

CARL STAM IS DEAD

Old New London Settler Bids Farewell to Scenes of His Life Last Saturday.

Carl Stam, well known for his secluded life and eccentric manners, died on his homestead in Sec. 17, New London last Saturday evening about six o'clock. Since the death of his wife which occurred less than a year ago, he has been failing fast. He was afflicted with a dropsical complaint. For some time past he has lived alone, attended only by his daughter, Mrs. Mary Kuleseth. Saturday evening he was restless, moving about from chair to chair, when he suddenly fell to the floor. His daughter raised him to a chair by the table, where the summoned neighbors who shortly arrived found the body, still in a sitting posture.

Carl Stam was born in Levene parish Vastergotland, Sweden, Oct. 27, 1833, thus lacking but a few days in being 72 years of age at the time of death. He arrived from Sweden in 1859 and settled at Carver, Minn. He was one of a party of Swedish settlers who explored the Nest Lake country in 1864 and located on his claim there in 1865. He was one of the original petitioners for the establishment of school dist. No. 8. He served the Nest Lake church as trustee five years during the early days. He remained a member of this church until his death. He never seemed to care for the company of his neighbors, and his eccentricities seemed to grow on him as time passed. He was a stern parent, was scrupulously honest in all his dealings, and stuck to the primitive mode of living as far as possible. He was well-read and possessed a fund of information on almost any subject. The writer recalls many instances when as a boy, living on an adjoining farm, he had occasion to listen to talks on botany, history and astronomy from the old gentleman, who seemed to take kindly interest in him. He was a character whose words and deeds will long live in the folk-lore of the neighborhood, and those who knew him best for years back sincerely regret his passing away and respect and honor his memory.

His wife, whose maiden name was Johanna Carlson, died in November, 1904.

Four daughters survive him: Mrs. Hilma Kunze, who lives in the extreme northwest of the state; Mrs. Anna C. Berglund, of New London; Mrs. Mary Kuleseth, who attended her father during his last days, but formerly was resident of Litchfield; and Miss Charlotte Stam, of New London. The grandchildren number thirteen.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. A. F. Seastrand. The interment took place in the Lebanon cemetery.

Failed to Show Up

The Litchfield-Willmar football game which was scheduled for last Saturday afternoon did not materialize, due to the non-appearance of the Litchfield boys. Quite a number of tickets had been sold, and it was a great surprise and disappointment that they did not show up, as the game had been so widely advertised. No word was received here to the effect that they would not come, until after the arrival of the afternoon train. A game was, however, arranged by substituting a "scrub" team for the Litchfield boys, and the picked-up aggregation lost to the tune of 11 to 0.

Received Sad Message

Mrs. Wm. Gilger received the sad message last Monday morning announcing the death of her father, Franz Lambrecht, one of the early residents at St. Paul. Mr. Lambrecht passed away on Sunday at Passadena, Cal., where he had gone for his health. Death was due to pneumonia.

Deceased was 76 years of age and had been a resident of St. Paul since 1850. He leaves a widow and seven children.

Mrs. Gilger left yesterday for St. Paul to attend the funeral. It was expected that the remains would arrive there on Thursday.

Becomes Real Estate Man

G. H. Stephens, who recently retired from the police force in this city, is now numbered among our real estate men and will hereafter look after the interests of Crawford, Leslie & Co., of which firm he becomes a partner. Mr. Stephens succeeds Olof Bengtson, whose one-third interest in the firm he has purchased. The company will retain the same offices in the Bank of Willmar building and Miss Stephens will be employed to look after the stenographic work.

The Anderson Land Co. became the possessor last week of the Michael Stang farm of 160 acres near Raymond, which was traded off by Mr. Stang for 240 acres of unimproved land near Brainerd. The company soon disposed of their newly acquired property for a stock of merchandise at Alpha, Ill., where a representative of the enterprising real estate firm is now looking after their interests.

L. Hildahl, a solicitor for the Duluth News-Tribune, spent Sunday in Willmar with his sister, Mrs. E. C. Sorenson.

CENSUS FIGURE NOW 4,064

With Two Out of Four Wards Re-counted, Willmar Gains 239. Gain on That Basis, 25 Percent.

Owing to the impossibility of further delay, a certified list of the names of the persons who were not counted by the census enumerator in the second ward was sent in last night, although John A. Johnson, who has had charge of the recount in the ward, would have liked to have more time to complete the list. He had found no less than one hundred eighteen omissions in the ward. The proves that both the enumerators that took the Willmar census did a poor job.

With half the city recounted, two hundred thirty-nine omissions were found. As this number will be added to the official printed report of the census, Willmar will be credited with a population of 4,064. No doubt a recount of first and fourth wards would have added two hundred names at least, which would bring the increase in five years to 855 or twenty-five per cent. In comparison with the growth made by other towns of her class, this is "going some." Willmar is doing well, thank you.

The names of persons who were legal residents of second ward June 1st and were omitted from the enumerator's lists, as found by John A. Johnson, are the following:
