apoplexy as the cause.

Mr. Jackson was born in Newburgh, N. Y., in 1840. Following his graduation from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1859 he was employed as teacher in several of the large private schools of the east. He then entered Princeton Theological Seminary and entered the ministry going west to Minnesota to engage in missionary work. As early as 1867 and perhaps earlier he went to Kingston boarding for a time with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Campbell, of this city, who then resided there. He preached at Kingston, Diamond Lake, and Greenleaf. The village of Litchfield did not then exist. Shortly after the founding of the latter he gave up his other charges and removed to it remaining four years. While here he was instrumental in building up a Presbyterian and the edifice erected through his efforts still stands. From Litchfield Mr. Jackson went to Wisconsin, where at Emerald Grove, he was pastor for ten years, when he again returned to Minneapolis. For the last eight years and up to the time of his death Mr. Jackson was assistant secretary of the Children's Home and as such often visited Litchfield. His last visit was not over three months ago. The orphan children and the homeless have lost in him a kind friend.—Litchfield Saturday Review.

Mr. Jackson's demise will be mourned by many Willmar people, who had learned to know him through his great work in the interest of the Children's Home. His last visit to our village was only a short time ago.

The Minneapolis "Journal" says: "The Burlington buffet library car is one of the most convenient ever put on wheels. Besides all the periodicals and literature provided, there are duplicate whist boards for the amusement of the traveler. Goodness only knows what is 'limited' in the way of beauty, comfort and luxury on the Burlington 'Limited.'" 38-2
