of every kind, and for your fields of growing crops, is what you want, and what you have a right to expect, when you buy fence. A fence that a bull can break through or break down is not worth paying good money for. You want weight in the fence you buy, weight enough to turn the heaviest Percheron or stop a "devil wagon." Now, it is a fact—and you should know it—that, per running rod, you obtain the most weight in wire that is given in any fence, in the celebrated

AMERICAN FENCE

It is made on purpose to be the heaviest, most durable and lasting of any fence at any price. It is made and sold in larger quantities than any other fences in the world, solely on its merits. The makers of AMERICAN FENCE own and operate their own iron mines and furnaces, their own wire mills and six immense fence factories. Their product is the acknowledged employed as chief clerk in the yardmaster's office at Superior, Wis. The newly married couple will spend a part of their honeymoon at Spicer-on-Green-Lake.

A STRING OF JUNE WEDDINGS

The Tribune is in receipt of an announcement made by Mrs. Dora Rapp of Chicago of the marriage of her daughter Ida to Albert S. Nelson, which occurred yesterday, June 16. Albert is well known in the county, having taught school for a number of terms in the various country districts and was also engaged as official photographer for the Kandiyohi County History for a season. He is now located in Glenwood, where he has a photo studio and is doing a prosperous business. The young people have the congratulations of a large number of friends in this county. They expect to be at home at Glenwood, Minn., after Aug. 15.

Mrs. W. G. Elliot visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Olson from Thursday till Monday. Mrs. Elliot, nee Josie Foshager, is a sister of Mrs. Olson and was married on the 3d inst. to Mr. W. G. Elliot of Kalispell, Mont. The young couple are on their wedding trip and while Mr. Elliot was detained in St. Paul on some important business, Mrs. Elliot paid a visit to her relatives here, joining her husband at St. Paul, from which place they will go to Kalispell, where they will make their home. The Tribune joins with the friends of Mrs. Elliot in the city in wishing them much joy and prosperity in their new home.

Thru an oversight we omitted the mention of the Leuken-Thorsen wedding which occurred at the Synod Lutheran church in this city on Thursday, June 4. The groom was Anton Thorsen, son of Torjus Thorsen and a prosperous young farmer of Kandiyohi township; the bride, a daughter of Anton Leuken of Green Lake township. They were married by Rev. J. N. Andersen at two o'clock and immediately took the train for Duluth on their wedding trip. The Tribune joins their many friends in wishing them much joy and prosperity.

A double wedding occurs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole L. Lien of this city this evening at 8 o'clock, when two of their daughters will be given in marriage. Miss Ida Matilda will be married to Mr. Erwin A. Baldwin of Vienna, S. D. They will be attended by Miss Sophia Olson of Minneapolis and Mr. A. E. Rieter of Vienna, S. D. Miss Mattie will be married to Dr. Jno. C. Jacobs of Spicer. This couple will be attended by Mr. John Tait Jr. and Miss Frances Lowell. The Rev. Jacobs of Corning, Iowa, a brother of one of the grooms, will officiate.

The Misses Julia Conway and Margaret Walsh, of Minneapolis, Sadie McDonald, Lena Paulson, Lillian and Daisy Sanderson and Helen Sather, girl friends of the brides, will assist in receiving and serving and will render musical selections.

Guests from a distance who have arrived to be present at the marriage are Miss Agnes Peterson of Dassel; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lien of Graceville; Miss Bessie Walker of Wahpeton; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson and daughter, of Braham; L. B. McVenus of Vienna, S. D.; Mrs. I. Jacobs of Spicer, mother of Dr. Jacobs.

Mr. Carl Christenson and Miss Ingeborg Pauline Lee, a daughter of Aslak Lee and grand-daughter of Johannes Bredeson, were married last Monday, June 15, at the Synod church at one o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. N. Andersen. Adolph Mattson and Bertha Bredeson attended the party.

The wedding of Anna Johnson to Mr. Charles V. Johnson occurs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson of Whitefield tomorrow. The ceremony will take place at the Svea church at two o'clock.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Hattie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Nelson of this city, to Mr. Solon L. Benton, to take place at the home of the bride next Wednesday evening, June 24.
