In regard to the shooting of Henry Scott, late of Willmar, the coroner's jury at Benson entered the following verdict: "That the said Henry Scott came to his death by means and as the result of a gun shot wound inflicted upon him at the village of DeGraft, Swift county, Minn., on the 8th day of September, 1900, by means of a revolver held in the hands of Charles Campbell and by him discharged toward and upon the body of him the said Henry Scott."

Supt. E. F. Fink has received the returns of the recent teachers' examinations held in Willmar, and as a whole they make a very good showing. Out of the 59 teachers who took the examinations, seven applicants for second-grade certificates failed who previously held them and ten who never held them before. Of the seven applicants for first grade, three failed to pass. There were 21 who applied for third grade, of which only eight failed.

The annual report of the county superintendent of schools will be found elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Fink is to be congratulated upon his efforts to secure much-needed improvements for our country schools. The matter of school grounds is a very important one, and it is to be regretted that so many of our schools show a deplorable state of affairs in this respect. If the school officers would take the proper steps, there would be a wonderful transformation in the rural schools of Kandiyohi county.

Peter Freeberg, who was an alternate to the populist state convention from Willmar, wandered over to St. Paul and managed to get into trouble with the police, at one time standing off four cops. Peter admits having had a few drinks, but believes that he was drugged. He was released immediately. Owing to the fact that Mr. Freeberg, although not a prohibitionist, still is known to favor a "dry" policy for the village, the whiskey organs of Willmar published his case with great gusto, obviously for the purpose of proving that people who advocate no-license are insincere. It is well that their judgment is not final.

It was our intention to give our readers an extended account of the state convention, but owing to press of many duties we are unable to do so. Kandiyohi fared well at the People's convention. The convention, with large delegations from all parts of the state, was composed of earnest and determined men. The most of the time of the convention was spent in discussing the matter of organization—a hopeful sign. The ticket will be found on an inside page. Lind's speech of acceptance we give in full in supplement form. At the meeting of the new state committee, composed of one member from each county represented, on the following day, the editor of this paper was unanimously elected chairman of the executive committee.

It was an unpublicized honor and he feels deeply grateful for such an expression of confidence. He would have preferred to remain at home to devote his undivided attention to the paper, but will not shirk the great responsibility entrusted to him. He leaves tomorrow for St. Paul to take up the work of the campaign. The paper will be in safe hands, however, and the editor promises not to forget Kandiyohi county.

ONE CASE AMONG MANY.

The Rev. L. G. Almen, a pastor at New London of this county for a long period of years and a prominent member of the Minnesota Conference of the Swedish Lutheran church, was at Willmar between trains Saturday. In conversation with the editor Mr. Almen made the statement that while he would not subscribe to everything in the people and democratic platform, he was unalterably opposed to President McKinley's present policy. Mr. Almen is an earnest worker in the cause of temperance and is greatly pleased to see the growth of the sentiment in a county which he claimed as a home for eleven years. While Mr. Almen did not make the statement of his political views for publication, we feel that so many of his old friends in this county will be interested to hear of it that the liberty we have taken. But after all, Mr. Almen is only one of a great many. There are hundreds of old Swedish-Americans and Norwegian-Americans in this county who have always heretofore affiliated with the republican party who stand at the parting of the ways. Some of them voted for Abraham Lincoln when he was nominated by the fusion party made up from abolitionists, free-soilers and whigs. The great slave holding money aristocracy then controlled the democratic party and what was more natural than the liberty loving immigrants should be attracted to the banner of the great commoner. During forty years they have voted with the party that bears the names of Lincoln party. They have noticed that the influences which used the old democratic party have flocked to the party in power.

The money aristocracy which made so long and persistent fight for chattel slavery did not die when shorn of political power by the fusion party under Lincoln. It began to make itself felt in the dominant party at once. In late years the party has surrendered its old principles to the dictation of the big corporations and financiers. In 1896 when it became more apparent that the grand old party had surrendered its old traditions at the behest of Wall street, thousands of old republicans left the party, among them Gov. John Lind. The great number however still clung to the old party name. This year, when they see these moneyed influences, with a boldness that is appalling, trying to establish the doctrine of force and conquest, as we said before, hundreds of our good old citizens are thinking seriously. Already men in nearly every township in Kandiyohi county who voted for McKinley in 1896 have declared that they will cast their ballots this year for the noble champion of the peoples rights, William Jennings Bryan. Old scheming politicians, who have made fortunes by their political manipulations, are making a desperate effort to rally their old lines and to secure their old power, but some of them already see the handwriting on the wall. The revolution that has been going on in Kandiyohi county during the last six or eight years is advancing slowly but surely.

Towns that Harrison carried heavily in '92 will this year give a majority for Bryan. As we said before there are hundreds of our old republican voters who stand at the parting of the ways and are undecided what to do. Their old love of party and cherished party associations stand upon one hand and their love for consistency and an honest purpose on the other. What will they do? Many will assert their independence and manfully take a stand, others will lag and hope for the best. As far as this county is concerned the revolution is accomplished, apparently beyond the power of any of the old party bosses to stop. Dr. Swenson, Dr. Enander, Knute Nelson and other great and honored men will be engaged to come and speak to our people to plead with them to overlook the shortcomings of their party, but they have been here before. Our people have listened to their pleadings only to be disappointed again and again. They will be glad to listen to them again, but four years of complete republican rule without any attempt to check capitalistic aggression and the bringing of new evils upon the people will speak louder than mere words.

Notice.

The County Commissioners have decided to lay a cement floor in the basement of the courthouse in Willmar. Persons desiring to get the work will please meet the committee appointed by the board, on Saturday, Sept. 29, 1900, at 1:30 p. m., at the courthouse, to confer about the work and specifications for doing the same.

By order of Committee, G. C. HAINES.

Public Library for Willmar.

The village council at its meeting last Monday evening acted favorably upon a petition from fifty-two freeholders of Willmar requesting that the question of the establishment of a public library be submitted to the vote of the people of the village, and a special election will be called on the second Tuesday of October for that purpose. The county commissioners at their meeting this morning gave their consent to allow the village to arrange for rooms in the basement of the courthouse for the library purposes in case the people of the village decide favorably upon the proposition. This was a public spirited and gracious action and will certainly be appreciated by the citizens of Willmar. There are no good reasons why the library should not be established, while there are several reasons in favor of it, and the TARIUM looks for the proposition to secure the necessary vote to carry.

For County Treasurer.

NEGORD, Minn., Sept. 3, 1900.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:—As I understand, the People's Party county convention assembled in convention the 30th of August adopted the plan for direct nomination by the voters at the primaries. Now to be sure that every voter knows and understands it, it ought to be discussed in the TRIBUNE and the other papers in Willmar from now until the primaries are held.

The difference in nominating candidates by the new system provided for, is that every voter has the right to vote directly for the man he wishes to have nominated, and every one can afford to do that by simply attending to the primaries in his own town where the election is to be held.

Now let us compare the old system of nominating candidates, with the new way of nominating. The old method was to go to the primaries in each town and vote for a few delegates (the new way directly for the candidate to be nominated) to meet with delegates from the different towns to make the nomination, and as a rule there are only a few who meet at the primaries and those few present elect themselves as delegates and nominate a ticket for the people to vote for. Bad or good is out of the question, and because you are a good party man you must support the ticket without having a voice in the selecting of candidates.

To the voters of Kandiyohi county I will say, when the primaries have to come of, turn out and go to your election place and vote direct for the man you like to have nominated.

As I think it is about time to mention the names of candidates for the different places on the county ticket for the coming election, I take the liberty of presenting to the people's party voters, at the primaries to be held later on, the name of Mr. S. A. Syverson from town of Arotander as candidate for county treasurer on the People's party ticket. His many friends urge that he should have a place on the ticket and he is competent for the place named and well worthy of the support from the party.

Respectfully,
OLE S. REIGSTAD.

DIED.

The sad news reached Willmar the first of the week of the death of Mrs. Ellen Canfield, wife of L. A. Canfield, which occurred in Minneapolis Saturday night. The deceased had undergone an operation at Asbury hospital, which was performed on Thursday. The patient seemed to rally and it was apparently a successful operation, but blood poisoning set in and the end came at 8:40 on Saturday evening. The deceased had been in poor health for some time and had consulted various physicians. Her health gradually grew worse and acting upon the advice of physicians she left here for the cities to seek relief by undergoing the operation. The disease was of such a nature that it resulted in paralysis of the bowels.

Deceased was 44 years of age. She leaves a family of four children by Mr. Canfield's first wife, also an aged father, mother and brother residing at Royalton and two brothers, Messrs. W. J. and M. L. Doble, and sister Lillian residing at Willmar. The sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken husband and relatives in their bereavement.

The remains were sent to Bird Island, the former home of the family. The funeral was held on Tuesday at 1 p. m., and the interment took place in the family burial lot.

For County Treasurer.

TOWN OF DOVRE, Sept. 3, 1900. EDITOR TRIBUNE:—I hereby respectfully recommend to the people of Kandiyohi county the name of Peter J. Dale for the nomination to the office of county treasurer on the people's party ticket.

He is an honest man and has borne the brunt with the rank and file of the party since its organization, is fully qualified for the position and is well known in the county, where he has a host of friends that will be pleased to give him a hearty support.

Yours truly,
JOHN SWENSON.
