Young People's Department

This week's rebuses are the third set in a series of six on the subject of Minnesota Towns. This installment does not appear to be so difficult as that of last week. For the best solution of this set received at the Tribune office by next Monday evening, a small prize will be awarded consisting of a volume of "Romulus, the Founder of Rome" by Jacob Abbott. All solutions should be addressed to the Puzzle Department, Tribune, William, Minn., and the 3-inch editorial announcement found at the top of the second column on the fourth page of the paper should be cut out and attached to the letters. A copy of the History of Kandiyohi County will be awarded to the contestant who makes the best average in the six weeks. The names of all who send solutions for this week's installment will be published next week.

Answers to Last Week's Puzzles.

- 13—Mankato.
- 14—Monticello.
- 15—Walker.
- 16—Hastings.
- 17—Anoka.
- 18—St. Hilarie.

These rebuses were more difficult than any of the preceding ones. Of the fifty-nine answers received thirty-four had solved them correctly. Some of the very neatest and best written solutions had stumbled into an incorrect answer to one and more of the puzzles, which answers in some cases appeared quite plausible. So it happened this week that the best written in some cases did not figure in the final decision. One very neatly written solution was spoiled by having given the wrong numbers to the puzzles. This week's prize was awarded to Ida Hall, 427 Fourth street, William, and consisted of a copy of "Mary, Queen of Scots."

Sixty-one of last week's solvers did not send in solutions this week, and twenty new ones joined the ranks.

One solution from William and one from Spicer were not signed by the solvers.

"If you don't succeed the first time, try it again." This I think is a good motto for puzzle solvers. writes Victor Swenson, R. 2, Spicer.

Marton Carlson writes:

"The solution to the department is very interesting. The harder they are, the more interesting they are."

Emma Carlson, ten years old, writes:

"I thought the puzzles were awful hard this time, but it was fun to guess them all the same."

Edith Almen's letter gives proof of the research which this department stimulates among its young readers. She says:

"The spelling of the last name is given differently on different maps. The Legislative Manual gives it as I have spelled it."

Bernhard Hanson, of New London, says:

"I think the Young People's Department is fine. It is not only fun for the little boys and girls but it also teaches them a great deal of geography."

THE ROLL OF SOLVERS.

The following is a complete list of those sending in solutions for last week's rebuses and received by Monday evening:

Edith Almen, St. Peter, Minn.

Minne Bernkes, R. 3, Willmar

J. J. EKANDER.

ARCTANDEER

ARCTANDEER, March 4.—The Arctander Central Telephone Co. held its annual meeting at the town hall last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Thora Narverud arrived here last Friday to enter upon her duties as teacher in Dist. 54.

Otto Hjelte, who has been visiting with relatives and friends here for a few weeks, left for his home in Marshall county, Minn., today. He was accompanied by his cousin, Mary Hauge, who will be absent a short time, visiting relatives and friends.

The narrow-tracked sleds without a tongue were seen for the first time on our roads last Saturday. It was seen that on a level plain they would travel splendidly but on the slightest incline the top, or the things on top, would be seized by the attraction of gravity.

The Ladies Aid society met with Skatdelid last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson of Manure visited at John Georson's home from Saturday to Sunday.

Regular morning services will be held at the East Norway Lake church next Sunday.

Miss Mathilda Ramstad will commence school in Dist. 56 today. She conducted eighth grade examinations there last week.

Mrs. J. Roisum arrived from Minneapolis last Saturday to her old home, where she will stay for some time.

Christopher Epreen died last Saturday after a few weeks' illness with Bright's disease.

SVEA, March 4.—This community was well represented in Willmar last Saturday by people attending the institute. They all agree that the people of Willmar deserve great credit for the manner in which they cared for the country people.

Mrs. Bengt Larson has been sick with the grip for the last two weeks. Dr. Harold Frost was called there last Wednesday. She is improving at the present writing.

Ed Stromberg of Milaca is a visitor at Carlsgrove.

Esfil Swenson is passing the cigars around. He says it was a boy that came last Tuesday.

S. E. Carlson of Willmar is a visitor at his old home here last Sunday.

Ed Lundberg and mother, of Willmar, visited at the home of P. O. Nelson last Sunday.

The auction sale at Oscar Swenson's place last Thursday was well attended and he sold everything at a fair price, except his favorite driving horse, which he will keep for future use.

Andrew Strandberg, who has been working for Eric Molin, this winter, has hired out to E. Knutson for the season.

George Forsberg, who moved from here to Foley, Minn., two weeks ago, was shaking hands with friends in Willmar last Saturday.

RINGVILLE RINGERS.

RINGVILLE, March 2.—The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. A. O. Sonstegard last Thursday.

Ingvald and Edw. Brownson returned last Friday from Browns Valley, where they had been to see their friend Olaf Aspelseter, who had been accidentally shot by Pete Brant at that place. The report that the doctors had good hopes of his recovery.

The Aurora will meet at Mikkel Olson's place March 17.

It may surprise some of our readers to learn that Pete Stenerson has recently been married to Mrs. A. Pederson of Sauk Rapids, Minn. Pete is well known and respected in our neighborhood, and his many friends will wish him a happy union.

A very young gentleman arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sonstegard last Monday evening.

Fined for Smoking.

One of the students of the Alexandria high school was arrested this week and fined $5 and costs for smoking tobacco. His fine and costs amounted to $8.25 which his parents paid to avoid a weeks' imprisonment. The law on the subject is very strict and might be read with profit in other places besides Alexandria. It is as follows:

"Every person under eighteen years of age and every minor pupil in any school, college or university, who shall use cigarettes, cigars or tobacco in any public place or place of business, shall be guilty of misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not to exceed $10 on five days in jail, and any person who furnishes cigarettes, cigars or tobacco in any form to minors, or allows them to frequent premises owned, held or managed by him for the sale of tobacco in any form, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not to exceed $50 or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days for each and every offence.—Fergus Journal.

Reminder for Fishermen.

The state game and fish commission has issued a bulletin calling attention to the closed season, March and April, for Minnesota fish. Bass are protected from March 1 to May 29; pike, maskinonge, crappies, perch, sunfish, sturgeon, catfish and other variety, except pike, suckers, rock bass, carp and bluegill, from March 1 to May 1, and all trout except lake trout, from Sept. 1 to April 15.

Speaking of pickerel and other rough fish is permitted at all times, and a fish boat license is good until April 1, providing fish thus taken are not placed on the market and no hook and line fishing is done after March 1. All fish, except trout and bass, may be sold during the open season, but no game fish may be sold during March and April.

Building Blocks.

WHITE PLAGUE HIGH IN MORTALITY LIST

Pulmonary Tuberculosis Chief Cause of Death in Government Figures.

Out of only two-fifths of the population of the U. S. more than half a million lives were offered up in 1905 as sacrifice to diseases. Startling as this death rate may seem, it was less than that for the preceding year, but was in excess of the number of deaths registered for any other year. The death rate from Nephritis, Bright's Disease, Apoplexy, Cancer, Diabetes, and Appendicitis is ever increasing, while that from old age, bronchitis, convulsions, peritonitis, and scarlet fever, is decreasing.

TUBERCULOSIS LEADS.

The greatest death rate recorded for any disease in this year was that from pulmonary tuberculosis, amounting to 57,770. Pneumonia followed closely, with a death rate of 39,068, exclusive of broncho pneumonia. The much dreaded cancer shows a steady growth. The death rate being 24,330. These figures are taken from statistics as compiled by the U. S. Census Bureau, and they are official. It is appalling to note the great number of deaths resulting from the diseases, deaths that in many instances can be prevented by timely and proper treatment; treatment that is found usually in the hands of a specialist, and treatment that has been perfected by long and continued experience in practice.

The local physician is of vast importance. He is always ever ready and prompt, but from his limited experience in the treatment of these particular diseases, he is probably not sufficiently familiar to treat them as scientifically as one who has grown up in this particular special practice. Dr. Rea as a specialist in these diseases ranks high in favor. He has been engaged in this particular line of practice for nearly twenty years. He is thoroughly familiar with the phases of each disease and its condition of severity in the climates in which it is more prevalent.

As for instance—Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, and some of the Coast States, where the altitude is low, where the moisture is exceedingly great, and where the atmosphere is dense, the pulmonary diseases prevail. In the Western States, in the high altitude of the Middle States, the percentage of pulmonary diseases is much less. In the Great Lake Region, such as Superior, Huron and Erie, and in the Red River Valley country, there is more tuberculosis than in the nearby highlands.

Some of the cures he has made:

L. S. Dressler, Ellison, N. D., cured of piles, nervous prostration, stomach and bowel troubles. Had suffered for years, lost flesh and strength and was not able to do any kind of work.

Lucy Brouders, Kent, Minn., cured of rheumatism that had afflicted her for years. Her feet were drawn up and at times she could scarcely walk.

W. W. Pease, Wahpeton, N. D., cured of chronic rheumatism. Had suffered for years and had tried all kinds of doctors.

Miss Farney, Marshalltown, Iowa, the daughter of a prominent and wealthy capitalist, cured of consumption.

Mrs. Mark
