Gathered from all over the County especially for Tribune readers.

Hawick.

May 5.

Some of our boys attended the ball game at Lintonville last Sunday where Belgrade and Lintonville crossed bats.

There is some talk of organizing a nine here. A right fall in boys.

Dr. Cameron, the blind preacher from Duluth delivered a lecture to the people here last Saturday night. The subject was "Guessing." Sunday, April 26, he delivered a masterly lecture on "Power of Little Things in Human Life."

E. Lobeck spoke to a large assembly at the Lutheran church at Irving last Sunday.

J. O. Nyberg purchased a fine horse at New London yesterday.

B. Pond has surrounded his yard with a five foot fence of poultry netting.

William Pond went to St. Cloud to work on the section a short while ago.

Folks skilled in the petty art made Rollevsons hay stack and corn bin a friendly call at night last week. It is kind of bad when feed is scarce.

Saturday was a great day for freight here. They unloaded over 5000 pounds of hardware, groceries and dry goods.

The skimming station closed last Wednesday for the period of about two weeks and some of the farmers are hauling their milk to Lintonville and Paynesville instead. JUNIUS.

Lake Elizabeth.

May 5.

A representative for a butter commission house in New York and Chicago called at the creamery Friday afternoon.

R. E. Peterson of Genessee, the old cattle buyer, bought cattle here Saturday.

Aug. Broman was in Atwater the latter part of last week to make some improvements on his house and lot. He will move there as soon as conditions on his fine farm allow him.

Louis Nordin brought his hand separator cream to the creamery Saturday. Before that he has shipped to a cold storage house in Minneapolis.

Miss Bertha LaSalle, who has been working for Mrs. C. B. Glader, has moved to Atwater.

La Salle Bros. are at present painting and paperhanging for Nels Freeman of Kandiyohi.

C. G. Johnson had his buggy smashed while driving home from church last Sunday. The tugs were too long so the pole slipped out of the neck yoke. The horses became frightened and broke away. The family was thrown out, but none of them sustained any serious injury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lundgren and daughter, from near Willmar, attended services in the Baptist church Sunday forenoon and visited friends here in the afternoon.

H. S. Nilson shipped a carload of cattle Monday.

Our storekeeper shipped twenty-two cases of eggs Monday.

Miss Gusta Gabrielson and Ernest Stenberg of Harrison spent Sunday at their respective homes here, returning in the evening.

Edward Forsberg and Hilmer Stenberg were in Willmar last Saturday.

Ester Edmund is still confined to her bed with a bad case of rheumatic fever.

A feed mill and a blacksmith shop would do excellent business here. Why does not some one start in one of those lines?

Miss Mary Forsberg left for Willmar last Saturday, to remain there for some time.

Rev. Nilson will in the near future deliver some temperance lectures. He is a strong advocate of temperance.

Fellow scribes, let us try to gather at least twenty news items a week for the Tribune, and make everybody realize that it is the best newspaper in the county. If you have any doubt as to the fact, count the news in two issues of the Tribune and compare with one issue of papers coming only once a week. We want to keep it ahead and put it still farther to the front.

Some twenty years ago farmers said that manuring would spoil the fields. They have now found out that it is necessary to restore to the fields in some way the nutriment taken out by the crops. We know some farmers here who last winter hauled out about 300 loads of manure. It is the best paying work they can do during the winter months.

Miss Ellen Edmund left for Grove City last Monday to help her sister, Mrs. Paulson, move into another place.

Lilly Rosenquist is expected home from Chisago Lake this week.

Corn ground is now being prepared, and we should judge that next week will be a general corn planting time.

PEN.

Ringville.

May 4.

Old winter has not quite forgotten us yet judging from the snow storm we had last Wednesday.

Ringville and Lintonville ball nines crossed bats a week ago last Sunday resulting in a victory for the latter.

O. O. Anderson, Theo. Shipstead and C. M. Peterson from here and A. M. Johnson and F. S. Thorgard from Georgeville, returned from Canada last week. They do not brag up the country very much. Canada is a very good place to spend money now while the booming lasts.

Martin Iverson has rented a portion of S. Adams farm.

Sam and Alf. Shipstead came home from New London to play ball yesterday. They returned in the evening.

Geo. Olson is working in Irving at present.

The ball game yesterday was interrupted by a heavy rain storm.

Miss Lina Quello finished a three month's term of school in Dist. 42 on Saturday.

The Genessee Base Ball Team met last Sunday at Mrs. T. O. Anderson's, where they have hired grounds.

FOR PASTRY OR FOR BREAD

We strongly commend the "FANCY" Flour.

It's a home product, but made by exactly the same sort of machinery that is used in making the widely advertised flours made elsewhere.

Practical Farming and Gardening.

Appeals to every member of the household. It is a reminder, a guide, and an inspiration to the farmer grown gray in tilling the soil, and to the younger man who has his life-work yet before him. It is a text book for the farm boy—one which, if he masters it, will cause him to look at the daily round of duties with different eyes. Lastly, it contains a section that will commend it to every farmer's wife who sees it. The price is $2.50. The Twice-a-week Willmar Tribune, one year and this valuable book only $2.50.
