

ASK FOR "NEVER STALE" BREAD

Manufactured by Willmar Bakery & Ice Cream Co.

KANDIYOHI, Feb. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isaacson were in Atwater Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ringstrom of Atwater spent last week visiting at the home of Peter Tulin.

Mrs. N. J. Oredson was on the sick list a few days last week.

Willie Gustafson has hired out to K. F. Backlund for nine months.

Arvid Anderson, who has been in the employ of E. Lundquist for the last few months, resigned his position last week. He left last Saturday for St. Paul, where he will visit friends.

A railroad wreck occurred here last Wednesday afternoon, by which traffic was delayed for several hours. The cause of the accident was a broken wheel. Two box cars left the track.

The school will give a basket social and entertainment in the hall Friday evening, Feb. 22.

Miss Hilma Norman has resumed her work as teacher in Dist. 47, after a week's vacation on account of illness.

The Angel of Death has again visited our locality, this time claiming as his victim Ole Lewis, whose death occurred last Wednesday.

He had been sick almost three years and had been confined to his bed most of the time. Death came peacefully to end his suffering.

The funeral was held on Saturday forenoon at ten o'clock from the house. Rev. Lindstrom of the Swedish M. E. church of Atwater conducted the services, and the remains were taken to the Harrison cemetery for interment.

Ole Lewis was born in Stavanger, Norway, Dec. 24, 1841, and had thus attained the age of 65 years, 1 month and 12 days.

In the summer of 1880 he came to Kandiyohei with his family and settled on the farm where he has made his home ever since.

He was bereaved of his wife about 13 years ago, and three years later he lost one of his daughters by death. The children who survive him are Hans and Christopher and Mrs. John Anderson, now of South Dakota.

Mike.

PRINISBURG, Feb. 11.—The funeral of the little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brems took place on Tuesday, Rev. Saungraft officiating.

Eta Knott from Raymond is visiting relatives here.

Will Nyp of Roseland spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Huisinga.

Misses Lily Van Leven and Elda Rasmuson visited with Mrs. Milven Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heibrink from Greenleaf, Minn., are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Jennie Huisinga entertained some of her friends Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Several young folks had a good time at the home of Nettie Brink last Thursday.

Andrew Johnson brought his photograph to the meeting of the Literary society Friday evening and soon pronounced it the best they ever heard in that line, in which opinion we concur.

Mrs. Wieberlink is not improving as we had hoped.

The change in weather is welcome, as colds are the one thing we have in common nowadays.

News has reached us from Roseland of the death of Mrs. Klip, at the advanced age of 93 years and 9 months.

She came to Roseland with her daughters, Mrs. H. Brouwer and Mrs. S. Dykema, over 20 years ago. She has been growing steadily weaker year by year in mind and body, until she became quite helpless, but she was always satisfied, and Mrs. Dykema, with whom she has made her home the last few years, will miss her gentle ways.

The CENTRAL LIFE is not the largest but is one of the best companies doing business in the West. It is a western company insuring the lives of western people, and loaning its money on first farm mortgages in the territory in which it operates.

We have recently closed contracts with some exceptionally desirable men and we would be pleased to explain our contract to others. We have a number of local agents in Kandiyohei county who are always willing to explain our policies. They are located as follows:

- E. L. Thorpe, Pennock, Minn.
- Peter Henderson, Spicer, Minn.
- Geo. Olson, Atwater, Minn.
- Anderson Land Co., Willmar, Minn.

We also have the following special agents working out of Willmar: James Sanderson, Rex R. Gould, and Peter J. Govig.
