EYES!

Eye troubles are manifold.
Sometimes the eyes are only tired; they need a rest and are then as good as ever. Some troubles are inherited. Other troubles arise from previous injuries. Most of them come from advancing age. In any case you should have determined by an examination what the trouble is.
Call on me if you have weak eyes. I have the appliances, skill and experience to fit any eye that glasses will help.

EXAMINATION FREE.

Johnson, Fridlund & Moline

Miss Martha Ann Stauffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stauffer, of Burbank, will be united in marriage on Sunday, Oct. 7, to Mr. Claude C.
Buroh, of Ellington, S. D.

Messrs. Knight and Bjorkman have just completed their contract of plum-ing for Dr. Johnson, Spicer & Stans-berry, L. A. Wold, and also at the new residence of Peter Lundberg, east of the court house.

The "Retail Clerks' Association of Willmar" elected the following officers at its meeting last Thursday evening:
O. N. Nelson, president; Ole Rogan, vice-president; A. Norman, secretary; H. G. Anderson, treasurer.

A pleasant social function was given last Friday afternoon, the occasion being a "linen shower" in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Bernice Hennings.

W. J. Gordon has decided to make Willmar his home and will remove here from Greenwood. Mr. Gordon is an old newspaper man, having been connected with the Greenwood Herald for a number of years.

During a severe electric storm at Raymond last Friday night, an elevator owned by the Duluth Elevator company was struck by lightning and burned. It contained about 15,000 bushels of wheat.

The building on Benson avenue, recently vacated by Sam Govig, is being fitted up for a bakery. It will be conducted by Mr. Jacobs, who has served in the capacity of cook at the Kuster and Sandbo restaurants.

Opera house patrons were treated to a high-class entertainment last Saturday evening. "The Hottest Coon in Dixie" was witnessed by a large audience, which showed its appreciation of the colored artists' performance by frequent and hearty applause.

The Catholic society will give its annual church fair the latter part of October. Some spirited contests have been entered into by the young people, which will be among the attractions.
Two young ladies are soliciting votes for a bicycle, while a couple of young men are contesting for a rifle.

Hon. A. E. Rice is getting to be quite an agriculturist. He has made the political reporter of the TRIBUNE a present of a beet that beats all the beets we ever saw. It measures 25 inches in circumference. We saw Mr.
Rice personally pull the best out of his garden, so there is no Otter Tail business about it.

On Thursday evening Managers Markhus and Crosby of the opera house will present to the theatre-going public of Willmar that sterling French military drama, in all its gorgeous splendor, "A Celebrated Case." This is one of the foremost theatrical productions of the season and comes with the very best of metropolitan criticism.
The company is headed by William Lloyd and Chas. Gay, two extremely popular celebrities.

Mrs. Callie Howe delivered a temperance lecture at Bonde's Hall last night to a fair sized audience. She is an eloquent and interesting speaker, and she stirred up a great deal of enthusiasm in the local W. C. T. U. ranks. Several new members being added. It is hoped to have Mrs. Howe here again at some future date, when the meeting can be advertised thoroughly so that all may have a chance to hear this gifted speaker.

Miss Rosie Brehm was the successful contestant for the Buck's nickle-plated jewelry range at Hirsterson & Nauberger's. She succeeded in cutting 1,443 complete advertisements out of the local papers. The contest was entered into by quite a number of the young ladies. This enterprising firm has decided to give the girls another chance to contest for a range. The next will be a baking contest to be held at their store on Oct. 6.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last Saturday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hennings, when their daughter, Miss Bernice Hennings, was united in marriage to Mr. John B.
Irwin of Richfield, Hennepin county.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
D. T. Booth in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After a wedding dinner the bridal pair departed on the afternoon train for the cities. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany them to their new home.

In speaking of "The New Fast Mail" The Toledo Blade of August 13, says:
"The weather man very kindly adjusted the temperature so that it was possible for 'The Fast Mail' to make its appearance before a large audience at the formal opening of 'Burt's' last night. The mechanical effects of Lincoln J. Carter never seem to grow old to the theatregoers, and they always flock to the theatre whenever one of his melodramas is advertised. The cast this season is an extremely strong one, indeed better than that of any of the past season." At Willmar Opera House Oct. 2.

A special meeting of the village council was held last Wednesday evening, in response to a call from the state executive committee to solicit contributions for the Texas sufferers in the late storm. A resolution was passed authorizing the appointment of a committee of three citizens to solicit cash subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers, and that the same be forwarded to the treasurer, J. C. Eitel, of Minneapolis. Messrs L. O. Thorpe, A. N. Lewis and A. E. Rice were appointed as such committee.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Minnesota Central Telephone Co., held in Minneapolis Tuesday last week, the following officers were elected: D. N. Tallman of Willmar, president and treasurer; C. Webster of Waucoma, Ia., vice-president and general manager; John Williams of Willmar, secretary. Among other business transacted at this meeting was the cancelling of all passes issued to stockholders. The Northwestern Telephone Co. has issued the order that it will not recognize Minnesota Central telephone passes hereafter and the local office will abide by the decision.
