

KANDIYOHI BANK ROBBED

Burglars Blow Open Safe of State Bank and Secure Large Amount of Cash.

The little village of Kandiyohi was visited early Monday morning by bank robbers, who blew open the safe of the State Bank of Kandiyohi and obtained $1,707.79 in cash.

The discovery of the robbery was first made by Cashier Oredson, who arrived at the bank about eight o'clock and discovered the wreckage of the safe.

A couple of suspicious characters who had been seen at Kandiyohi before the robbery are described as follows:

One man aged about 25, appeared rather short and slim, seemed about 5 feet tall, weight perhaps 165 pounds, shaven smooth, perhaps very short mustache, well worn tan colored brown cap (viser cap), brown checked suit, black hair.

One man between 20 and 23 years of age, seemed good-sized, perhaps 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weight about 180 pounds, smooth shaven, wore long black rough overcoat, heavy black winter cap, dark complexion, black hair.

Both men appeared clean, looked alike and claimed to be brothers.

The above is the description as given out by the authorities. Police Superintendent Doyle of Minneapolis was asked to station detectives at the passenger stations to look for the safe blowers, who it was thought might attempt to hide in the city, and the same precaution was taken in St. Paul.

The following account is taken from a statement regarding the robbery as given out by President Stone:

The suspected men were first seen Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock walking into Kandiyohi station, each carrying an ordinary sized grip. A farmer named Anderson came along on horseback and was talking with them as they came walking into Kandiyohi from the north.

They were Bohemians and had come from Hutchinson. They talked somewhat broken English and said that if they did not get work they would go to Olivia. Coming to Kandiyohi, Peter Burns, thinking they were looking for work, remarked to them that it was bad walking and that they looked tired.

Then they asked for the meat market and went there. Burns tried to find them and see them again about work. He was told that they had been in the meat market and had gone. Shortly afterward they were seen walking across the track going south.

They made their stay in Kandiyohi as short as possible, perhaps not over 15 or 20 minutes. They were seen the same Saturday afternoon walking south from C. A. Berg's place, about four miles south of Kandiyohi. The traces were lost until the burglary was committed early Monday morning, the robbers perhaps hiding a day to remove suspicion.

John Peterson and wife, who live not far from the bank, heard two reports between 1 and 2 o'clock Monday morning and P. E. Lundquist perhaps about 12, but thinks he might be mistaken about the time. Cashier Oredson arrived about 8 o'clock and discovered the wreckage of the safe. The tools had been taken from the Great Northern hand car house. The south window of the bank was pried open with a hatchet and crowbar. The outside vault door lock was knocked off with a heavy sledge, as were also the fire-proof and burglar-proof doors.

Nitro-glycerine was used to blow open the outside steel chest safe and another charge to blow the inside chest in which was all the money and notes of the bank. The work indicated that of professionals. The safe contained $1,270 in currency, $60 in gold, $260 in silver, $32.50 in half dollars, $35 in quarters, $15 in dimes, $8.25 in nickles, $27.04 in pennies, Canada money and mutilated coin, etc., making a total of $1,707.79 that was stolen.

The men left town on a hand car taken from the hand car house. This hand car was left beside the track very near the Willmar yards. It was probably planned to catch the east-bound four o'clock morning train for Willmar.

Sheriff Lundquist and Co. Attorney Otersness were on the ground about 10 o'clock and got all the facts obtainable and every effort was made for the apprehension and conviction of the robbers.

The bank carried a burglar insurance policy for $3,000 in the American Bonding Co. of Baltimore, Md., which covered also on safe, vault and banking room. This company telegraphed a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the yeggmen. It is thought that there was only these two connected with the burglary.

The officers of the State Bank of Kandiyohi are Henry Stene, president; James Sanderson, vice president; N. J. Oredson, cashier. As the amount stolen was fully covered by insurance, no one will suffer any loss.

It was reported yesterday that the night switching crew at Willmar had seen the hand car at the east end of the yards with four men on it and that they had a narrow escape from being run over by one of the trains that was being switched.

It is most probable that the men boarded the early morning train for the cities. A Pinkerton detective is now at work on the case and visited our city yesterday.

Buy Land for Greenhouses.

George Irving & Co., proprietors of the Willmar greenhouses, have made a deal whereby they become the owners of a large slice of land—18.20 acres in all—in the west part of the city, on the old Marlow farm, and will use it for their greenhouses and nursery. This will give the firm plenty of room for their rapidly increasing business. They will have a retail store down town. The residence building is now being moved out to the new location, but the greenhouses will not be moved until the first of June, after the close of the busy season. The consideration for this slice of land was $1,820, just $100 per acre.

Gustafson-Hoglund.

Last Saturday evening at six o'clock occurred the wedding of Oscar Gustafson to Miss Hulda Hoglund. The marriage was solemnized at the home of Axel Gustafson, a brother of the groom, residing in the First ward.

Rev. G. Peterson of the Swedish Lutheran church read the service in the presence of a few relatives and friends. A wedding supper followed and the evening was spent socially until a late hour, when the guests departed for their homes, after wishing the bride and groom many years of wedded happiness. The bridal pair will make their home in the First ward.

Literary Entertainment.

The High School literary societies will give a joint entertainment Friday evening in the assembly room at 8 o'clock sharp. Two comedy plays will be put on the program, which undoubtedly will prove very interesting. There will also be several vocal and instrumental music numbers. An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, the proceeds of which will be divided between the orchestra and the athletic association. All friends of the school are requested to attend. A good and enjoyable program is assured.

Their many friends unite in extending hearty congratulations and wish them a long life of happiness.

Happy Surprised.

Mrs. Swan Nyberg was the victim of a most happy surprise last Friday evening at her home on east Benson avenue, when about thirty of her young friends from the Swedish Mission church gathered to pay their respects to her. The company was composed of members of the young people's society and they all brought a liberal supply in the way of refreshments. A nice lunch was served and a most enjoyable social evening indulged in. The main feature of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Nyberg of a purse of money amounting to $23, which was presented to her in behalf of the company present in a neat speech made by Peter Anderson.

Sold to Iowa Party.

A deal was completed last week whereby George White of Primghar, Iowa, becomes the owner of a 200-acre farm in the town of St. Johns formerly owned by August Johnson. Mr. Johnson becomes the owner of a $4,000 residence in Primghar. The price paid for the farm was $9,100, the difference being paid in cash by Mr. White. The deal was made thru A. H. Brown, of the Willmar Land and Loan Co.

Mr. Johnson and family left yesterday for their new home in Iowa, after farming in this county some over four years. They were former residents of that state, removing here from Marcus, Iowa.

Mrs. Anna Dickey and Miss Marie Ralison pleasantly entertained about twenty-five of their lady friends last Thursday afternoon at their rooms in the Ruble Block.

RETURNS OF CITY ELECTION

By a majority of eighteen the people who voted at yesterday's city election decided that the city council of Willmar may, if it sees fit, grant license to sell intoxicating drinks. There was no contest against the candidates for mayor and aldermen nominated at the mass meeting of no-license voters, except in the Fourth ward, where the no-license candidate, J. C. Strand, won out easily. Owing to the fact that the city council is made up of men who are committed against the saloon business, it is very unlikely that favorable action can be secured upon such applications as may be made, and it is therefore reasonably certain that Willmar will remain dry for the fifth consecutive year. The question then next year will likely be made one of men only, and the advocates of license will be forced to put a saloon ticket in the field.

The vote at yesterday's election resulted as follows:

Table with columns: In favor of license, Against license, Qvale, mayor, Odell, treasurer, etc. and rows for 1st Ward, 2nd Ward, 3rd Ward, 4th Ward, Total, Maj.

For purposes of comparison we give the vote on the license question in 1905, 1904 and 1903:

Table with columns: In favor of license, Against license, and rows for LAST YEAR, 1905, VOTE OF 1904, VOTE OF 1903.

The total number of votes cast yesterday was 874. Eighteen did not vote on the question, so by a strange coincidence the vote to permit saloons was just one-half of the total vote cast.

PENNOCK PENCILINGS

PENNOCK, April 3.—Last week John Oman sold out his general merchandise business to H. Floren and Avg. Lindgren. The boys will soon be ready to welcome everybody when they get their goods in.

H. P. Rasmussen has bought a lot from L. Uhrus, and is now putting up a barn on the premises. He will begin the erection of a dwelling house when he gets the barn finished.

The mother and sister of Lars Dalman came over from the old country Monday.

The streets were pretty well lined with teams here Monday, it being "hog day." Good thing for the town, Gunder.

John Oman is improving in health every day, but it will probably be several weeks before he will be able to be out.

The carrier on route No. 1 had the misfortune of losing one of his horses last week. He had started out on his tour and when a mile and a half out of town the horse slipped or stumbled and broke a leg, so Sam had to shoot the animal.

A. J. Moris has resigned his position as grain buyer and will go out on his farm this week. Albert Floren will be his successor.

Carrier No. 2 had a runaway the other week. The buggy smashed and the driver somewhat hurt. The horses escaped without injury.

Our miller, Johnson, had a breakdown Saturday, but now the mill is repaired and going like a whirlwind.

The farmers have already started dragging.

Wedding in Bonde Hall.

The wedding of Miss Emma C. Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Anderson, of the town of Kandiyohi, to Mr. William MacKenzie was a happy event which occurred at the Bonde Hall last evening. About 150 guests, including several Willmar friends besides those from the surrounding country participated in the marriage festivities. The marriage ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by Rev. H. C. Buell of the Presbyterian church of this city. Miss Anna Forell, of Gladstone, Mich., a cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and the groomsmen was the bride's brother, William Anderson. The nuptial music was furnished by Miss Inga Grangraard, who played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was gowned in cream wool crepe de chene and carried roses and carnations. Her bridesmaid's gown was in tan of the same material and she wore pink roses. The hall was beautifully decorated, a co'or scheme of red and white being carried out.

Following the ceremony congratulations were offered and a wedding dinner served to the many guests present.

The groom has until recently been employed as statistician in the department of agriculture, stationed at Halstad, Minn. With his bride he now leaves to make his future home on a farm near Lloydminster, Canada, for which place they will probably take their departure tomorrow. The best wishes of many friends for a long life of happiness accompany the bridal pair to their new home.

Among the out-of-town guests in attendance at the wedding were the bride's cousin, Charles Forell and wife, of Metropolitan, Mich.

At a meeting of the school board held last Wednesday evening all of the teachers in the city schools were re-elected for another year with the exception of Miss Shultz and Miss Lester, who were not candidates for re-election. A number of changes will probably be made in the teaching force here next year, as several of the instructors are planning on teaching elsewhere and the board will have a number of resignations to consider. Quite a number of applications are already on file for the Willmar positions that will be left vacant.

The Ladies Social Union of the Presbyterian church will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Cramer on Friday, April 6, at 2:30 p. m. It is hoped that all members interested in the welfare of the society will be present, as officers for the ensuing will be elected and other business transacted.

The Northern Minnesota Educational Association will hold its annual session at St. Cloud on April 20. Among the instructors of the state who expect to be in attendance are Co. Supt. Dobbyn and City Supt. Tanning of the Willmar schools.

FAHLUN FINDS.

FAHLUN, April 1.—Some of our farmers are already busy seeding, and soon seeding will be in full blast. The fields are very dry and nice, and we hope they will remain so for a couple of weeks. By that time the spring work will be practically finished as far as small grain is concerned.

A large number of our farmers attended the auction sale at Mrs. Lena Olson's place last Saturday. Everything sold at a moderate price.

School in Dist. 68 closed last Thursday. Miss Alpha Jacobson has been in charge of the school this year, and she has been very much liked by both parents and pupils and has proven herself a most successful educator.

Henry and Arthur Holm, who attended the Seminary during the winter term, are back again, and will now exercise their muscles instead of their brains.

What can't all these bright and active Fahlnun boys organize and maintain a baseball team during the coming summer? They certainly have the material, and if we get them started we will see Fahlnun well represented on the diamond.

Aldrick Blomquist, who has been staying in Willmar for a couple of years, will, it is reported, work on the farm this summer.

The school in Dist. 39 will close next Friday. Miss Boyd is the instructor.

We all hope the citizens of Willmar will retain the present administration and do justice to themselves and also satisfy the people of the county at large by voting to keep out the saloons. Willmar is today one of the cleanest and best cities of the north-west, and we desire to see it maintain this high position.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson spent Sunday evening at Axel Nordstrom's place.

Arthur Klint made his weekly visit out west last Sunday.

Life insurance is discussed quite a bit nowadays in this locality. Some seem to think it a nuisance, while others think it is all right. As to the opinion of the writer, can say briefly that it is O. K.

Iver Gram is the name of a prisoner in our county jail, being brought down from New London last Wednesday evening by Marshal Winblad.

Gram was arrested on the charge of petit larceny, having stolen a watch, chain and ring at that place from Christ Berg of this city. At
