The Thompson homestead at New London is advertised for sale. This farm the editor regards as one of the most desirable places in the county for a farm home. Adjoining the limits of the Village of New London and with the Crow river running through the same, it combines the advantages of village life with those of natural advantages for raising crops and stock. It certainly ought to find a ready buyer.

The engine and tender of the St. Cloud train jumped the track last Monday noon at the first switch coming in on the main line at east end of passenger yard. The flange of the engine struck the point of the rail and caused the accident. With the aid of the switch engine the engine was soon placed on the track, without sustaining any injuries except the breaking of the springs on the tender.

And watch the calendar. Christmas is coming. Less than 30 days intervene—melancholy days, sadder of the year, when man must go down into the innermost recesses of his pockets—must open his purse and his heart.

Our holiday stock is daily arriving and soon our store will be full of things practical and things ornamental; things for domestic use and things for personal adornment, that best answer the question now uppermost in your thoughts: "What shall I give?" Watch our ads. and our store.

A SEWING MACHINE GIVEN AWAY.

Subscribers of the Willmar Tribune Will Determine by Their Votes Who is to Receive This Valuable and Useful Present.

The TRIBUNE Printing Company, publishers of the Willmar TRIBUNE will give a No. 8 New Royal drop-head sewing machine to the young lady in Kandiyohi county who receives the most votes from subscribers to the Willmar TRIBUNE up to the 24th day of December, 1901, at twelve o'clock noon. The rules are as follows:

In every issue of the Willmar TRIBUNE up to and including that of Dec. 17, 1901, will appear a coupon which when properly filled out will count one for each copy sent to the TRIBUNE office before the time limit expires.

In addition to the coupon votes that may be cut out of the papers and sent in, one vote will be given for every cent paid on subscription to the Willmar TRIBUNE within the time limit, when the person paying desires it and has a choice among the contestants. All money paid on subscription account, whether for arrearages or in advance will count in the contest. In this way, if you pay one dollar on subscription one hundred votes will be added to the list of the young lady you choose for the machine; 25c for a trial subscription of the paper will count twenty-five votes; five dollars on subscription would count five hundred votes, etc. Remember, that in order to count, the name for whom it is desired to credit the votes must accompany the remittance.

All persons connected with the TRIBUNE are barred from entering the contest or from influencing a choice from paying subscribers.

NO. 8 DROP-HEAD CABINET

The machine to be given away is shown in the window of the TRIBUNE office and may be examined by anyone interested. The number of the machine is 88,672 and it is guaranteed by the Illinois Sewing Machine Co., of Rockford, Ill., to be perfect in construction and material which warranty it will back up for ten years.
