DRUGGISTS' CONVENTION

Members of the Kandiyohi and Meeker County Association Meet in Annual Session at Willmar.

The Retail Druggists' Association of Kandiyohi and Meeker Counties held its second annual meeting in this city last Thursday afternoon and evening. The business session was held in the afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms and in the evening a social session was enjoyed at the Elks' Club rooms, where a fine banquet was served. The local druggists acted as hosts to the visiting members.

There was not a large attendance at this meeting and the full program as at first planned was not carried out. Matters of interest to the association were discussed and the session proved a profitable one for the few who were present. Cokato, Dassel, Litchfield, Grove City, Atwater and Willmar are the towns at present represented in the association and the following out-of-town members were present at Thursday's meeting: Joseph Christopher, Dassel; V. E. Lofstrom, Grove City, and Ernest Lofstrom, Litchfield. The Willmar members are A. E. Mossberg, Axel F. Elstrom, C. B. and S. B. Carlson. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: C. A. Anderson, Litchfield, president; S. E. Peterson, Atwater, vice president; V. E. Lofstrom, Litchfield, secretary, and A. E. Mossberg, Willmar, treasurer. The next meeting will probably be held at Litchfield.

Schultz; vice president, Geo. Banner; secretary, P. T. Krantz; treasurer, M. J. Mikkelson; director for three years, J. P. Johnson. News has reached us that Mr. Lampy, who went back to Iowa last fall, has recently been married. We can understand now why Mr. Lampy was so anxious to get back to Iowa.

Our R. F. D. carrier did not come around last Saturday on account of the bad storm. We do not blame him for not wanting to get out in such weather. People managed to live at the time they got mail only once a week and had to go a long distance to get it. Why should they kick now if they accidentally miss it one day?

The birthday party that was to be given at Schroeder's place last Saturday did not come off, on account of the storm.

SVEA SIFTINGS.
SVEA, Jan. 28.—O. N. Bengtson and mother, of Willmar, visited with relatives here last week.

The remains of Mrs. Karin Johnson of Willmar were buried at Svea last Sunday.

Gone to His Reward.

The Turlock (Cal.) Journal of Jan. 18 contained the following article regarding the death and funeral of Louis Anderson, formerly of Mamre, and it will be read with great interest by his large circle of friends in this county, not only for the information regarding the death but also for the just and true words of praise for the character of the deceased.

Yesterday occurred the funeral of Mr. Louis Anderson. The Swedish church could not hold the many friends who had come to pay their last respects.

Four weeks ago Louis Anderson while out driving, met with an accident resulting in the fracture of the patella. He was immediately taken to Dr. Monnet's hospital where Dr. Evans and Dr. Monnet reduced the fracture. Later complications set in, and on last Monday morning the Reaper claimed his reward regardless of the heroic efforts of both patient and surgeons.

Those who were constantly by his bedside comforting him and in return receiving words of encouragement from him. They were also present when he died. Turning to them the dying man said: "I love all but I am going home to Jesus. O! what beautiful things I see. Farewell, farewell." Thus died a man who had lived a lifetime to himself and true to his God.

Those left to mourn him are his wife, his daughters, Mrs. Risell, of San Francisco, Mrs. Sandberg, of Minneapolis, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. W. Johnson, Agnes, Dana, Lillian and Florence, and his son, "Turlock," and a large number of relatives and friends.

The many friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

A Cholera Belt.
"The cholera belt," said a pale Anglo-Indian, "is not an imaginary girde, like your pie belt, but a real girde, which every foreign resident of India wears day and night. In winter the belt is made of heavy wool. In the summer it is made of light wool. It is never taken off. Even when you are sleeping in a temperature of 105 degrees, tossing and moaning and perspiring, despite the punkah that fans you from above, you still keep on your cholera belt, no matter what else you shed. Every Anglo-Indian has a couple of dozen cholera belts. They are said to prevent cholera, and I have no doubt they do so. At any rate, I never heard of any wearer of a cholera belt whom cholera ever seized upon."

A telephone message was received here from Minneapolis last Saturday stating that And. Roismund died on that day. Deceased went to Minneapolis last fall and was operated on for cancer of the cheek and since then has remained there. The disease was so far advanced that the operation proved to be a failure and on Monday last relief came through the grim angel of death. His son, John, remained with him until the end came, and today arrived home with the remains of his beloved father. At this writing no time is set for the funeral. Deceased leaves two sons, John and David, to mourn the loss of a kind and beloved father.—West Lake Cor. Kerkhoven Banner.

The supreme court of this state handed down a decision last week disbaring John T. Byrnes of this city, from practicing law in this state for all time in the future. The charges made against him were found in the main true. Mr. Byrnes has many friends, who will regret that such a course had to be taken, and the Ledger regrets as much as anybody that such a course was found necessary. Just what course Mr. Byrnes will now pursue we have not learned. Think of the years of study he put in to fit himself for a profession and now to have the law step in and bar him from using it in this state for the balance of his life.—Litchfield News-Ledger.

A sad story will be told next spring when the snow disappears in North Dakota and Canada. Hundreds of families who have pushed out upon the frontier in search of cheap lands have been caught unprepared by the unusual depth of snow and the extreme cold, and they are unable to get out to the railroad towns for fuel and provisions. The present winter is the most severe experienced in many years and these people are hemmed in as though in a death trap. Their homes are in many instances constructed of light boards lined with paper. The roads across the prairies are practically impassable and the blizzards which have followed closely one after the other have made it impossible to get out after either fuel or provisions. Never since the settlement of the northwest has such severe weather been experienced as that of the past two weeks, and information as to how these hundreds of pioneer families have fared is awaited with much apprehension. Even in many of the smaller frontier towns the conditions are not much better than upon the homestead claims. The railroads are completely blocked and the stocks of fuel and provisions are known to be very low.—Detroit Record.

Atwater Republican Press.
Stories have been afloat from time to time in this vicinity regarding the freezing to death in Dakota of parties who formerly lived here. It was persistently reported some time ago that two of the Simonson boys formerly of Irving were frozen to death on their claims in Dakota, and some people around here had even gone as far as to make arrangements to attend their funerals, when it was learned that they were enjoying the best of health in the lumber camps in the north. Since then the report has been circulated that Paul Kelly was frozen to death, but there has been no confirmation of the report, and we'll venture the assertion that if Paul has become lost in a snow drift he'll turn up as lively as ever by spring. Then there has been the report that Mrs. Henry Morten formerly of Danielson had become a victim of the cold in Dakota, and the story of her death was told in several different ways. It has since been reported that the family has been heard from and that all are alive and well.

Miss Mabel Porter arrived home from the cities Saturday evening, and is apparently pretty well recovered from the effects of the operation to which she was recently subjected for appendicitis.

Miss Ruby Olson who has been clerking at Eerman, Minn., for several months is at home for a short visit. She has accepted a position with a mercantile firm at Bismarck, N. Dak., and will depart thither soon.
