

PHYSICIANS.
DR. C. JOHNSON,
 Physician and Surgeon.
 Calls answered promptly day or night. When called by wire, give full name, town and section (if in village, give street), and always say what ailment you think it is. Then you will get prompt and efficient service. OFFICE IN JOHNSON BUILDING, corner of Litchfield Ave. and Third Street, Willmar, - Minnesota.

DR. W. E. MACLAUGHLIN,
 Physician and Surgeon.
 Graduate University of Minnesota. Late House Physician, St. Luke's Hospital, St. Paul.
 OFFICE LEWIS BLOCK, - 122. - FIRST WARD, Telephone No. 122. - WILLMAR, MINN.

A. F. MANTOR,
DENTIST,
 WILLMAR, MINN.

C. E. GERRETSON,
DENTIST,
 WILLMAR, - MINN.
 Office in Mikkelsen Block.

ATTORNEYS.
OLNEY & FRYE,
Attorneys at Law,
 Office in Ackerman & Holt Building, WILLMAR, MINNESOTA.

Samuel Olson. Charles Johnson
OLSON & JOHNSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
 Office in I. C. Olson Block, WILLMAR, - MINN.

B. CASTBERG,
 SCANDINAVIAN LAWYER.
 Claims in NORWAY, SWEDEN, DENMARK and GERMANY promptly collected.
 OFFICE IN MIKKELSEN BLOCK, Telephone 171, - WILLMAR, MINN.

BANKS.
STATE BANK OF NEW LONDON.
 PETER BROBERG, President.
 M. JOHNSON, vice President.
 JOSE O. ESTREM, Cashier
 Organized Under the State Laws.
 CAPITAL, $25,000.00.
 A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED.
 Money to loan on Real Estate at Low Interest. Collections receive Careful Attention.
 TICKETS TO AND FROM EUROPE DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE.
 NEW LONDON, MINNESOTA.

THE KANDIYOHI COUNTY BANK.
 AND LARSON, L. O. THORPE,
 President, Cashier.
 Organized under the State Laws.
 PAID-UP CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $125,000.00
 TRANSACTS A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.
 MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.
 Collections Receive Prompt and Careful Attention.
 Bank Corner of Fifth Street and Pacific Avenue, WILLMAR, - MINNESOTA

BANK OF WILLMAR.
 ORGANIZED UNDER THE STATE LAWS
 CAPITAL AND UNDIVIDED PROFITS, $100,000.
 DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.
 CAREFUL ATTENTION TO COLLECTIONS.
 Drafts on all principal cities of the world and steamship tickets to and from Europe.
 FARM LOANS AT 6 PER CENT INTEREST.
 WILLMAR, - MINNESOTA.

MISCELLANEOUS.
M. T. SANDBO,
 Proprietor of—
Minneapolis Restaurant,
 Meals served at all hours. Good accommodations to traveling public.
 WILLMAR, - MINN.

P. R. PARSON & J. H. PERSON,
 Manufacturers of WAGONS, CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS.
 All kinds of woodwork and blacksmithing done neatly and promptly. Repairing a specialty. Rates as low as possible.
 Third Street, Willmar, Minn.

P. FREEBERG.
WINDOW & DOOR FRAMES.
 Window screens, wood turning and scroll sawing.
 WILLMAR, - MINN.

BROWN & HEARN.
HORSESHOEING
 AND—
GENERAL BLACKSMITHING.
 Plow Work a Specialty.
 Location: Benson Ave. South of the Willmar Mill.
 CALL AND SEE US.

WILLMAR TRIBUNE
 PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY AT WILLMAR, MINNESOTA, BY THE TRIBUNE PRINTING CO.
 VICTOR E. LAWSON, EDITOR.
 CONTRIBUTIONS of news items or short, jibby articles on questions of general interest are thankfully received when the name of the writer is made known to the editors. Regular news correspondents wanted in every locality not already represented. Write for terms and instructions.
 ADVERTISEMENTS.—Display ads inserted for 25 cents per inch per week. Liberal discounts when taken in large quantities or when left standing. Local reading notices will be inserted for 10 cents per line each week. Write for terms for the publication of legal notices.
 The WILLMAR TRIBUNE has a larger general circulation in Kandiyohi county than any other newspaper. Our subscription books are open for inspection to advertisers. SUBSCRIPTION price, if paid before end of first year, $1.00 a year; if delinquent longer it is a year will be charged.
 OFFICE IN TRIBUNE BUILDING, 238 Fourth Street.
 (Entered at the postoffice at Willmar, Minn., as second class mail matter.)
 WEDNESDAY, OCT. 3, 1900.

For President,
 WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
 OF NEBRASKA.
 For Vice President,
 ADLAI E. STEVENSON, OF ILLINOIS.

For Congressman, Seventh District,
 M. J. DALY,
 OF OTTER TAIL COUNTY.
 COUNTY TICKET.
 For Representative,
 JOHN WICKLUND.
 For Auditor,
 P. R. SLETTEN.
 For Treasurer,
 P. J. DALE.
 For Sheriff,
 N. O. NELSON.
 For Register of Deeds,
 O. A. HEDIN.
 For County Attorney,
 P. H. FRYE.
 For Judge of Probate,
 J. H. STYLES.
 For Clerk of Court,
 D. J. PRICE.
 For County Superintendent of Schools,
 MISS INGA S. SYVERTSON.
 For Coroner,
 DR. W. E. MACLAUGHLIN.
 For Surveyor,
 N. G. HIGBOSTROM.
 For County Commissioners:
 First District, Jerry Leary; Third District, A. J. Smithson; Fifth District, C. E. Johnson.

SAME OLD DODGE.
 The trust managers are again resorting to the same old dodge of offering employment to men on condition that McKinley be re-elected.

Here is a part of one of the letters sent out by the Montclair Rubber Company of New York City, a branch of the Rubber Trust, to a Chicago traveling man:
 "Dear Sir: We would like to have you consider the following conditional proposition, subject to the election of McKinley and other trade conditions: We wish to secure a number of good salesmen to sell our goods exclusively during November, December, January, February and March, or as much of the time as possible, and also during the entire year of 1901 if mutually satisfactory.
 Our idea is if McKinley is elected to start our salesmen the following Monday, November 12, and pay them for trade as long as any can be found to pay for the expense and efforts. We do not know if you are situated so you can travel exclusively with our goods during the months mentioned, but should like to hear from you."
 These letters are sent broadcast over the land. The only purpose is to bribe the recipients to vote for McKinley. After the election the fellows who caught at the bait would find that they have been fooled. There is nothing in the above letter binding on the rubber trust. They could simply inform the applicant that they didn't need his services, and he would have no recourse. In line with this work is another dodge that was played successfully four years ago, namely ordering goods on conditions that McKinley be elected. These orders are fakes, pure and simple, and are only intended for the manufacturer to show his laborers to induce them to vote for McKinley. Some firms commenced that dodge last winter. Of course a little thought will show that such orders were fakes. No one accepts a conditional order like that eight months ahead of time. He could not buy up raw material until after election, and he certainly could not give prices that far ahead on such an order. One of those fake orders was for a large job of wood carving. Now that manufacturer could not buy the lumber at that time, and he could not know what the price of lumber would be in November. Therefore, if he made a contract it would have been a wild speculation that no reputable business man would embark on. A cause that has to resort to such subterfuges must be weak.
 Gov. Mount of Indiana, a staunch republican, being asked what he thought of Mark Hanna's statement that "there are no trusts," said:
 "If Hanna made that statement he did not know what he was saying or he wanted to fool the people of this country."
 "There are trusts in this country, and they are fast grinding the life out of the American people. I am opposed to them and I hope the American people will rise in their might and crush them."
 Yes, verily, they will rise and crush them. But they can't do it through a party whose leader believes that there are no trusts.

Boss Lawson permits himself to be interviewed by a St. Paul Globe reporter concerning the announcement of Dr. Johnson's conversion to republicanism. Lawson makes light of it and insults the man who made Vic Lawson what he is and gave him an opportunity to show himself. Such return for the favors shown him is rank ingratitude and beneath the dignity of a dog.—Willmar Argus.

 If there is anything we do despise it is ingratitude. Please give particulars. If the editor of the TRIBUNE is something lower than a dog, and Dr. Johnson made him so, 'pears that there isn't much call for gratitude. But to be serious, if we owe Dr. Johnson such a debt of gratitude that we must suppress our views of his political methods when he directly attacks our position, we want to know it. But we doubt if Editor Wharton really knows much about the early days of the TRIBUNE. Did Doc ever tell you about the proposition, for instance, that the TRIBUNE should "take care of certain local interests" and thus obviate the necessity of having more than two papers at Willmar? It is not unlikely that had we allowed our friend the Doctor to "make" us we would be today in Mr. Wharton's place and the Argus would have never been revived. But do tell us wherein we have been ungrateful.

The one foremost action in our history, the foremost action in all history, is the writing upon its pages the simple and sublime opening sentences of the Declaration of Independence. And the men who stand by it shall live to the eternal memory of mankind; and the men who depart from it, however triumphant and successful in their policies, shall perish and be forgotten or shall be remembered only to be despised.—Sen. Hoar.
 Right you are, senator. McKinley may be triumphant in his policy of denying freedom to a people who are ready to shed their last drop of blood for that boon which the Declaration of Independence says is an inalienable right of all men; but in future generations he will be "remembered only to be despised," because he was too weak to overcome the temptations of the demon of lust for power and vain glory.

Hawaiians for many years had furnished themselves with postal savings banks, which were very popular and as safe as the government itself. There was no desire on the part of the people to abolish them. But when the government of bankers called the United States took possession of the islands they did not like this system for the people. It did not give them an opportunity to control the money of the people so the system was abolished by congress and now the people will have to deposit their money with the bankers who will loan it out to the people and charge them an interest on their own money just as they do here. This furnishes a fine living for a few hundred people without working for it. Besides it it had continued our people at home might have concluded it possible for the government to operate savings banks and demanded it for their protection from failures of privately conducted banks. And so the Hawaiians are tasting some of the benefits of a government of, by and for banks and monopolists.—Ex.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES.
 An immense audience packed the Opera House last Saturday evening to listen to Lieut. Martin E. Tew's lecture on the Philippines. For two hours they listened with rapt attention to the truth about the operations in those islands. In a plain and straightforward manner that brought conviction to his hearers he told how Aguinaldo and his followers had been fighting as the allies of the Americans against the Spanish; how at the request of the American commander the Filipino forces gave up a portion of their trenches to the American soldiers; how the Filipinos had conquered the Spaniards all over the island, and established a republican government patterned after the American constitution how they had halled the Americans as liberators; how anxiously they tried to avoid trouble, giving up position after position to the Americans; how the trouble started by a shot from an American sentinel; and how even then the Filipino general tried to have the war stopped and a neutral zone established between the armies, in order to prevent a repetition of the outbreak. He showed that the Filipinos who are fighting for their liberty are a civilized race, with schools, colleges, newspapers, art institutes, and other adjuncts of civilization and refinement. He told how a Filipino general pointed out to him the fact that the proportion of savages to civilized people in the Philippines is not as large by far as it was in our country at the time we attained independence. He demonstrated that we could not make the Philippines an integral part of this republic without bringing our laborers in competition with cheap labor; and to make them colonial possessions without the right and privileges conferred by our constitution was contrary to our constitution and to justice. He called attention to the monstrous injustice and inconsistency of killing the Christian Filipinos under the plea of civilization, while the government was paying for the privilege of hoisting the stars and stripes over the harams and slave pens of the savage Mohammedans of Sulu. He made no mention of parties, but told the simple truth about affairs in the Philippines, and left the hearers to draw their own conclusions. No person unblinded by partisan zeal could listen to that recital without feeling that the administration had committed a grievous wrong in destroying the Philippine republic, and that it was the duty of all fairminded Americans to vote to redress that wrong. There were undoubtedly many in that audience who felt that they had hitherto been misled by false and distorted statements published by the partisan press to bolster up the cause of the administration, and who will throw off the party yoke at least for this election. The American people as a whole love justice, and when they realize the truth they will end the war of conquest and subjugation by retiring McKinley.

and insults the man who made Vic Lawson what he is and gave him an opportunity to show himself. Such return for the favors shown him is rank ingratitude and beneath the dignity of a dog.—Willmar Argus.
 If there is anything we do despise it is ingratitude. Please give particulars. If the editor of the TRIBUNE is something lower than a dog, and Dr. Johnson made him so, 'pears that there isn't much call for gratitude. But to be serious, if we owe Dr. Johnson such a debt of gratitude that we must suppress our views of his political methods when he directly attacks our position, we want to know it. But we doubt if Editor Wharton really knows much about the early days of the TRIBUNE. Did Doc ever tell you about the proposition, for instance, that the TRIBUNE should "take care of certain local interests" and thus obviate the necessity of having more than two papers at Willmar? It is not unlikely that had we allowed our friend the Doctor to "make" us we would be today in Mr. Wharton's place and the Argus would have never been revived. But do tell us wherein we have been ungrateful.

The one foremost action in our history, the foremost action in all history, is the writing upon its pages the simple and sublime opening sentences of the Declaration of Independence. And the men who stand by it shall live to the eternal memory of mankind; and the men who depart from it, however triumphant and successful in their policies, shall perish and be forgotten or shall be remembered only to be despised.—Sen. Hoar.
 Right you are, senator. McKinley may be triumphant in his policy of denying freedom to a people who are ready to shed their last drop of blood for that boon which the Declaration of Independence says is an inalienable right of all men; but in future generations he will be "remembered only to be despised," because he was too weak to overcome the temptations of the demon of lust for power and vain glory.

Hawaiians for many years had furnished themselves with postal savings banks, which were very popular and as safe as the government itself. There was no desire on the part of the people to abolish them. But when the government of bankers called the United States took possession of the islands they did not like this system for the people. It did not give them an opportunity to control the money of the people so the system was abolished by congress and now the people will have to deposit their money with the bankers who will loan it out to the people and charge them an interest on their own money just as they do here. This furnishes a fine living for a few hundred people without working for it. Besides it it had continued our people at home might have concluded it possible for the government to operate savings banks and demanded it for their protection from failures of privately conducted banks. And so the Hawaiians are tasting some of the benefits of a government of, by and for banks and monopolists.—Ex.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES.
 An immense audience packed the Opera House last Saturday evening to listen to Lieut. Martin E. Tew's lecture on the Philippines. For two hours they listened with rapt attention to the truth about the operations in those islands. In a plain and straightforward manner that brought conviction to his hearers he told how Aguinaldo and his followers had been fighting as the allies of the Americans against the Spanish; how at the request of the American commander the Filipino forces gave up a portion of their trenches to the American soldiers; how the Filipinos had conquered the Spaniards all over the island, and established a republican government patterned after the American constitution how they had halled the Americans as liberators; how anxiously they tried to avoid trouble, giving up position after position to the Americans; how the trouble started by a shot from an American sentinel; and how even then the Filipino general tried to have the war stopped and a neutral zone established between the armies, in order to prevent a repetition of the outbreak. He showed that the Filipinos who are fighting for their liberty are a civilized race, with schools, colleges, newspapers, art institutes, and other adjuncts of civilization and refinement. He told how a Filipino general pointed out to him the fact that the proportion of savages to civilized people in the Philippines is not as large by far as it was in our country at the time we attained independence. He demonstrated that we could not make the Philippines an integral part of this republic without bringing our laborers in competition with cheap labor; and to make them colonial possessions without the right and privileges conferred by our constitution was contrary to our constitution and to justice. He called attention to the monstrous injustice and inconsistency of killing the Christian Filipinos under the plea of civilization, while the government was paying for the privilege of hoisting the stars and stripes over the harams and slave pens of the savage Mohammedans of Sulu. He made no mention of parties, but told the simple truth about affairs in the Philippines, and left the hearers to draw their own conclusions. No person unblinded by partisan zeal could listen to that recital without feeling that the administration had committed a grievous wrong in destroying the Philippine republic, and that it was the duty of all fairminded Americans to vote to redress that wrong. There were undoubtedly many in that audience who felt that they had hitherto been misled by false and distorted statements published by the partisan press to bolster up the cause of the administration, and who will throw off the party yoke at least for this election. The American people as a whole love justice, and when they realize the truth they will end the war of conquest and subjugation by retiring McKinley.

and insults the man who made Vic Lawson what he is and gave him an opportunity to show himself. Such return for the favors shown him is rank ingratitude and beneath the dignity of a dog.—Willmar Argus.
 If there is anything we do despise it is ingratitude. Please give particulars. If the editor of the TRIBUNE is something lower than a dog, and Dr. Johnson made him so, 'pears that there isn't much call for gratitude. But to be serious, if we owe Dr. Johnson such a debt of gratitude that we must suppress our views of his political methods when he directly attacks our position, we want to know it. But we doubt if Editor Wharton really knows much about the early days of the TRIBUNE. Did Doc ever tell you about the proposition, for instance, that the TRIBUNE should "take care of certain local interests" and thus obviate the necessity of having more than two papers at Willmar? It is not unlikely that had we allowed our friend the Doctor to "make" us we would be today in Mr. Wharton's place and the Argus would have never been revived. But do tell us wherein we have been ungrateful.

The one foremost action in our history, the foremost action in all history, is the writing upon its pages the simple and sublime opening sentences of the Declaration of Independence. And the men who stand by it shall live to the eternal memory of mankind; and the men who depart from it, however triumphant and successful in their policies, shall perish and be forgotten or shall be remembered only to be despised.—Sen. Hoar.
 Right you are, senator. McKinley may be triumphant in his policy of denying freedom to a people who are ready to shed their last drop of blood for that boon which the Declaration of Independence says is an inalienable right of all men; but in future generations he will be "remembered only to be despised," because he was too weak to overcome the temptations of the demon of lust for power and vain glory.

Hawaiians for many years had furnished themselves with postal savings banks, which were very popular and as safe as the government itself. There was no desire on the part of the people to abolish them. But when the government of bankers called the United States took possession of the islands they did not like this system for the people. It did not give them an opportunity to control the money of the people so the system was abolished by congress and now the people will have to deposit their money with the bankers who will loan it out to the people and charge them an interest on their own money just as they do here. This furnishes a fine living for a few hundred people without working for it. Besides it it had continued our people at home might have concluded it possible for the government to operate savings banks and demanded it for their protection from failures of privately conducted banks. And so the Hawaiians are tasting some of the benefits of a government of, by and for banks and monopolists.—Ex.

LINCOLN WANTED NO EXCEPTIONS.
"I should like to know if, taking this old Declaration of Independence, which declares that all men are equal upon principle, you begin making exceptions to it, where will you stop? If one man says it does not mean a negro, why not another man say it does not mean some other man? If that declaration is not the truth let us get the statute book in which we find it and tear it out! If it is true, let us stand by it."

TO SAVE THE REPUBLIC.
Men of All Parties and Beliefs Flocking to Bryan's Standard.
 [CONTINUED]
 Among those who supported McKinley four years ago, but are supporting Bryan this year, we find Carl Schurz, Secretary of Interior under Hayes; Bourke Cochran, probably the greatest orator of America today; Richard Olney, former secretary of State, William L. Wilson, ex-Postmaster General; Josiah Quincy, for many years mayor of Boston; Judge Moran of Chicago; Judge Tuley of Chicago; Judge J. D. Yeomans of Iowa, member of the Inter-state commerce commission; Gen. Patrick Collins of Massachusetts; ex-congressman John DeWitt Warner; Judge Moorfield Storey, of New York; ex-mayor John P. Hopkins of Chicago.
 The latest addition to the Bryan forces are as follows:
 Ex-Congressman Scott Wike of Illinois, who opposed Bryan in 1896, has tendered his services to the Democratic state committee.
 Benjamin F. Johnson of the same state, who was the Republican candidate for congress in the 18th district, in 1898, is out for Bryan.
 David F. Bremner, a prominent capitalist of Chicago, comes to Bryan as the savior of the constitution and the flag.
 Charles E. Harwood, Republican and former mayor of Lynn, Mass., is with Bryan on the issue of imperialism. David Spektorosky of Boston renounces McKinley for the same reason.
 Fred T. Hord, a Palmer and Buckner man of Indianapolis, Ind., has followed his brethren into the fold. Elijah Tomey of Washington, Ind., leaves the Republican party this year after a lifelong adherence.
 J. Warren Greene of New York makes public his conversion to Bryan in a letter to the Evening Post of that city.
 From Danville, Ill., the following are reported: E. R. E. Kimbrough, former speaker of Illinois house of representatives; Michael Kelly, "the wealthiest man in Vermilion county"; Louis Platt, real estate dealer; Dr. H. W. Moberhouse, chief surgeon of the Wabash railway system; Thomas Conron, hardware merchant; Ben Hardy, lumber dealer; Thomas B. Castleman, manager of the Danville Press; Dr. J. W. Wright physician; A. R. Hill, attorney; J. H. Barkley, retired capitalist; R. W. Gillette, physician, and 150 Germans who formerly voted the Republican ticket."

QUESTIONS HIS POLITICS.
 SUNBURGH, Minn., Sept. 24, 1900.
 EDITOR TRIBUNE:
 The Argus of last week, under the heading "Good Men and True" place P. A. Gandrud at the head. If the Argus man had known Gandrud as well as we do up here he might have hesitated about putting him in that list. As far as Gandrud's speaking is concerned he can spout some high-sounding phrases about our glorious work in "civilizing" the Philippines, and brag about how high we stand in civilization. If high civilization makes us go over there and kill the people I wonder what we would do if we were less civilized. I have heard two of Gandrud's speeches this summer, and they were just the same.
 As to Gandrud's politics, when he came here he was a republican, but when he found we were almost to a man Alliance men he joined us, and went with us into the people's party. He wanted our trade, of course. But in 1896 he went down to the cities to buy his fall stock of goods. What kind of a bargain he made is of course not known, but he came back a republican. Some time after the republicans gave him the post office, although the old postmaster had three times as many names on his petition as Gandrud had on his. Evidently he had bought some good stock on that trip.
 So we that have known him for years don't believe that he is a republican from principle, but because he thinks there might be something to gain by it. Fellow citizens of Kandiyohi county, is that the kind of a man you want to represent you in the legislature?

SUNBURGHITE.
 For reliable fire insurance as cheap as any, see B. T. Oso, in TRIBUNE building.

Mob violence is despicable everywhere. The mobbing of Roosevelt at Victor, Col., was on a par with the mobbing of Bryan by Yale students in 1896. The republicans were sorry that Bryan was mobbed, but they did not go back on their principles and vote for him for that reason; the democrats and populists are sorry Roosevelt was attacked, but they will not go back on their principles on that account.

KANDIYOHI.
 Oct. 1.
 We notice a change in the atmosphere, very cool and crisp mornings, and nature is wreathing itself in its autumnal bloom, all tell of waning summer. Wedding bells are ringing. Miss Amanda Noid and Mr. Edward Erickson will be united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Wednesday, Oct. 3. Mrs. John Wicklund and daughter Amy, were guests at A. Broman's Thursday. Misses Helga Broman and Hilma Norman called on Willmar friends a couple of days last week. W. V. Olson came down from Raymond Saturday. A number of our good and faithful republicans rallied up to Willmar last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Holmberg of Willmar visited relatives and friends here the latter part of last week. Wm. Cederberg of Minneapolis is spending a couple of weeks with relatives here. Swan Olson has purchased S. A. Modine's farm in town of Genesee. Consideration $4,000. Rev. Carlson and family arrived here from Calumet, Mich., last week, to take charge of the pastorate of the M. E. church of Tripoli. He conducted his first service last Sunday morning. Mrs. H. Broman and son Ralph, and Misses Esther and Hilma Norman visited with Mrs. F. E. Broman last Thursday. Kandiyohi was well represented at the populist convention held at Willmar last Saturday. This shows that our town has quite a number of bright and intelligent men. Miss Hilma Norman left for Renville Saturday where she has been engaged to teach the coming year. Jack Bartley and family Sunday at Swan Olson's. Mrs. Z. Jones of Fabius spent last week with her son George. A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hans Flygare at their home last Wednesday evening, by a number of their friends of the immediate vicinity, the occasion being Mr. Flygare's birthday anniversary. He was the recipient of a very handsome rocker. The evening was spent in social intercourse and all took their departure after wishing Mr. Flygare many happy returns of the day.

DON'T BE DUPED
 There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price.
 By dealers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $5.00, and which was much superior to these imitations, being a work of some merit instead of one Long Since Obsolete.
 The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name. It bears our imprint on the title-page and is protected by copyright from cheap imitation. As a dictionary lasts a lifetime will not be better to purchase the LATEST AND BEST.
 Webster's International Dictionary of ENGLISH, Biography, Geography, Fiction, etc. Size 10x12 1/2x2 1/4 inches.
 This Book is the Best for Everybody. STANDARD AUTHORITY of the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, the U. S. Government Printing Office and of nearly all the Schoolbooks. WARMLY COMMANDED by College Presidents, State Superintendents of Schools and many other eminent authorities.
 Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Recently abridged from the International and sent to it the best for the family and student.
 Size 7 1/2x9 1/2 inches.
 Specimen pages either book sent for the asking. G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Springfield, Mass.

ROSELAND. Oct. 2.
 The person who took the contract for fitting up the old well at the schoolhouse ought to attend to the job soon. Some damage might result otherwise.
 Say, Pat, what wrong has Bryan done that he has so roused your ire. In your last epistle to the Gazette you pile up a three-story structure of dirt,
 The person who took the contract for fitting up the old well at the schoolhouse ought to attend to the job soon. Some damage might result otherwise.
 Say, Pat, what wrong has Bryan done that he has so roused your ire. In your last epistle to the Gazette you pile up a three-story structure of dirt,

NEST LAKE.
 (Intended for last week.)
 Miss Lydia Wilson of Spicer, spent a couple of days visiting with Signe Peterson. L. E. Hengston and F. W. Nelson are along with V. E. Olson & Co. threshing. The guests at Signe Peterson's Sunday, were Hans Hanson, Wallie Henderson, Alma Samuelson, Fred and Mary Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. F. Carlson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Erik Dahlberg and daughters, Eva and Adelia of Colfax, visited at Nels Larsons Sunday. V. E. Olson & Nordstedt threshing crew are busy threshing around here. The wheat averages 11 to 12 bushels to the acre.

WHITEFIELD. Sept. 24.
 Mr. August Lindquist took a trip out east Sunday. Misses Mary and Annie and Mr. Otto Truelson wheeled to E. Erickson's Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. August Anderson visited with J. Mattson Sunday. Misses Louisa Moline and Emma Olson called at E. A. Erickson's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Art Englund has been on the sick list, but is now among us again. The fall term of school in Dist. 57 will begin Oct. 1. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Erickson and family visited in Fabius Sunday. The Dakota wheat gave a fair yield this year. The bridge across Lake Waconda is visited by hunters in the evenings so when the firing is going on you might think it is the Chinese who have come to attack.
 The fall term of school in Dist. 57 will begin Oct. 1. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Erickson and family visited in Fabius Sunday. The Dakota wheat gave a fair yield this year. The bridge across Lake Waconda is visited by hunters in the evenings so when the firing is going on you might think it is the Chinese who have come to attack.

NOTICE.
 Notice is hereby given that all State Capitol Lands on which the rent is delinquent will be rented at Public Auction at the Court House in the village of Willmar on the 25th day of October, A. D. 1900, at 2 o'clock p. m.
 LEWIS JOHNSON,
 County Auditor.

DR. NIVEN
 has returned from Europe and will be in New London Monday, Oct. 8, and at Water Oct. 9 and 10. Dentistry in all branches. Painless toothpulling. Lowest prices.

ANOTHER CHANCE
BAKING CONTEST.
 FOR THE GIRLS WHO FAILED TO WIN AT THE CLIPPING CONTEST.
 This time we will give a little Junior Range to the girl who bakes the best pan of biscuits at our store on a regular
BUCK'S STEEL RANGE
 We want to prove to you that even a child can operate an easy to operate Buck's Stove or Range.

The Girls Must Register
 at the store before the contest takes place. We furnish all the materials and will use the Willmar Milling Co.'s celebrated fancy Flour, the best now on the market. A light lunch will be served to all who call during the day.
OCT. 6 IS THE DATE.
 We want every girl in town to work her hardest, learning to cook.
HALVORSON & NEUBERGER

SPECTACLES.
DON'T BE DUPED
 There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price.
 By dealers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $5.00, and which was much superior to these imitations, being a work of some merit instead of one Long Since Obsolete.
 The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name. It bears our imprint on the title-page and is protected by copyright from cheap imitation. As a dictionary lasts a lifetime will not be better to purchase the LATEST AND BEST.
 Webster's International Dictionary of ENGLISH, Biography, Geography, Fiction, etc. Size 10x12 1/2x2 1/4 inches.
 This Book is the Best for Everybody. STANDARD AUTHORITY of the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, the U. S. Government Printing Office and of nearly all the Schoolbooks. WARMLY COMMANDED by College Presidents, State Superintendents of Schools and many other eminent authorities.
 Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Recently abridged from the International and sent to it the best for the family and student.
 Size 7 1/2x9 1/2 inches.
 Specimen pages either book sent for the asking. G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Springfield, Mass.

FLOUR FLOUR FLOUR
Willmar Milling Company,
 Willmar, Minn.
WE GIVE 32 Pounds of Flour, 6 Pounds of Bran, 4 Pounds of Shorts
 Feed ground at 5 cents per sack.
 Give us a trial. FOR ONE BUSHEL OF WHEAT.
FLOUR FLOUR FLOUR