

LINCOLN ON LABOR AND CAPITAL.

There is one point to which I ask attention. It is the effort to place CAPITAL on an equal footing with, if not above, LABOR in the structure of government.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

The Same Old Story Over Again—Man, Gun and Sad Results.

Last Sunday afternoon Edwin Nelson, youngest son of P. J. Nelson of New London, took his sister, Christine, out for a boat ride and in doing so took a gun along.

At the time the accident happened they were about one and a half miles from home, and while the young fellow couldn't row he sat upright and directed his sister while she rowed.

This is but another warning to the young and careless hunter. You can never be too careful with the gun.

Personal Mention.

L. M. Crosby is up from the cities calling on old friends. H. M. Clark of Raymond was a Willmar visitor Saturday.

Miss Florence R. Porter has resigned her position in the Kenville school and returned on Thursday to her home in Willmar.

The Argus Mannikin.

Prinsburg, Sept. 24, 1900.

Mr. V. E. Lawson: As one of your "people" I congratulate you on the distinction conferred on you by the Argus, as being the political boss of the Populists of Kandiyohi county.

In the editorial in which Wharton exhibits me as "one of your people" he calls me a "reformer of the modern stripe."

But appearances are deceptive. Maybe the editor is not the man. I was impressed while on the fairgrounds this year by a sight that recalled to me the "strenuous" life of a republican editor.

J. B. BOSCH.

The Truth Regarding the Philippines.

Lieut. Martin E. Tew, who served as private, as scout, as interpreter for the late Major General H. W. Lawton and for Governor General Otis, and as commissioned officer in the Thirtieth regiment of Minnesota volunteers during its campaign in the Philippines, will lecture in the opera house at Willmar on Saturday evening, Sept. 29th, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The lecture, which will be composed entirely of plain statements of fact and devoid of any merely partisan references, will treat of the Philippine islands, the characteristics of the people and conditions of the country.

The lecture will be a treat to anyone who is really desirous of learning the truth about these people, whose political fate is of such significance in this campaign. Ladies and children are especially invited to attend. Admission is free.

KANDIYOHI.

Sept. 24.

Plenty of rain and politics these days... The Willmar politicians have been around here taking orders for Rough Rider suits.

Threshing is in full blast. Wheat turns out about 15 bushels per acre.

Flax good, oats poor... Mr. Chris. Persson has built a new barn, one of the best in this neighborhood.

Nels Tacklid is building a house at the station. We suppose he will start in housekeeping.

John Olson, who is renting Mrs. C. P. Larson's farm, has also rented 100 acres from Mrs. Peterson, at $2.50 per acre.

Andrew Redig, who is renting C. W. Lonn's farm, intends to move out to his own farm, where he will build a house next spring.

A grand political debate took place in a cellar here the other day... Andrew Jeppson has returned from Sweden.

Some of the farmers here are selling milk for over $50 a month. The creamery is getting lots of milk, and will soon have the buildings and machinery paid for out of the sinking fund.

John Holmberg, who has been sick for some time, is somewhat better. We hope he will recover and live many happy years among us yet.

SPECIAL REPORTER.

ATWATER.

Sept. 24.

Turn out to the primaries, ye pops. Steps have been taken by the local republicans to organize an Atwater Rough Rider Club.

Two early for particulars... Mrs. Stansberry and son departed last Friday for Holland, Illinois, after a two weeks' visit at Dr. Archibald's.

S. M. Siverson, the land sealer, Olof Anderson, Nels and Peter Nelson, returned last Friday from Red Lake Falls.

They were favorably impressed with the country and may decide to purchase a piece of land there.

A number of the High School scholars pleasantly surprised Miss Alvina Barker at her home west of town.

She was presented with an artistic carom board... A full house listened to the McPhee Concert Co. at the town hall last Thursday evening.

Admission was higher than what is usually charged, and the majority of people seemed to think they had not received their money's worth.

A reception was given to Rev. Shoberg and family by the members of the Swedish Lutheran church last Wednesday afternoon.

The good ladies of the church out-did themselves in preparing a bountiful repast for those present.

Our Roller Mills are now running day and night to fill all orders.
