OIL WITNESS IMMUNE

COMPELLED TO TESTIFY IN REGARD TO OIL PIPING.

COMPETITION AND PRICES

Manhattan Company, of Ohio, Owned by English Company, Does Not Compete with Standard, But Bids Against Independents.

Findlay, O.—Evidence was brought out by the state Thursday in the trial of the Standard Oil company of Ohio for conspiracy against trade showing the ownership of the Manhattan Oil company of Ohio to be in the General Industrial Development company, limited, of London, England. Also that the Manhattan, which buys and pipes crude oil, does not compete with the Standard, but does compete with independent companies.

These facts were brought out in the testimony of F. T. Cuthbert, president of the Manhattan. A similar criminal suit to that on trial is pending against his company, and he testified under the order of the court, which tenders him immune from future criminal prosecution. This course was taken at the suggestion of the prosecution, upon the appeal of Mr. Cuthbert to the court for protection.

Explaining the nature of business done by the Manhattan, in answer to questions, Mr. Cuthbert said that before he became its president, the company did a general oil business, that it owned producing properties, pipe lines and a refinery at Galata, O. It had disposed of all but its pipe line in the Ohio Oil company, but he did not know who was now operating the refinery at Galata. The Manhattan company now does exclusively a pipe line business. In doing it, it buys the oil of the producer, transports it to storage stations and sells it to S. F. Trainor, purchasing agent for the Standard, who also buys oil from Joseph Seep, treasurer of the Buckeye Pipe Line company. In what is known as the South Lima field, where the Manhattan and Buckeye pipe lines both buy oil, the price paid to the producer is five cents a barrel less than in the North Lima field, where what are regarded as the independent companies make their purchases.

Mr. Cuthbert then admitted that the profits of his company in the North Lima field were very small, if any.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

American Leaguers Gain Second Victory Over the Nationals.

Chicago.—The American leaguers defeated the Nationals Thursday afternoon, in the third game of the world's championship by a score of 3 to 0. A triple by Rube in the sixth inning, with the bases full, gave the Sox three runs.

The game was characterized by the simplest kind of play, the warm weather having a most beneficial effect on the players.

Walsh, "Big Ed," the pride of the South side fans, was in the box for the Sox and "Jack" Pfeister pitched for the Cubs.

Gambler's Engage in a Duel. Denver, Col.—James Thornton and E. Hofess, gamblers, engaged in a pistol duel in the offices of a brokerage company on Curtis street Thursday afternoon, and Thornton received a wound in the abdomen which may prove fatal.

Hofess was shot in the wrist. Thornton walked nearly a block to a drug store and fell exhausted in the doorway. Hofess was recently discharged from the employ of the brokerage company.

MINNESOTA STATE NEWS

State Fair Finances.

Hamline—The board of managers of the state fair held a meeting at the fair grounds. The meeting was to talk over the outlook for the next fair and needed improvements to be suggested to the coming legislature. It was decided that the course of the board could not be mapped out until it is known whether the legislature intends to arrange for the talked-of Minnesota centennial exposition in 1908.

The board authorized the making at once of some minor improvements, including machinery sheds A and B, resurfacing of the main avenue, the grounds, betterments in the St. Paul fair department building, and the erection of a new speed barn.

A partial report of the finances of the association was presented as follows: RECEIPTS.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes State appropriation, Hamline, Races, Tickets, etc.

Officially Spanked. St. Paul.—The first official locking in St. Paul's schools since the new hour in effect has been pulled off, and Supt. S. L. Heeter did the job himself. It is said that the job was well done, and if further evidence is needed a certain boy in the Jefferson school may be cited.

The boy had a number of black marks checked up against him and he continued so rebellious that C. D. Welch, principal of the school, called the mother and told her what had been done. The mother wanted the boy to be good, and a stormy scene was in progress in Mr. Welch's office when St. Paul's school was closed.

It is not necessary to go into all the harrowing details, but it may be said that the boy, who is named in the school is probably still taking his meals off the mantel shelf. He has decided to be a good boy in the future; but it is not known what good he is doing anything but while the new superintendent of schools is in town.

Narrow Escape. St. Peter.—Algot Lundberg, a farm hand employed by Sven Anderson of New Sweden township, had a miraculous escape from death. He was drawn into the cylinder of a threshing machine, but, by injuries he received, was comparatively slight.

When the accident occurred Lundberg was standing on a footboard directly over the cylinder, the board broke under his weight and dropped, leaving him hanging by his arms.

Both of Lundberg's shoes were stripped from his feet, and the teeth of the machine sent him to all parts of his body. Had the separator been running at the usual rate nothing could have prevented the man from being torn and mangled beyond recognition.

Lid at Owatonna. Owatonna.—The "lid" is on in Owatonna and the people are sitting up and rubbing their eyes. Not only is the "lid" kept up, but it is kept up in the saloons, but it has struck with corresponding force on numerous places of business in the city.

Both of Lundberg's shoes were stripped from his feet, and the teeth of the machine sent him to all parts of his body. Had the separator been running at the usual rate nothing could have prevented the man from being torn and mangled beyond recognition.

St. Joseph.—After being lost for two days, a party of four, which time the country, returned to town. The party consisted of a man, a woman and two children. The woman, Margaret Schweitzer, daughter of a well-to-do farmer of Brockway township, was found in a wolf's den in the forest near here.

The child was well and apparently contented, but scolded her rescuers for having driven away the "nice little doggies" with which she had been playing.

NEWS NOTES. St. Paul.—The golf season at the new Country club closes with a "swatfest."

Minneapolis.—A state's search for her missing brother ends at a pauper's grave.

SWEDEN. The surveys of Sweden made the sum of $2,000,000 during the years 1900-1904. A large part of this money was in Norway. Denmark is also on the exchange of London, Paris and Berlin. But a day of reckoning is bound to come when the man who holds the stocks will make the discovery that the game is irreparably lost, that nobody will buy, but all want to sell at more and more ruinous rates. And then come the crash, the deluge, the speculation will be the only one to suffer. Our industries and commerce, our whole social fabric will be seriously injured, and it will take long to repair the damage. The above expressions are the words of the man who is being made to stop the mad rush of the speculators before it is too late.

NORWAY. Kristiania opened 400,000 boxes of condensed milk in one week.

The syndicate is willing to sell several million francs on the plan.

Mr. O. Bjelland, a bookkeeper in Bergen, was knocked over board while he was on a boathouse. A friend of his jumped into the water to save him, and after a long struggle he succeeded in bringing him back into the boat. But to the surprise of the brave rescuer the man was already dead by the time his body was safe in the boat.

Arne Garborg has written a new book, "Jesus Messias." Only the preface is known at this writing, and it contains the following: "Only specialists are allowed to explain the Bible. I followed the explanation, but I have not made my mind up. Bible. But I thought: maybe I honor those specialists too highly, and I talk and read it on my own account. I found connections in what formerly seemed intricate and mysterious (the Gospels) of Messias, which I hereby present as I see it."

A committee appointed to effect the organization of the "Norsemen's union" is preparing a pamphlet on the history, development and reception by the people of Norway, and an edition of 10,000 copies will soon be distributed wherever Norwegians are found in the different parts of the world. Among the authors are: W. A. Holmboe, E. Bjornson, J. E. Sars, Vilhelm Krag and Einar Sundt.

Per Sagen was mistaken for a moose while hunting in Gravelund, near Roros, and he was shot, the bullet entering the chest, piercing a lung and passing into the right lung. At first he had no idea that he was hurt, and he walked to a doctor, a distance of three (English) miles.
