

Xmas Goods!

This year our store is in the lead with popular Holiday goods.

- Fine Fancy Enamelled IRON AND BRONZE CLOCKS, ELEGANT CUT GLASS, FINE CHINA, ARTISTIC SILVERWARE, SOLID SILVER and Plated FLATWARE, SMOKING SETS, SHAVING MUGS and SHAVING SETS, CUT GLASS INKSTANDS, Solid Silver and Fine Ebony Toilet Pieces, Watches! Watches!

We have some beauties in solid gold and gold filled cases and boys' watches in strong nickel cases for $1.50.

All our Silverware, Jewelry, Watches, Art Goods, Etc., have been selected with such care that it would not be possible to duplicate the stock anywhere.

SURELY WE CAN HELP YOU SOLVE

the "Gift Problem" to your entire satisfaction. Call early and have your engraving done in time.

Wennerlund, Jeweler and Engraver.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

John Lundquist, Sr., is seriously ill. Lowest price clothing at John A. Weedall's. Window glass, all sizes, at Carlson Bros. & Frost's.

Mrs. Lilla Williams left for her home in Minneapolis last week. Miss Ella Fogarty, of Harry, is the guest of Miss Amice Aokerman.

Mrs. A. Moss returned Friday from a visit with relatives near Marshall. A party of young folks "surprised" Johnnie Ekander last Friday evening.

A first class barn in Third ward is for rent. Inquire at this office. Mrs. S. E. Stansberry went to Litchfield Friday for a visit with relatives.

Dr. C. E. Gerretson, dentist, Office in Mikkelsen block, Willmar, 22th Attorney G. H. Ottersen made a business trip to Marshall last Friday.

ANDERSON BROS., JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS.

Our store is crowded with the latest goods. Many novelties for the season. In Cut Glass and Silverware we have the finest. Also some nice FANCY CHINA.

We would be pleased to show you our stock.

We make a specialty Of Fitting Glasses. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

ANDERSON BROS.

Dr. C. E. Gerretson, dentist, Office in Mikkelsen block, Willmar, 22th Marpus Olson, of Atwater, visited at the home of Jas. Sanderson last week.

Mrs. Forsberg, the aged mother of Photographer J. C. Forsberg, remains very ill.

For reliable fire insurance as cheap as any, see B. T. Otos, in TRIBUNE building, 16th George Tyler came home from Northfield to spend his Thanksgiving vacation.

Misses Zilpha Williams and Ella Gould visited relatives in the city last week.

Oliver Porter came home from the "U" to eat Thanksgiving dinner with his folks.

The annual election of officers of the A. O. U. W. lodge takes place to-morrow evening.

WANTED—A small house, with a good barn. Third ward preferred. Inquire at this office.

Miss Katherine Mossberg returned to St. Paul Friday, having spent Thanksgiving at home.

your supply is out," is the burden of the wood dealer's song.

Do not forget the Swedish Lutheran supper at the Bonde hall Thursday evening. All are invited.

Halvor Negaard, of Arstad, and Martin Negaard, of Kerkhoven, called on Willmarites this week.

School in Dist. No. 9, in town of Lake Andrew, Miss Ellen Shipstead, teacher, closes next Friday.

Misses Mary and Esther Johnson and Amy Olson spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Raymond.

O. E. Swan will give his entertaining talk entitled, "Om Dalom," at the Bonde hall Thursday night.

J. M. Monson, the lumberman of New London, was in town yesterday, under a dentist's treatment.

MISSISSIPPI—120 acres in Sec. 36, Town of Burbank. Best terms. A. A. Sperry, New London, 42-4p

Misses Foss and Chase of the public schools spent Thanksgiving with their parents at Minneapolis.

The W. G. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Ives Thursday afternoon of this week, at 3 o'clock.

Solon Benton, of the Bank of New London, was in town yesterday enroute for home from a western trip.

The local lodge of Foresters is making arrangements for the annual ball to be given on New Year's evening.

Charles Johnson, of Murdock, stopped off here Friday on his return trip from a visit with Raymond relatives.

Harold Handy entertained a few friends at "Progressive Croquette" in honor of George Tyler, last Friday evening.

Wanted—Position as clerk in store. Plenty of experience and good references. Will work cheap. Inquire at this office.

"Downie's Big Company" passed through here Friday in its special car, enroute for Morris, where it had a two night's stand.

FOR RENT—Good house and barn. Inquire of Fred W. Segerstrom or the Bank of Willmar. V. E. Segerstrom, Minneapolis, Minn.

Saturday afternoon's passenger from the west was over eight hours late owing to an accident on the Browns Valley line.

The Ladies' Parish Guild will meet with Mrs. Lars P. Larson in First ward on Friday afternoon, Dec. 8. All are cordially invited.

Misses Grace and Bertha Ramsett entertained the Little Gleaners at coffee last Saturday afternoon. Nearly a hundred guests were present.

C. Grandemeyer, the wellknown old painter of New London and Paynesville, passed through Willmar last Saturday bound for Rutherford.

The Misses Hintz, who had been guests of the family of J. L. Lindner for several days, returned to their home in Raymond, Saturday.

O. H. Negaard, superintendent of mails, of St. Paul, stopped off here the first of the week on his way to Kerkhoven to visit relatives.

Wedding bells will gaily ring this month, as it is rumored that we are to have at least two weddings in our midst before the end of the year.

As the second floor is to be used for different purposes, clothing and cloaks must be closed out at your own price. JOHN A. WEEDALL, 37th

The Mission Friends held a very successful auction sale last Saturday evening. The receipts from the sale and coffee were some over fifty dollars.

Mrs. Isaac Nordstrom entertained a small company of friends Monday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Ellen Forsberg, of Mamre, who is her guest this week.

The North Dakota University football team passed through here last Friday enroute to Litchfield, where they defeated the high school eleven by a score of 11 to 0.

THE NEW STORE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING PLACE IN WILLMAR FOR OBTAINING GOOD GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

Any impartial person will tell you so. You can tell it by the big crowds that visit us—by the amount of goods we sell. In our mind no stronger argument can be used to show that our place is the right place to trade at.

An Exceptional Offer.

We have a very large line of Overshoes, Leggings, Caps, Mittens, Underwear and Fur Goods, which we desire to dispose of at once, and in order to make them move very quickly we will sell them at such prices as will make it an object to the purchaser to carry them away now.

We have a complete line of Fine Fresh Fruit and Fancy Groceries on hand for the Holiday trade.

Telephone No. 37. Goods Delivered to All Parts of the City.

Remember, we give a special discount of 10 per cent on all cash purchases made at our store in coupons redeemable in silverware of standard quality. Begin to save them up from now on and secure a handsome Christmas present.

JOHNSON, FRIDLUND & MOLINE.

Highest Market Prices Paid for Country Produce.

Rev. C. Q. Page, of Raymond, preached the Thanksgiving sermon at the Presbyterian church last Thursday.

Prof. Dobbys, principal of the Atwater schools, and wife came up with the foot ball delegation last Thursday to witness the game.

Frank Noland and wife and the latter's sister, Mrs. J. F. Shelgren, of Kerkhoven, visited over Thanksgiving with Willmar relatives.

Mr. Knight, of Litchfield, father of our house-mover and plumber, will superintend the work of putting on the steel ceiling in the new opera house.

Martin Arneson and wife, of town of Kerkhoven, Swift county, are visiting at M. C. Tollefson's. Ole Arneson is also here on business at a dentist's office.

Miss Nellie Haley, accompanied by Miss Cashman, both of the Kerkhoven public schools, arrived here last Thursday morning and spent the holiday vacation at Miss Haley's home.

A correspondent sends us an item from Maynard, giving particulars of another dreadful shooting accident, in which the did-not-know-it-was-loaded pretext is again called into play.

Miss Woodbury, of the High school faculty, returned Monday from Webster, S. D., where she spent the Thanksgiving vacation. She gave a dramatic recital there Saturday evening.

The Thanksgiving ball, given in the Bonde hall under the management of T. P. Johnson and Peter Ronde, was enjoyed by about 50 couples. Good music was furnished by the T. P. Johnson orchestra.

Invitations have been received here from the Clara City Social Club, announcing their fourth dancing party, to be given on the evening of December 7. Music is to be furnished by the Cafarelli orchestra.

Magnus Thorson, a former Kandiyohi county pedagogue, has been calling on relatives and friends in the county this week. Mr. Thorson has been teaching school the past year near Valley City, N. Dak.

Miss May Purdy will remain in the city and wishes to give instruction in violin music, and will also teach painting. She will take orders for painting at moderate prices. Call at Mrs. B. F. Westfall's residence.

Our foot ball players went to New Paynesville Saturday morning to play a game with the team of that place. They defeated their opponents by a score of 8 to 5, being one of the best games played this season. The boys returned home early the next morning, feeling well satisfied with the excellent treatment received there as well as jubilant over their victory. We are indebted to our High school reporter for a report of the game, but lack of space prevents its publication.

C. S. Hutchins will hereafter engage in railroad work in Texas, leaving last week for Tyler, that state, to accept his new position. Mrs. Hutchins and children will remain here until Mr. Hutchins gets settled in his new location.

Charley Nelson left on Friday for a visit at his old home in Sweden. Before leaving he made arrangements for keeping posted during his absence by ordering the TRIBUNE sent to the following address: Vestanli, Nasum, Kristianstads Lan, Sweden.

A number of Willmar citizens spent Tuesday night of last week at Kandiyohi as the guests of Pat Lawler and other friends. It is needless to say they had a good time, as a visit to those parts is always attended with enjoyment. A number of fine turkeys were brought home by the visitors.

Eric Moline of Svea has been acting as temporary mail driver on the Willmar-Olivia route, the former carrier having resigned the position. The low price paid for the contract did not warrant him in holding the job any longer, and the contract will be let to a successor at an early date.

James O. Johnson, one of the pioneers of the town of Edwards, passed away last Wednesday morning, at the age of 63 years. The cause of his death was liver disease. Deceased leaves a family of three girls and one boy, all but one grown up. The funeral took place Saturday.

August Norman, who is traveling representative for the Cary Safe Company of Buffalo, N. Y., stopped off here several days last week to call on old friends. August is one of our promising young men and we are glad to hear of his excellent success in his new field. He left on Thursday for Yankton, S. Dak.

The Atwater and Willmar High School foot ball teams played a match game here last Thursday afternoon at the base ball park. The visitors carried off the honors by a score of 16 to 0. The Atwater boys had a decided advantage over their opponents in the make-up of their team, as to weight, the majority being rather heavy as compared with our boys. However, it was a friendly and interesting game.

SWEDISH LUTH. CHURCH SUPPER.

A Feast of Good Things to Eat and an Entertaining Program.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church of Willmar will give their annual supper at the Bonde Hall next Thursday evening. They have prepared the following bill of fare, which will be adhered to:

- Roast Turkey with Cranberry Sauce. Scalloped Oysters. Potato Salad. Cold Sliced Tongue. Meat Balls. Brown Beans. Pickles. Rye Bread. Butter. Coffee. Cake.

The ladies have decided not to have their sale of fancy goods on this occasion. On the other hand arrangements are being made to provide for an entertainment of a musical and literary nature for those who attend. The program as far as arranged for will consist of the following numbers:

- 1. Piano Solo..... Miss Grace Andrus 2. Vilkomna Tal..... Rev. Nelson 3. Violin Solo..... Miss May Purdy 4. Tal "Om Dalom"..... O. E. Swan 5. Vocal Solo..... Miss Florence R. Porter 6. Violin Solo..... Miss May Purdy 7. Cornet Solo..... J. T. Otos

Mr. O. E. Swan is a graduate of G. A. College who will by special request repeat his graduation oration, in the Swedish language, which relates to the life and customs in the province of Sweden known as Dalarna. Misses Purdy and Andrus are late acquisitions to the musical talent of our city and the public will appreciate this opportunity to enjoy their renditions. The numbers to be rendered by those well known to Willmar people will be sure to please, and on the whole an enjoyable time is assured.

The ladies assure us that an effort will be made to provide supper in plenty for all who may come, and they hope to be taxed to their utmost in supplying the demand.

The price of admission, including supper, will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 15 years of age. Tickets will be sold at the door. All are invited.

The assault and battery case from Town of Holland, State vs. Ed. Hanson, Ole M. Flecko complaining witness, was tried before Justice Ottersen last Saturday, Judge Nordin appearing for the defendant and County Attorney Frye for the state. The accused was adjudged guilty by the court and fined $5.00 and costs.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bertraud yesterday. Miss Annie Moline made a brief visit at Pipestone last week.

The Parish Helper is again printed and published at Willmar. Albert Foland spent Thanksgiving with his folks at Benson.

Lewis Moline transacted business in the cities this week. Mr. and Miss Riesberg, of Minneapolis, have been visiting Willmar relatives the past week as guests of the family of P. A. Stromberg.

The K. of P. boys were treated to an oyster supper Monday evening by the newly-elected Chabellor Commander, E. C. Wells.

CLEARING SALE OF CLOTHING!

THE JONES CLOTHING CO.

Has inaugurated this FIRST CLEARING SALE and offer such astounding bargains that it will surprise everybody.

On account of the mild season we have too much heavy goods on hand for this time of the year, and in order to reduce the stock we have

REDUCED ALL HEAVY WEIGHT GOODS 20 PER CENT.

FROM OUR ALREADY LOW PRICES.

Table with columns for Men's Suits, Boys' Suits, Men's Ulsters, Boys' Ulsters, Overcoats, and Fleece-lined Underwear, showing reduced prices.

THE JONES CLOTHING COMPANY, Fifth St., Opposite Kand. Co. Bank, Willmar.