The home talent performance, given at the opera house on Monday evening, was well patronized. The audience showed its appreciation of the efforts of the players by frequent applause. Mr. J. L. Lindner as "Dutch Jake" and Mr. A. F. Nordin as "Carl Johnson" never failed to produce laughter. Taken from an amateur standpoint, the characters were all well rendered, and the double bill was put on in a manner which showed that the players had received careful training. Miss Emma Dahlheim furnished excellent music on the piano between the acts.

At the special election held yesterday in the Third ward to elect an alderman, J. F. Branton, the citizens' temperance candidate, was again elected over J. A. Bjornberg, the license candidate, by the decisive vote of 157 to 86. The temperance people stood pat, giving Branton six more votes than at the village election. The license forces were unable to rally, however. The politicians tried hard to do so, but the liquor element didn't come to the rescue with their usual energy. The fact that Branton's republican friends unexpectedly appeared and controlled the so-called republican caucus, thus depriving the license crowd of the use of the word "republican" upon their ballots contributed towards upsetting their plans. Having been elected a second time with a largely increased majority, there can be no further doubt, the TRIBUNE hopes, that Mr. Branton is entitled to a seat in the council room.

The first of these will be a Grand Home Talent Concert May 1st. This will be followed by lectures by Gen. R. N. Adams of Minneapolis, Dr. T. M. Clelland of Duluth, and Prof. W. J. Johnson of St. Paul. General Adams, who has returned from a tour of investigation in Porto Rico, will lecture upon the conditions of life in this our New Island possession.

Dr. Clelland's subject is "Alaska," a distant home-land which he visited last summer and which he describes with word-pictures of wonderful vividness and beauty. The subject of his lecture is not yet announced. Course tickets will be sold at the low price of 75 cents.

"Marriage in High Life."

(A SEASIDE EPISODE.)

THE WEDDING.

The marriage bells rang loud and long. And this is what they said:

"There's nothing baked on earth can beat Johnson's Perfection Bread."

THE HONEYMOON.

They billed and cooed from noon till night. Then on a Pullman sped— They lived on love and never ate Johnson's Perfection Bread.

LIFE'S STEIN REALITY.

The honeymoon was over. The oven wouldn't bake. The "stuff of life" and sweetmeats No better than the cake; The husband fussed and fretted. "Cause he wanted to be fed. And his wife rushed down to Johnson's For Johnson's Perfection Bread.

MORAL.

Young ladies, ere you're married To Tom or Dick or Ned. Don't paralyze your sweethearts With your home-made bread; And when you've signed the contract— If these lines are rightly read— You'll always go to Johnson's For Johnson's Perfection Bread!
