

GREAT NORTHERN WRECK.

Two Seriously Injured and Others Cut and Bruised.

Pipestone, Minn., Nov. 8.—A bal wreck occurred on the Great Northern about two miles south of this city last evening. Two coaches and a baggage car went into the ditch. The wreck is supposed to have been caused by the spreading of the rails. The train ran almost twice its length on the ties before going over. Both coaches were well filled.

Mrs. W. H. Polich of Hull was seriously bruised and lacerated; J. B. Bacon, traveling freight agent for the Great Northern, was badly shaken up and sustained several injuries. Other passengers were slightly cut and bruised, but none seriously. The injured were at once brought here and are being cared for in the best possible manner.

Pipestone, Minn., Nov. 10.—Dr. John Wright, the well known Episcopal rector and biblical scholar of St. Paul, who was seriously injured last Wednesday in a railroad wreck near this town, was able to leave his bed to-day. He will probably recover, unless his internal injuries prove more severe than they are supposed to be. He sustained a concussion of the brain and remained unconscious nearly twenty-four hours.

His cheek was bruised beneath the left eye. His lower lip was deeply cut. He still complains of pains in his chest and across his back. He is now under the care of Dr. Louis M. Benepe of St. Paul, who arrived here this evening. The doctor and his patient will leave Monday in a special car over the Great Northern railway. When they reach St. Paul Dr. Wright will be taken to St. Luke's hospital.

The coach in which Dr. Wright was riding was thrown bottom side up. The occupants were bled together at the forward end amid bags, bundles, broken glass and loose car seats. Dr. Wright, who was brought here with the other injured passengers, was taken to the Calumet hotel. There he has received every attention from local surgeons.

At the Calumet also is another of the injured men, Jens Johnson, of 2424 Ninth street south, Minneapolis. He is a traveling passenger agent in the employ of the Great Northern company. His right foot was bruised and his system was severely shocked. His injuries, however, are less serious than those of Dr. Wright. Mr. Johnson is still confined to his bed, but he expects to start for Minneapolis Monday.

Accidental Shooting. The farm of Olof Strandberg, in the town of Lake Lillian, was the scene of an accidental shooting, on Thursday, the 1st inst., which resulted in the death of a young man named Suzen. The particulars of the affair, as near as can be learned, are as follows: The unfortunate young man had gone out on a hunting trip in company with a relative, with whom he was stopping. While at Fox Lake, which lies a short distance from the Strandberg home, one of the men decided to go out in a boat, while Suzen remained on shore. The object was to secure good positions for shooting the game which was very plentiful at that point. As the rushes were high they were unable to see each other, and in course of time had got quite a distance apart. It was late in the afternoon when the report of a gun was heard from the direction in which Mr. Suzen had gone, but no one had thought any more of it. It developed later that the shooting had been heard by both Mr. and Mrs. Strandberg, but as hunters had been quite numerous in that vicinity it was supposed to be a natural occurrence. In the meantime his companion had gone home, thinking that Suzen would soon follow. The latter had been in the habit of going to a neighbor's on musical errands, being a musician. He had spoken of an appointment to give a musical instrument that evening and it was quite natural to suppose that he had gone on that errand before it grew too late.

Nothing was seen or heard of the missing man, however, and a search was instituted the next morning. One of the children at the Strandberg home had seen the man from some distance standing on a rock when the gun was discharged, and upon being questioned thought at the time that he had only dodged to a bush sometimes does. It developed later that this was the fatal moment, the young man having dropped immediately out of sight. The supposition is that he had struck the hammer of the gun against some object and it discharged with the above consequences. The body was found the next morning and was removed to the hospital.

Willmar's Wood Engraver. E. C. Christenson has done some work recently which shows that he has not forgotten what he learned at the engraving-house of Bramblet & Beysen of Minneapolis some years ago. Mr. Christenson is quite an artist in this line, and has been given the work of preparing wood engravings for a theatrical company which has had a large amount of advertising matter printed in Willmar.

INJURED BY FALLING WALL.

Marius Johnson Receives Severe Injuries at Old Round House.

Last Friday, shortly before the noon hour, an accident befell one of the workmen who are engaged in tearing down the old round house. A portion of a wall gave way and struck Marius Johnson, burying him beneath the debris. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and Dr. Frost was summoned. Upon his arrival the injured man had recovered so as to be able to stand without assistance. A livery team was sent for and he was taken with all possible haste to his home on south First street. An examination of his injuries was made and it was found that he was hurt internally besides receiving bruises on different parts of the body.

The patient is receiving the best of treatment from the railway company's physician, Dr. MacLaughlin, although his injuries are of such a nature that he will be laid up for some time. Johnson is a newcomer, having come here from Norway but a short time ago. He has a wife and is in poor circumstances.

Atwater. The Catholic fair advertised to take place here Saturday was held at Kandiyohi instead. A very large crowd was present and the affair was a complete success. In the contest between Miss Nora O'Brien and Miss Mayme Downs for a gold watch, the latter won. The sum of $525 was taken in, and will be used towards the erection of a dwelling house for the priest at Willmar. We are advised by the health officer that the cases of small-pox mentioned in last week's issue are just about well, and the quarantine will soon be removed. The cases were of an extremely mild form. No new cases have developed in the village and the health officer says that he does not think there will be any more cases. The schools will be opened Monday, and the church services and all other public gatherings will be resumed at once.—Atwater Republican Press.

A Pleasant Surprise. Olof Berkness and wife were the victims of a most pleasant surprise last Thursday evening. It was the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage and a number of their friends had arranged to make the date a memorable one by an invasion of their home on that evening. The party included nearly fifty of our citizens and they came laden with eatables and all the necessaries for a good time. Before departing they paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Berkness in a most substantial way. They were remembered with a beautifully decorated glass wine set and a set of silver knives and forks.

Change in Business Firm. Among the recent business changes in the city is that of Halvorson & Neuberger, the new hardware and house-furnishing firm. Mr. Halvorson has purchased the interest of Mr. Neuberger and will conduct the business alone. The retiring member of the firm, we understand, will remain in Willmar in the tinmith business. The establishment has a business that is rapidly growing, having made liberal use of printer's ink in judicious advertising. The TRIBUNE wishes both of these popular gentlemen the same well-merited success in their respective vocations that has attended them in the past.

Belgrade Wedding. Last Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Ethel Smith of this village, to Mr. Frank Hoskin of Aberdeen, S. D. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sund at Hotel Belgrade, and was witnessed only by near relatives and members of the family. The groom is a popular and successful traveling salesman and is worthy of the excellent bride he has won. The bride is one of Belgrade's most charming young ladies, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Hotel Belgrade.—Belgrade Tribune.

Another Enemy of the Box Elder. Prof. Lagger, of the state experiment school, says that the red bugs which have been so plentiful the past two weeks, are 'box elder' bugs, which live on the under side of the leaves of that tree, sucking the sap. When cold weather comes they seek winter quarters under wooden sidewalks, in out-houses, rubbish piles, etc. Their presence year after year destroys the trees, and they should be killed whenever possible.—Benson Times.

One of the Japanese patients at the Frost hospital died recently of typhoid fever. The remains were interred in Fairview cemetery.

Roseland.

Nov. 10.—Election is over and we are all looking for prosperity. W. Stanford of the University called on friends here last week. J. Enblom is building an addition to his barn. Miss Helga Broman spent last week with Willmar friends and relatives. Miss Alma Berg spent the latter part of last week at P. Norman's. Mrs. F. E. Broman entertained the ladies' society of the M. E. church last Thursday afternoon. Wm. J. Peterson was peeping at Enblom's last week. John Wicklund and family visited at H. Flygare's last Sunday afternoon. Miss Nellie Peterson was out looking for a lost man Sunday. A company of young people enjoyed a hunking party at Albert Isaacson's Thursday afternoon. A good time was reported. M. J. O'Brien and sister, Miss Julia, of Graceville, called on Mrs. O'Neill last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. M. and Mrs. P. Norman and F. E. Broman and family passed Sunday at H. Broman's. F. L. Holm spent last week at J. Bengtson's. Mr. Geo. Enblom is laid up with a sore hand.

To Be Married.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of two popular young people—Mr. John S. Sandin of Kerkhoven and Miss Emma Olson of Whitefield. The event takes place Thursday of this week at 10:30 a. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Olson. Rev. J. O. Lundberg will officiate. Invitations for the wedding reception have been issued for the married people on the 15th and the unmarried ones on the 16th, and it will no doubt be a memorable event. A number of Willmar people are planning to attend. The groom is a resident of Kerkhoven, where he is engaged in the harness-making business. The estimable couple will make their home at that place.

Bakery and Candy Factory.

The work of fitting up the second floor in the Johnson Cash Supply House for a modern bakery and candy manufactory has just commenced. Mr. Johnson has just finished the building of a mammoth oven, which will hold 400 loaves of bread at one baking. It is an S. L. Jones patent oven, manufactured in Chicago. A patent cooky machine will be put in soon.

Turkey Shoot.

I will give a turkey shoot on Monday, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, at Frank Gustafson's place, section 24, town of Lake Andrew. Thirty-five fat turkeys will be disposed of. Come early and bring your rifles and shotguns. Only No. 1 shot will be used. F. L. GUSTAFSON.

Fahlun.

Nov. 12.—The campaign of 1900 ended as was expected. Bryan was defeated and McKinley re-elected. Bryan's Populist, seems to be very anxious to know where Deputy Kid goes; do not worry 'please'. Olof Beckvall called on Lake Elizabeth friends Sunday. Clara and Esther Johnson spent last Friday in Willmar. Mrs. Alma and Alice Mattson attended the Hawkesen party Saturday evening before last. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Willmar, Sunday at Peter Felt's. One of our popular young ladies must be sorry now, when darling Bryan the man she loves was defeated for the presidency for the second term. 'But do stop for a moment, he's married'. Frank Lindblad is visiting at Richard Soderberg's in Roseland at present. John Johnson went to the cities last Monday. Goodbye, John. Edwin Fredholm returned from G. Blomgren's last Sunday, where he has been employed as carpenter for a short time. Willie Bjornberg returned to his home in Willmar last Monday, after a few weeks visit among relatives and friends here. Charley Alban and John Gibbons are reported to have left for a pleasure trip to St. Paul and Minneapolis. We wish you abundance of fun. A large company of young folks were entertained by the Misses Wahlstran last Sunday evening. All kinds of social games were played and refreshments were served throughout the evening, and the occasion was an enjoyable one for those who favored it with their patronage. Martin Holm has his new barn nearly completed. Quite a number of people from here have been attending the religious meetings held at Lake Elizabeth the past week. Nels Hegstrom is reported very sick. Emil Hegstrom spent Sunday evening a week ago last at the usual place. A certain democratic paper said the republican party is supporting the saloon gang. We cannot see why the republican party should support the saloons and a cause that is hurrying so many (before happy) homes to a total ruin and destruction. Deputy Kid is a republican, but not a saloon supporter; he is strongly opposed to strong drinks. DEPUTY KID.

The New Express Office.

Our people are very fortunate in having the express office so conveniently located. Mr. De La Hunt, who has charge of the office, takes special pains to handle the express business in a systematic manner, and the public appreciates it. He is building up a nice trade in his collection and new stand, and no man is more worthy of patronage than this accommodating gentleman.

Wedding of a Former Willmar Girl.

Miss Loda Ufso Glassford and Eugene Marvin Koll were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glassford, in Fargo, N. D. Mr. and Mrs. Koll came at once to Minneapolis, where they were tendered a reception by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Koll, 2348 Fifth street south. Flowers and ferns were used for decoration, and the rooms presented a handsome appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Koll will remain in Minneapolis about a week and then will go to Alexandria, where Mr. Koll is engaged in business.—Minneapolis Tribune, 9th inst.

Change of Railroad Employees.

There are several changes in the force of railway employees at the depot. J. F. Branton, chief train dispatcher, who has for many years been a valued employe of the company, tendered his resignation a short time ago. The position will be filled by F. E. Gerrish, of Grand Forks, N. D. Mr. Chapman, of St. Paul, has taken the position of chief clerk in the superintendent's office, while Mr. Hornbeck retains his former position. It is rumored that there is a probability of more changes in the near future.

Change at the Post Office.

F. J. Stansberry resigned his position last Saturday as assistant postmaster. It is to be regretted that Mr. Stansberry will no longer serve in that capacity there, as he has always been a most obliging and efficient assistant. However, he will enjoy a much needed rest, as his duties in the postoffice have kept him very busy. Postmaster Birch has secured the services of Miss Annie Ackerman, so now has two capable lady assistants in the persons of Miss Moss and Miss Ackerman.

Farm for Sale.

The Fleckten farm in the town of Kandiyohi is for sale. It is situated between Lake Waconda and Little Kandiyohi, and consists of 280 acres, 25 acres natural timber and 5 acres planted, 150 acres under cultivation, 70 acres meadow and the balance is in pasture. For particulars call at the farm of V. A. Fleckten, Kandiyohi, Minn.

Business is rushing here again.

Our merchant, J. Ed. Nelson, has received his fall and winter goods, and he is sure to please you in whatever you may want in that line. Our blacksmith, Ole Dahlgren, has had some new machinery placed in his shop, which makes it very convenient for him on account of the great amount of work he is doing. A stove has been placed in the creamery which makes it very comfortable for our buttermaker, Mr. Sorenson, during the chilly mornings. Our merchant, Mr. Nelson, is having a 10-day clearance sale of shoes, which ends the 7th inst. He is making a great sacrifice in prices and everybody should be on the watch and take it in, as it is a great snap. Rev. J. O. Lundberg returned from his trip to Canada last Tuesday. Nels Anderson has been in Willmar receiving treatment for injuries sustained in a runaway. Misses Emma Williamson and Emma Salander, who have been sick with typhoid fever, are now convalescent. The Y. P. society met last Friday evening. Mr. Sorenson was present with his photograph and furnished a few selections, which made the meeting enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Lundberg were pleasantly surprised last Friday afternoon by a very large number of friends. They were presented with a purse containing about $90 in cash, as a token of the high esteem in which they were held by them. The band furnished music for the occasion. A number of young people were entertained at Hegstrom's last Sunday evening. A very large number of our young fellows were in Willmar, Tuesday, October 30, and carried torches in honor of John Lind, and many were the ones that had the honor of shaking hands with him. Among them was KID MCCHEE.

The Frost Hospital.

A TRIBUNE reporter had occasion a short time ago to visit the Frost hospital, and while there was taken through the various departments. The hospital was in charge of Dr. Harold Frost, who is at present alone in successfully caring for a number of patients, the senior doctor, E. S. Frost, being still in the East. The rooms are all pleasant and cheerful looking and plenty of ventilation is afforded. All kinds of modern appliances are at hand and surgical instruments for use in all cases. The operating room is kept exceptionally clean, a point of excellence which was noticeable all through the building. Competent help in the way of nurses, etc., were employed and the reporter found eight patients confined there at the time of his visit. Seven of these were the Japanese laborers, who are recovering from a siege of typhoid fever.
