DAILY MEETINGS.

Our Next Congressman Addresses Large and Enthusiastic Audiences in Several Parts of the County.

Our next congressman, M. J. Daly made a tour of the county last week. Thursday evening he spoke to a very large and intensely enthusiastic audience at New London. He made a very favorable impression, and many who had taken little interest in the congressional campaign came away bubbling with enthusiasm for Daly, and will work earnestly for him till the polls close up on election day.

Friday afternoon he addressed a large audience at the Arcotander town hall and as usual made a good many friends.

Friday evening he invaded Feig's ballroom, Raymond, and spoke to a large audience. Feig was there with his Rough Rider suit and ditto manner. He intended to show his admirers how he would "do up" Mike Daly but after a few interruptions had been disposed of by the speaker Feig concluded the job was too big for him, and he settled down into "innocuous desuetude."

Saturday afternoon Daly addressed a meeting at Fahlan. The attendance was small, a number of the people in the neighborhood being busy threshing.

Saturday evening Mr. Daly spoke in Atwater. Although the weather very unfavorable a large audience greeted the speaker. The people listened with rapt attention to the eloquent and powerful orator, and applauded liberally.

Mike Daly wins friends wherever he goes. The tide is unmistakably in his direction and all signs point to his election.

KERKHOVEN AND VICINITY.

Oct. 22. Messrs. Gordhamer, Ahlborn, Jacobson, Hough and Miller attended Senator Nelson's speech in Willmar. The M. W. A. degree team are practicing up for some work in the near future. Geo. A. Crandall of Granite Falls has sold his property here to I. B. Prather. Mr. and Mrs. J. Finstrom of Pillsbury, spent Sunday with Faulk's of Svea. The F. W. Segerstrom auction held on Saturday in town of Pillsbury was well attended, and goods sold high. J. W. Miller spent a couple of days last week with his parents of Knapp, Wisconsin. Hannah Dalsten spent Sunday in Willmar. Sheriff McShane, democratic nominee for re-election, shook hands with Kerkhoven voters Friday. Phil Kieffe has been appointed by democratic committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the nominee for representative from his district. Mrs. H. P. Barrager of Woods spent Sunday with Hubbards. The social given by the W. C. T. U. Friday eve was well attended. Net proceeds amounted to $10. Misses Mary and Emma Erlanson of Mamre are dressmaking at Amos Jacobson. Hon. J. F. Jacobson of La Qui Parle county spoke on State Issues in the town hall Monday eve. TOMMY.

RINGVILLE.

Oct. 16. Threshing is nearly done. Emil Anderson and Emma Amundson left for North Dakota some time ago. It is said Miss Amundson is going to take a homestead. Bethania Sewing Society meets with Mrs. C. Anderson, Wednesday Oct. 17. Rev. Midtun again occupied the pulpit in Gausdahl's church after an absence of nearly four months, which he has spent in the old country. Rev. Tolo preached in Crow River church last Sunday after an absence of a couple of months spent in the northern part of the state. If the rumor is true, the wedding bells will soon be heard "apealing" over the sea brown fields of Ringville. Mrs. T. Z. Newgard was badly hurt some time ago by falling down cellar, but is now able to be around again. Mr. E. Johnson returned from his visit to Paris and several places in "Gamlendat." Elias looks as hale and happy as ever and to be "On the go" seems to agree with him better than anything else, even if it does make his pockets look considerably lighter at times.

ROSEVILLE.

Oct. 13. The autumnal beauty of the woods is here; corn is husked, potatoes dug, hay secured and fields turned over for next year's inspection. After rain comes sunshine, but that is no reason why wheat is dropping before election. In 1896 the choice was McKinley or Bryan; this year it changed to Bryan or McKinley. See! Republican prosperity was held down at Hawick by Mr. George from St. Paul Tuesday evening, and Wednesday evening Mr. Kjols raised the temperance banner at Norland church. The scholars in Dist. 97 are rejoicing in a full supply of books this term. "Me too," says PEDAGOG.

SVEA.

Oct. 17. Mosquitoes and politics are plentiful now-a-days. Miss Emma Sander is on the sick list. Alfred Trulson is recovering from his attack of typhoid fever, under the care of Dr. McLaughlin. A large number from here went to Willmar last Friday to hear Owen. They all speak very highly of him. Rev. Lindholm of Tripolis, occupied the pulpit in the church last Sunday. Miss Ellen Faulk returned from Minneapolis Saturday, where she has been visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Lindblad of Fahlan visited at Rev. J. O. Lundberg's Sunday. Miss Ellen Swenson is at present staying with her sister, Mrs. A. O. Nelson. The band boys are getting to the front as musicians. They received their uniforms and look fine in them. The past week they played at four different places, Wednesday in Lake Lillian, Friday in Willmar and Atwater, Saturday evening. They furnished some exceedingly fine music in Dist. 55. Tomorrow they will go to Willmar and play for "Knute". The Young People Society met again Friday week before last. They will meet the first Friday of each month. The gops were trying to make things hum in Svea last week, but they had to find out the Sveates were more in for the people's cause than their "imperialistic bragging." Thursday evening Mr. Leavenhearst held forth for their cause in school-house Dist. 68. He stated that the republican party was only in favor of trusts to some extent, and that they were bound to flourish under these "great prosperous" times which McKinley had created, when everything else flourishes. He also said they "had to have them in order to protect the laborer." Very true, indeed. The miners of Pennsylvania as well as everybody else who is employed under a trust corporation knows very well that the trusts safely protects them from getting too high wages. But one thing he said was a great lie, "That it has been more expensive to the state during the Lind administration than during Cloughs." Everybody knows it is just the opposite way. Then Saturday evening we had the honor (if we can call it so) of listening to Messrs. Gandrud, Johnson and Nordin in Dist. 55. One of them said that the republican was "strongly opposed to trusts" but he failed to explain why they did not enforce the laws they have against trusts now. But one was a "cracker-jack;" he must undoubtedly some time have, visited a low grade minstrel show and picked up the most comical acts. Among other things he said Bryan was meddling with the "Devil and misery" and that "hell is full of such heroes as Aguilinaldo." That is indeed like republican speaking. We are glad that the people are too well informed now-a-days to believe what the "ribustering gops" are racing around the country telling them. KID MCCHEE.

NEST LAKE.

Oct. 22. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Healer of Colfax, visited at P. A. Peterson Sunday. We see by the New London Times that it is rumored that Dr. Johnson will make a number of speeches shortly in the interest of the republican party. We would like to see him come down here and make a speech. We would try and make a rally. Some of our Nest Lake and Green Lake young people visited at Eric Dalbergs in Colfax last Sunday. The sudden death of Hans Hanson of Lake Andrew, was a surprise to all who knew him. He died sometime during Tuesday night, and was found dead in his bed Wednesday morning. Ye lovers of the fair sex get your girls on election day and vote for Miss Sivertson for superintendent of schools.

FAHLUN.

Oct. 23. John G. Dahlin returned from the cities last Wednesday. A party of young people were entertained by Miss Hilma Freed, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindblad Sunday at Richard Soderbergs in Roseland. Messrs. Emil and Willie Bjornberg of Willmar, visited their sister, Mrs. L. P. Felt a couple of days last week. Misses Hilda Lund, Thekla Wahlstran and Hilma Freed departed for Willmar the first of the week, where they expect to remain for some time. Clarence Johnson attended to legal matters in Atwater last Monday. Henry Isaacson of Kandiyohi, called at Freedholm's last Monday. All members of the Lindblad's threshing company are requested to be present at the meeting to be held next Friday afternoon at A. Lundeen's, and transact such business as may come before said meeting.

ROSELAND.

Oct. 22. The weather continues fine and the farmers are finishing up the outside work for the fall. A number of our young people attended the blow-out at Willmar last Tuesday evening. The parade was reported to be fine. Knute touched on a number of things but he kept silent on the Porto Rican Tariff bill. Can you tell us why? Mr. Haglund and son, Axel were putting in hitching posts at the school house Saturday. Rev. Mr. Collin of New London, preached at Christine yesterday. Mr. P. R. Sletten and Mr. P. J. Dale, fusion candidates for auditor and treasurer respectively, were seen around here Saturday. They are both good honest men who are wishing the welfare of our country and our citizens will not be disappointed in casting their votes for them. Mr. Ole Blomquist has been helping Willie Lundquist in repairing the inside of his house this week. PAT.

Mr. and Mrs. Telander Johnson visited relatives in Kandiyohi last Sunday. Adam Kirt returned to his home in Wisconsin last Thursday. Olof Bengtson had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse last week. The Bengtson brothers & Co. rig did some corn threshing last Thursday. That's right Wexler let us hear from you. A few of our Demo-pops turned out last Friday evening to hear the republican speaker in the school house No. 90, but with no effect as the orator failed to appear. They know very well the republican party cannot make any converts here any way. DEXTER.
