Warning Against Forest and Prairie Fires

OFFICE OF STATE FOREST COMMISSIONER,
St. Paul, Minn., March 4, 1902.
Chapter 196 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for 1895 (Act of April 18th) constitutes Supervisors of towns, Mayors of cities and Presidents of village councils Fire Wardens, and it is made their duty to take precautions to prevent forest and prairie fires, and if they occur, to go and extinguish or control them; and in emergencies to call upon any able-bodied male person over eighteen years of age to assist. Reports of such fires with particulars tending to fix responsibility therefor shall be made within reasonable time—usually within a week. The forest commissioner is required to provide and sign an abstract (as herein) of the penalties under said law, and it is made the duty of the County Commissioners of each county to cause said abstract to be published in at least three issues of the official paper in their respective counties each year; between the 15th of April and 1st of November, and they are hereby instructed to publish this notice entire.

Under said law the following are liable to a penalty not exceeding $500 or imprisonment in the state prison not over ten years or both:

Any person who maliciously sets or causes to be set on fire any woods, prairie or other combustible material whereby the property of another is destroyed and life is sacrificed.

The following are liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 or imprisonment not exceeding three months:

Any person refusing, without cause, to assist fire wardens in extinguishing forest or prairie fires.

Any fire warden who neglects to perform his duties.

Any person who willfully, negligently or carelessly sets on fire, or causes to be set on fire, any woods, prairies or other combustible material thereby causing injury to another.

Any person who shall kindle a fire on or dangerously near to forest or prairie land and leave it unquenched, or who shall be a party thereto.

Any person who shall use other than incombustible fire wares for firearms or carry naked torch, firebrand or other exposed light in or dangerously near to forest land.

Any person who shall willfully or heedlessly deface, destroy or remove this or any other warning placard posted under the requirements of the above mentioned act.

Any railroad company willfully neglecting to provide efficient spark arresters on its engine or to keep it right of way to the width of 100 feet cleared of combustible material or which shall fail to comply with other provisions of Section 12 of the above mentioned act.

The following are liable to a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $50:

Any railroad employe who willfully violates the provisions of Section 12 of the above mentioned act.

Any owner of threshing or other portable steam engine who neglects to have efficient spark arresters, or who shall deposit live coals or hot ashes without extinguishing the same.

R. C. DUNN, (State Auditor),
C. C. ANDREWS, Forest Commissioner
Chief Fire Warden.

Big Fire Sale
AT THE RUINED
CASH SUPPLY HOUSE
of Geo. W. Johnson still in progress.

Last week we announced to the public that our stock, mostly damaged by water—some not damaged at all—would have to be disposed of regardless of consequences to ourselves. We are glad to say that the buying public has availed themselves of the opportunity beyond our expectations, but our stock was so large and varied that there are still bargains to suit everybody.

If you do not attend this sale it is your loss. Don't say that you are too busy with the spring work.

You Can Make Big Wages

by taking time and purchasing a supply of household necessities at this sale.

DON'T TURN A DEAF EAR TO THE ABOVE.

It is true and there is no reason why you should not profit by it as well as others, and we must get rid of the goods. Come from far and near to the Great Fire Sale.

Odd Fellow Anniversary.
The independent order of Odd Fellows celebrated their eighty-third anniversary by attending the divine worship at the M. E. church last Sunday morning. Pastor Joseph Hogg preached the anniversary sermon from the text "Pure religions and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless, and the widows in their afflictions, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." James 1:27 The fact was pointed out that "pure religion" did not have its source in any human organization, not even in the church. It emanates from God alone. Those who would obey the text must first get in touch with God. The preacher next pointed out the human and the divine side of true religion. The divine side is manifested in our benevolence unspotted from the world. The human side, as practiced by the independent order of Odd Fellows is demonstrated by three great eternal principles upon which the order is based, namely "friendship, love and truth." These three principles the preacher discussed at some length. The services were full of interest throughout to the members of the order who were present as well as to the rest of the congregation.

The Commoner
(Mr. Bryan's Paper)
The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.
The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and the WILLMAR TRIBUNE together for one year for $1.70. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.00.

Weather Observations.
The following data regarding conditions of the weather for each day during the past week are furnished for the benefit of Tribune readers by Axel F. Edstrom, voluntary government observer at Willmar.
