Local & Personal

Notes of Things In and Around the City.

J. F. Millard made a business trip to Kerkhoven last Saturday.

Miss Olive Crosby was the guest of Atwater friends over Sunday.

Attorney Geo. Muller attended to legal matters at Atwater last Saturday.

Mrs. Algot Peterson and child left Monday for a visit with relatives and friends at Colfax.

Rev. McCullough and family left last Saturday for their new home in Janesville, Minn.

Miss Sadie MacDonald is spending the week at Sioux Falls with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. MacDonald went to Raymond last Saturday for a brief visit with relatives in that vicinity.

Richard H. Battey, of Minneapolis, representing the Des Moines Life Ins. Co., is in the city in the interest of his company.

John Da e, formerly on the force of salesmen at "The Big Store," has taken charge of the Raymond store of the Jones Clothing Co.

Miss Maud Hull, stenographer at the Great Northern freight office, spent Monday in the cities.

Hugh E. H. Campbell, late of the Metropolitan Barber Shop of this city, will engage in the tonsorial business at Spicer.

There will be services at the M. E. church next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Reception of members at morning service.

G. P. Karwand drove to Norway Lake last Sunday to visit with Mr. Even Railson, who is confined to his residence by an attack of sickness.

Fred Morine, of Kandiyohi, passed through here Monday enroute to Kingsburg, Cal., to join his parents, who moved there some over a year ago.

The Woodmen of this city are planning for a grand Thanksgiving ball to be given on Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, at the Bonde Hall.

"The Convict's Daughter," one of the most powerful melodramas ever written, will be presented at the opera house in this city next Saturday evening.

James Hackerson has now changed his vocation to that of a first-class chimney sweep. "Jim" is a hustler for business and has already covered considerable ground.

Rev. G. Peterson officiated last Friday evening at the christening of the infant son of Sheriff and Mrs. Ole Lindquist. The little heir was given the name of Wallace Oliver.

Mahara's Operatic Minstrels, who are always popular with Willmar audiences, gave one of their excellent entertainments last Thursday evening to a fair-sized audience.

Welcome Geer, of Rochester, has been visiting with his brother, C. S. Geer, at Burbank, and both spent several days the past week in this city with the family of Will Geer.

Mrs. Carola Collin wishes to announce that she will give lessons in Art Needle work, at her home in the Dehnbom residence, East Benson avenue, every Saturday afternoon. 71-1f

P. O. Anderson returned last Saturday night from Minneapolis, where he graduated from the Mohler Barber College. Mr. Anderson may take a position in one of our local tonsorial establishments.

F. W. Ferguson was down from Glenwood this week on one of his trips in the interest of his cigar business. Fred is now nicely located in that enterprising little city and is building up a good trade.

Miss Edith Tait, who is teaching school near Spicer, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Haley, the latter part of last week. She left Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday at her home in Diamond Lake.

O. G. Anders, late of Fargo, N. D., has charge of the Willmar Photo and Novelty Studio, which has opened for business in rooms on the second floor of the Bergquist Block, corner of Third street and Benson avenue.

Rev. Andrew Farrell, presiding elder of the Minneapolis District of the Sw. M. E. church, will preach in the Swedish M. E. church at Kandiyohi at 10:30 a. m. next Sunday, and in the Willmar Sw. M. E. church at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Belle Gibson, of Atwater, district president of the W. C. T. U., was in the city this week in the interest of temperance work and was among the officers of the organization in attendance at the W. C. T. U. meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bengtson and daughter, Miss Della, of Lake Andrew, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lane, of La Port, Iowa, were the out-of-town relatives in attendance at the funeral of Arthur Cramer held here last Wednesday.

The Ladies' Social Union of the Presbyterian church will serve refreshments at the home of Mrs. Geo. E. Thomas on Friday afternoon, October 23, from four o'clock throughout the evening. Everyone is most cordially invited.

The following Wisconsin relatives were in the city last week in attendance at the funeral of Palmer Telstad: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Michaels, of Menomonie; John Johnson and Ralph Langley, of Hayward; and Nels Johnson, of Shaw.

We heard a man using very harsh language about the recent miscarriage of justice in South Carolina the other day, who himself would hang a jury in order to help out a blind-pigger who persists in violating the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Miss Mattie Lien went to Lake Lillian on Monday, where she has been engaged to teach a term of school in Dist. No. 5. Miss Lien is a member of last year's graduating class of the High school and this will be her first year at teaching.

Dr. J. Telesen was in the city today on his way from Morris, Minn., to his headquarters at Minneapolis. Dr. Telesen hopes to be able to establish and build an English Lutheran church at "Seven Corners" at the head of Cedar avenue in Minneapolis.

The immigration into Canada during the present year is figured to have been 125,000. Of these 47,000 came from the United States. The number of homestead claims taken is 34,000. The railway mileage of Northwestern Canada has been increased by 679 miles.

It is needless to say that those who attended the Maccabees' ball last night had a good time. Excellent music was furnished by the Cafarelli Orchestra. The hall was nicely decorated for the occasion and looked gay in colored bunting. A nice lunch was served.

Mr. Ole O. Wig and daughter Jennie, of Norway Lake, were in the city last Monday and made an interesting visit at the TRIBUNE office. Mr. Wig is a school officer in Dist. No. 73, and reports that the board has had difficulty in finding a teacher for the coming term.

Why attend the Rochester Business and Normal College? Because we pay students car fare. We find places for young men and women to work for their board. Board and room may be had for $5.50 per week, the cheapest rate in Minnesota. We can secure lucrative positions for our graduates. We teach the Gregg system of shorthand and actual business bookkeeping. We conduct a fully equipped normal school. Two months free trial to first six from your town. Write for catalog. BEATTY & MOFFAT, 69-2] Rochester, Minn.

Roseland. Oct. 19.

August Carlson is slowly improving from his recent illness.

School commenced in Dist. 90 with a new instructor in the chair.

A hop was given at V. Vetruba's where the light footed tested the floor in a circling manner.

Ducks and chickens are plentiful and so are the hunters. The war of extermination is going on without exception for Sundays.

We were glad to see Mr. Shimpah pull his threshing rig into our neighborhood. Shimpah is a hustling man and does a rushing business.

The almost constant raining has so delayed threshing that only dry weather can now save the greater part of the grain from wintering on the field.

Rumors are afloat that Nels Bengtson and August Anderson will also leave our town. We hope the rumors will not prove true, as our town can ill afford the loss of its most capable men.

The farmers who have threshed are now worrying about how they shall be able to market their grain as the roads are scarcely passable. We hope dry weather will continue and relieve the farmers of their present trouble.

Roseland has not been reported for a very long time because we believe the TRIBUNE is filled with such good news that reports from our town would only occupy space for better matter but if the editor will permit us space for a few lines now and then we will be glad to furnish him with the same.

The auction at Olof Wallin's was not as well attended as could have been, because the farmers were busy threshing; but Wallin states he was well satisfied with the result as everything brought down the hammer at a fair price. Wallin expects to bid Uncle Sam adieu in the near future and try farming under the yoke of king Edward, according to Canadian rules.

Willmar Seminary

Weekly Budget of Doings at this Popular Institution.

We came, we saw, we were conquered. This is in short the report of the basket ball game played on Monday afternoon between the Seminary and High School teams. The High School team is well lined up and played a pretty fast game, in fact sometimes a little too fast for the umpire to say "foul." The Seminary team failed to hang on to the ball and were not enough acquainted with each other's mode of playing to make connections. A second game will speedily be arranged for and although the High School team have the benefit of years of experience they will no doubt have to put up a fast game to win the honors next time they tackle the Seminary team.

Shabaz, from Persia, who has been attending the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Hamline, will speak about his country, which he calls the land of the lion and the sun, at the Seminary chapel on Friday evening. The admission is free but a collection will be taken for the Persian mission. Mr. Shabaz expects to return to his native country in the near future as a missionary.

A number of additional items for this column are unavoidably left out, as they arrived too late for publication.—[Ed.]

PENNOCK PENCILINGS

BY O. F. JOHNSON.

Oct. 19.

Phil. Haley spent Sunday with Mason Spicer.

A. O. Sather & Co. received two carloads of lumber last week.

Mr. Kruse of town of Woods called in on his way to Willmar Monday.

Miss Carrie Greenfield visited with friends and relatives at Willmar Sunday.

Mr. Tuveson, the Mamre butter-maker, went to Willmar on business Saturday noon and returned on the evening train.

Rev. Brolund of Dassel held services in the schoolhouse Saturday and Sunday evenings.

Wedding invitations are out for the marriage of Oscar Bergstrom to Miss Agnes Stjernlof, both of Mamre.

C. J. Berglund has just received a new set of rollers for his roller mill. He will now be ready to do good work.

John Forsberg is erecting a store building for John Oman. The front will be pressed brick and plate glass.

Sather's store will be ready in a day or two. New goods are placed on the shelves. It will pay to come and look it over.

Reuben Oman was laid up from a sore eye Saturday. He consulted a doctor who found a grain of sand lodged on the eyeball.

Farmers are discussing the question of building a farmers' elevator at Pennock. This certainly is the thing when properly managed.

J. L. Jarrest emptied his cellar from water the other day. Next morning he found the cellar with water four inches higher than previous level. He then concluded there was no use to fight the elements.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and after the death of our son and brother, Lewis Moline, Jr., we hereby extend our heartfelt thanks.
