FEDERATION BANQUET

Banquet in Honor of the City Council Given Last Night After Meeting of the Civic Federation.

The first annual banquet of the Civic Federation following the annual meeting last night was a decided success. Members of the city council were the guests of honor. The tables were more than filled, covers being laid for one hundred. Mrs. Cairns and Mr. Harold Handy sang, and were enthusiastically encored. Miss Dahlheim and Mrs. F. G. Handy presided at the piano. The speaking program was opened by President Osterholm, who acted as toastmaster, on the subject of "Our Aldermen." Prof. Hilleboe responded on the subject of "Principles of Good Government Vitalized by the Character of Public Men." Atty. Gilbert spoke on "Prohibitive versus Regulating Laws." Rev. Michaelson told of "How Conditions at Willmar Appear to a Late Arrival." Atty. R. W. Stanford spoke on "Defects in the Enforcement Laws of Minnesota." The spread was furnished by E. T. Sandbo, of the Delmonico restaurant.

At the annual meeting of the Federation which preceded the banquet, reports were heard and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: A. N. Osterholm, president; A. C. Crawford, vice president; V. E. Lawson, secretary; E. M. Stanford, treasurer. A call for a caucus of the no-license voters of first and second wards for the purpose of nominating candidates for aldermen was authorized for Tuesday evening, May 22, at the city engine house.

PRINSBURG ITEMS.

PRINSBURG, May 15.—Mrs. H. Stob and daughter Gertrude and Mrs. H. Hoozeven left on Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Chicago, Ill.
Linda Peterson spent Sunday with friends in Renville.
The many sick people are all getting along nicely.
The Sikkink school closed last Wednesday, and all are ready to bid Miss Peterson farewell. She has taken a position in the Madison school for the coming year. The Prinsburg school closes Friday and the Van Buren school on Tuesday. These three schools have had a very successful year, and we hope to see at least two of the teachers return.

The Prinsburg school will have running races, jumping contests and a tug of war, also a game of baseball.

Trick Will Re-act.
In the election at Willmar there is a lesson to be learned which the majority of eighteen for license does not bring out.

The facts are, Willmar citizens did not reverse the decision which has brought security and prosperity to that city for seven of the last eight years.

The saloon people, true to the lawlessness of the business, voted a large number of non-residents, who chanced to be temporarily located there, and by this means secured the small majority by which that splendid little city "went wet"—in theory but not in fact—for they elected a Mayor and Council who have decided to grant no license, and the same strong man for Chief of Police who has been so faithful in his duties in that office for these several past years. After all Willmar "went dry," and the lawless trick of the enemy of that city will reach, and Willmar will go drier than ever next year.—Minnesota Issue.

Face Burned in Explosion.
Martin Enger was quite severely burned in the face last Thursday evening as the result of an explosion from a gasoline engine. Mr. Enger was at work for the N. H. Nelson Manufacturing Co., who have until recently been using the S. A. Rasmussen blacksmith and wagon shop as a work shop. He had occasion to examine the gasoline engine, which was not in good working order, and while looking into the cylinder the charge exploded. His face was so badly burned that it was necessary to call the assistance of a physician to his home on West Litchfield avenue, for which place he is immediately left after the accident. At this writing he is doing nicely and is able to be about, although it is necessary for him to keep his head well bandaged.

The Page Department Store has increased its capital stock and taken another shareholder into the firm in the person of J. A. Allen, of Sherburne. Mr. Allen will have charge of the dry goods department, succeeding Mr. Rullivison, who left some time ago to take a position in a department store at Ortonville.

TO IMPROVE THE STOCK

B. L. Byam Tells of His Plans to Ship In Young Blooded Stock From the State of Iowa.

Farmers of Kandiyohi County: I have contracted with a party in Iowa to furnish me three hundred head of Shorthorn heifers. The contract provides that the heifers shall average six hundred pounds in weight, be in fine breeding condition and of the best quality; that every one shall be of a deep red color, and run from 1 and 1/2 to full-blood Shorthorn, and principally of the milk strain. According to my best judgment any animal that does not fill the contract requirements will not be shipped.

I have taken this means of introducing a different class of cattle into my vicinity. After buying and selling cattle for fifteen years I dare say that Kandiyohi county shows up the poorest class of cattle of any county in the Minnesota. The majority of you have inbred your cattle and exchanged bulls until you are out of cattle.

These heifers will be brought in here 100 head at a time at the first of each month until sold. I am not going to coax any of you to buy them, but the sooner you buy and the larger bunches you buy the cheaper you can buy.

My cattle can be bought in three ways—cash, time to suit purchaser, or I will take scrubs in exchange at their market value. I have already sold fifty head at Kerkhoven, and have many buyers awaiting my next shipment, which will be about May 25. Cattle of all kinds are looking up in prices.

It is useless for me to state that the inbred scrub is making you a loss of two cents for every pound of beef it produces simply because of its quality. Our markets of late show more difference in the quality than ever before. There is no reason why Kandiyohi county cannot be made a banner stock country. Are you ready?

MAN'S WEAKER HALF.

One Side of His Body Always Stronger Than the Other.
The popular belief is that the left side is weaker than the right, and, as in all popular beliefs, there is much truth in this. In most cases, says the Grand Magazine, the right arm is decidedly stronger than the left, the bones are larger and the muscles more vigorous.

When we come to consider the lower limbs, however, we find a precisely opposite state of affairs; the left leg is stronger than the right in the great majority of cases. This want of symmetry is noticeable all through the body. Nine times out of ten we see better with one eye than with the other and hear better with the left than with the right ear, or vice versa.

Not only so, an injury to the body—a burn or a cut, for instance—causes more pain on one side than it would were it inflicted on the other. Even diseases attack one side on their first onset in preference to the other. Eczema, varicose veins, sciatica and even tuberculosis begin invariably to manifest themselves on our weaker side. A blistering plaster, too, will provoke an eruption only if applied to the right side in certain individuals; in others, only if applied to the left side.

The simplest way, apparently, of discovering which is our weaker side is to observe which side we lie upon by preference when in bed, as it is certain that we will instinctively adopt the attitude which is most agreeable, or, rather, which causes the least inconvenience. In other words, we will lie upon the side the muscles of which, being more vigorous, are less sensible to the pressure upon them of the weight of the body.

Statistics and observation go to prove that in about three cases out of four it is the left side which is the weaker, thus giving reason to the popular dictum. Curiously enough, however, pneumonia, it has been noticed, makes most diseases, usually attacks at first the right—that is to say, the stronger—side of the body.

Cannontie.
The cannontie plant is indigenous to most parts of Europe. It is extensively cultivated in France, Italy, Germany and some other countries for use in medicine, and a large revenue is derived from its constant employment.

We are now prepared to handle poultry and will buy large or small lots, paying the highest cash market price on day of delivery.
