SEVENTH DISTRICT CONVENTION

Andrew Peterson of Wheaton and A. O. Gimmedstad of Belview Named for Chicago Convention.

The congressional Republican Convention of the Seventh district of Minnesota took place at the Willmar Opera House this afternoon. Hon. T. T. Ofstun of Glenwood was made chairman and Atty. T. O. Gilbert of Willmar secretary of the convention. There were no contests before the credentials committee and every county was represented. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Roosevelt and Congressman Volstead, and instructing the delegates to the Chicago convention to vote for Wm. H. Taft as nominee for president. The resolutions were read by Lyndon A. Smith of Montevideo. The chairman of the convention was authorized to appoint a congressional committee to consist of one at large and one from each county in the district. Then Mr. Gordon of Traverse county presented the name of Hon. Andrew Peterson of Wheaton as delegate to the Chicago convention. There was no opposition, and Mr. Peterson was given the honor by a rising vote, to which he responded by expressing his heartfelt thanks. For the second delegate there was a contest—the only one in the convention. Judge Smith of Montevideo presented the name of Frank E. Bentley of that city. Mr. Bentley is manager of the Citizens' Telephone Co. of that city. Senator Clague of Redwood county presented the name of A. O. Gimmedstad, a real estate man from Belview. Some speech-making was indulged in by the seconders of the different candidates. Jas. Larson and C. A. Fosness were appointed tellers and after the roll had been called the tellers announced the result of 75 for Gimmedstad and 69 for Bentley. The Kandiyohi delegation cast ten votes for Bentley and two votes for Gimmedstad. The delegates will be entertained this evening by local republicans at the Elks Club rooms.

Supplementary Report.

Through an oversight, which was not noticed until the report of the Commercial Club Committee had been published, it appears in the report that business phones in Willmar are at present 2.00 per month. The committee finds that 17 business places in Willmar pay $2.50 for their phones at the present time, while $2 pay 2.00 per month. No raise is contemplated for phones now paying 2.50 per month, but the company will establish a uniform rate for all business phones. This in order to correct the error inadvertently made in the original report. Dated April 9, 1908. Committee.

HOME WEDDING

Crawford Home is the Scene of Happy Nuptial Event.

A fine home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah C. Crawford in this city last Thursday evening, when their daughter, Blanche Estella, was given in marriage to Mr. Francis LaRoy Govro. The ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock and was performed by Rev. H. C. Buell. The bridal party entered the parlor from the hall door and passed under a canopy of white and green. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Marguerite Young. While the vows were being spoken Cavillaria Rusticana was softly played. The bride was attired in a gown of net over tan colored silk and carried white roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The bride-maid was Miss Vaughn Inez Crawford and the groom's attendant was Mr. Edwin Albert Moline. Only immediate friends and relatives were in attendance. After the ceremony Mrs. Emma Cairns sang a selection, "Oh, Promise Me," after which congratulations were showered upon the happy young couple. An elaborate wedding dinner was served and covers were laid for twenty. The parlor was decorated in white and green and the dining room in pink and white. A large number of beautiful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Govro. Vocal selections were rendered during the evening by Miss Vaughn Crawford and Mrs. Cairns. The guests from a distance were the Misses Edith Wood and Flossie and Ohmer Woodward of Grand Forks, N. D., who are the guests of Miss Vaughn Crawford, and Mrs. R. Hileman of Laverne, grandmother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Govro leave for their home at Battle River, Minn., Thursday afternoon, where they will be at home to their friends. Mr. Govro is a prosperous land holder and real estate agent at Battle River. The Tribune, in common with the many friends of the contracting parties, extends the heartiest congratulations.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents, a large number of guests being invited. We express a general wish that Mr. and Mrs. Ellingboe may enjoy a peaceful and happy voyage over life's stormy sea, and trust that "Mollie" (whoever he or she is) will second the motion. Mr. O.
