J. F. JACOBSON IS NOMINATED

FOR GOVERNOR OF MINNESOTA BY THE REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION.

The Nomination Was By Acclamation, Young and Snider Withdrawing Leaving the Field Entirely to the Nominee.

Republican Nominees. Governor—J. F. Jacobson, Madison. Lieutenant Governor—A. O. Eberhart, Mankato. Renomination. Secretary of State—Julius A. Schmah, Redwood Falls. Renomination.

Treasurer—C. C. Dinehart, Slayton. Attorney General—George T. Simpson, Winona.

Railroad Commissioners—Ira B. Mills, Moorhead (renomination); Charles E. Elmquist, Rush City.

St. Paul, July 2.—Jacob F. Jacobson of Lac qui Parle county received the tribute of a unanimous nomination for governor at the hands of the republican state convention in the Auditorium in St. Paul yesterday.

Rival candidates withdrew early in the day, realizing that it was impossible to stem the Jacobson tide. After Frank M. Eddy had placed Mr. Jacobson's name before the convention, it was seconded by Attorney General E. T. Young and by Captain S. P. Snider. Joel P. Heatwole, the other candidate, was not in the hall and did not appear even after he had been appointed with the other two defeated candidates on a committee to escort Mr. Jacobson to the hall.

The convention was a record breaker in its early stages for speed and for enthusiasm. There were rounds of applause for Jacobson at every stage and also for his magnanimous rival. Every nomination was by acclamation until the end of the ticket was reached. A ballot was then necessary on railroad commission, as the friends of seconding the nomination of Roosevelt and the nomination of Charles E. Elmquist and Ira B. Mills were nominated, receiving 936 and 731 votes respectively, to 478 for Grass and 132 for A. C. Aaby.

At 11:20 Dr. A. B. Cole, chairman of the state central committee, called the convention to order. Rev. Mr. Hale of St. Paul opened the proceedings with prayer, calling for a continuance of the policies of President Roosevelt and the nomination of Roosevelt, sincere men. His prayer was so eloquent and patriotic that some of the delegates applauded heartily when the prayer was finished.

Mr. Cole called for nominations for temporary chairman. J. E. Diamond of Minneapolis presented the name of John H. Steele. Robert C. Dunn of Princeton seconded the nomination on behalf of the friends of J. F. Jacobson, and in the interests of harmony. Dar Reese and other delegates also seconded the nomination. The vote for Steele was unanimous.

W. E. Lee then moved the appointment of a committee of fifteen on resolutions, one from each congressional district and six at large. Chairman Steele had hard work to read the names of this committee, which furnished some amusement. He appointed Frank M. Wilson of Red Wing, Tams Bixby, St. Paul; L. O. Cooke, Kellogg; L. S. Swenson, Minneapolis; E. Colester, Waseca; J. W. Andrews, Mankato; W. E. Lee, Mankato; George W. Bradley, Norwood; George W. Somerville, New Ulm; E. N. Anderson, Albert Lea; P. E. Dowling, Eveleth; H. L. D'Armes, Hector; B. P. O'Neil, Red Lake; Albert Berg, Warroad; R. B. Forest, Murray county.

A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota was selected for secretary and the following as assistant secretaries: C. S. Edwards, Albert Lea; David H. Lawrence, Two Harbors; and John A. Dalry, Morton. Lawrence was a candidate for the speakership that was a little mixup that was settled by R. B. Brower.

Frank M. Eddy was greeted with an outburst of cheers as he stepped to the front of the stage to nominate Jacobson.

Tumultuous applause swelled from the big audience when Attorney General E. T. Young called for the floor and the scene resembled a national convention. For many of the delegates in their enthusiasm arose to their feet and waving their hats and handkerchiefs shouted to the top of their voices.

Captain S. P. Snider seconded the nomination of John F. Jacobson in a speech which he read.

From all parts of the convention hall there were calls for Mr. Heatwole, in appreciation that he would second the nomination of Mr. Jacobson. But there was no response.

Mr. Foss of the Grant county delegation and a member of the Isanti delegation also spoke briefly, seconding the nomination of Jacobson. J. G. Lennon of Hennepin then moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the convention for Jacob F. Jacobson of Lac qui Parle.

Ripley B. Brower of St. Cloud then moved that the nomination of J. F. Jacobson be made by acclamation and a rising of delegates to their feet. The entire convention arose and made the nomination unanimous.

M. J. Dowling of Olivia then moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait upon Mr. Jacobson and escort him to the hall. A. E. Rice of Wilmar protested that Mr. Jacobson was not nominated yet, since the convention had done was to pass a motion to nominate him by acclamation. He was overruled and Chairman Steele then appointed as the notification committee, Mr. Jacobson's three rivals, E. T. Young, S. P. Snider and Joel P. Heatwole. The last name was greeted with an especial round of cheers, since he had failed to make an appearance in the seconding speeches.

On motion of Dar F. Reese, the convention then went ahead to nominate the rest of the ticket. Lieutenant Governor O. A. Eberhart was placed in nomination by Dr. J. W. Andrews of Mankato, who said he had a short speech prepared, but was advised by the delegates to "cut it out," and did so. Eberhart was seconded by George H. Sullivan of Ellsworth and John E. Diamond of Minneapolis and on motion of Mr. Wilson of Mankato the nomination was made by acclamation.

C. T. Howard of Redwood Falls nominated Julius A. Schmah for another term as secretary of state, and J. F. Calhoun seconded the nomination for Hennepin. J. F. Calhoun moved that the nomination be made by acclamation.

C. C. Dinehart of Slayton was nominated for state treasurer on motion of Mr. Todd of Slayton.

J. J. McCaughey of Dodge county nominated George T. Simpson of Winona for attorney general.

W. E. Lee, chairman of the committee on resolutions, presented a report containing fourteen planks. These, in brief, were as follows:

First.—An expression of deep admiration for the administration of President Roosevelt and regret for the loss of his services as president.

Second.—An expression of pleasure over the nomination of William H. Taft, as a worthy successor to President Roosevelt.

Third.—Indorsement of James S. Sherman for the vice presidency.

Fourth.—Indorsement of the entire platform of the Democratic party in congress.

Fifth.—Commendation of the services of the Minnesota delegation in congress.

Sixth.—A demand for the revision of the tariff.

Seventh.—Indorsement of the work on the Panama canal.

Eighth.—Commendation of the policy of the administration for the conservation of natural resources.

Ninth.—Demand for additional railway regulation.

Tenth.—Approval of the tax amendment to the constitution proposed by the legislature.

Eleventh.—Equal rights plank, with a resolution presented by the American Federation of Labor favoring the enactment of the employers' liability act.

Twelfth.—A temperance plank, favoring the enactment of such legislation as would insure the strict enforcement of the local option and high license laws of the statute books.

Thirteenth.—Commendation of the state immigration bureau.

Fourteenth.—Favoring good roads.

The Temperance Plank. The temperance plank is as follows: "The republican party has always stood for a firm and efficient regulation and control of the liquor traffic in this state, as is evidenced by the local option and high license laws in favor of which it declared in 1886 and subsequently enacted, and by many other laws thereafter written in our statutes, and we now favor and recommend such legislation as will strengthen these laws and insure strict enforcement."

Indians Have $1,000,000. Ashland, Wis., July 2.—For the first time in the history of the Chippewa Indians of Northern Wisconsin they now have over a million dollars on deposit in the banks of Ashland, Hudson, Duluth and Bayfield. In 1905, only three years ago, the Bad River Indians had $238,000, the Courte Orielles in Sawyer county $14,000, the Red Cliff Indians $96,000 and Lac Flambeau in Vilas county $75,000, the total being $513,000, which now in less than three years has increased to an even million dollars.

Strikes at Prohibition. Chicago, July 1.—Denunciation of prohibition and an indorsement of the principle of "individual liberty" were leading features in a platform adopted by the North American turnerband here. The resolutions protest against the censorship by postmasters of socialist newspapers, declare that the organization in no sense political, favor the settlement of internal disputes by judicial procedures and favor "such institutions as will create an equal equalization in the industrial and economic life of the nation."

Parker Funeral Held. Deadwood, S. D., July 1.—Funeral services over the late Congressman William H. Parker were largely attended by many of the friends of the deceased. The body of Parker remains laid in state all day yesterday in the city hall. Rev. Marshall E. Montgomery, rector of St. John's Episcopal church here, read the burial service. The pallbearers were: Thomas E. Harvey, Judge A. J. Plover, Col. W. J. Thornby, John Hunter, State's Attorney R. P. Stewart and N. E. Franklin.

Finds Tot's Body in Tree. Waterloo, Iowa, July 2.—The body of little Annie Strunk of Osage has been recovered from the Cedar river, into which she fell last Tuesday while playing with companions. The remains were discovered by her father, who has been conducting a systematic and tireless search ever since the waters engulfed his child. While rowing forty rods below the dam the father glanced up into a small tree bordering the water and there saw the body of his child dangling head downward.

Growth of Girls and Boys. A girl is nearly as big as a boy at two, smaller at four, nearly as big at ten, and the same height at 11. During the period from the eleventh to the fourteenth year, when the girl is growing more rapidly than the boy, she is generally bigger than he is.

Cleaned Out. Walker—I wonder if there were any tramps in old Rome? James—No fear. There were too many baths in that town.—Illustrated Bits.

JUDGE GRAY SPURNS SECOND PLACE OFFER

DELAWARE DEMOCRAT REFUSES TO ALLOW PRESENTATION OF HIS NAME.

HIS FRIENDS PERSIST IN PUSHING BOOM

Denver Convention to Adjourn Out of Respect for Late Grover Cleveland—Cut-and-Dried Platform is Decried by Willis J. Abbott.

Wilmington, Del., July 2.—In reply to a question from a press representative Judge Gray Wednesday stated that he had just sent a telegram to Denver as follows: "I have your telegram saying that it is stated positively that I will accept the vice-presidential nomination and asking whether this is true. As I have repeatedly said I would not consent to being placed in nomination as a candidate for the presidency, I now say with equal emphasis that I will under no circumstances consent to a nomination for the vice-presidency."

"GEORGE GRAY." Friends' Affair, Not His.

Denver, Col., July 2.—When shown a copy of Judge Gray's telegram from Wilmington, Del., declaring that he would not consent "to being placed in nomination as a candidate for the presidential nomination," Mr. Marvel, the Gray campaign manager, said: "There is nothing new in that telegram. It repeats exactly what Judge Gray said in his letter to the Delaware convention. He never has given his consent to being placed in nomination for the convention, but his friends, who realize how well qualified he is to be president of the United States, have taken the matter into their own hands. It is our affair and not his."

When told that it was reported that Mr. Bryan favored John B. Stanchfield of New York for vice-president, if Gray was not available, Mr. Marvel laughed and said: "There is no need of my saying anything on that subject. The only manner in which we consider the vice-presidency is to wonder who will be on the ticket with Judge Gray."

To Honor Grover Cleveland. After meeting and perfecting a temporary organization Tuesday the Democratic convention will adjourn for the day out of respect to the memory of former President Cleveland if the present planks of the committee on arrangements are carried into effect. The committee has not reached the point of making a definite announcement, but the question has been recently discussed and the expression generally favors this course. It is believed that the adjournment can be taken in this way without interfering with the progress of the proceedings of the convention and at the same time enable the convention to pay the proper degree of respect for the ex-president. The committees will be announced so that they can proceed with their business. The program looks to the completion of the work of the convention within three days.

No Cut-and-Dried Process. "Do all you can to discourage the idea that there is a cut-and-dried platform ready for the action of the Democratic convention," said Willis J. Abbott, a confidential friend of Mr. Bryan, who arrived in this city Wednesday. "I left Mr. Bryan at Lincoln, and after three different interviews with him I assure you that there is nothing farther from the truth than that he has a platform prepared for the convention to ratify. He is working on five resolutions, and at the right time will probably present them to the committee on platform for its consideration. He will deal especially with the subjects of injunction, trust, railroads, the guarantee of bank deposits and the tariff. He has given special consideration to the injunction plank and has about completed his work on it, but I defy a Sherlock Holmes to get it out of him. The other four planks are still in course of preparation, but as for the platform as a whole it has not received more than passing attention."

Johnson Manager on Hand. The principal event in connection with the forthcoming Democratic national convention Wednesday was the arrival of Frederick B. Lynch of Minnesota as the representative in chief of the presidential boom of Gov. John A. Johnson of that state. A reservation of quarters at the Albany hotel was made several weeks ago by Mr. Lynch, and an executive suite of rooms has been prepared for him and his staff.

NEWS OF MINNESOTA.

More Are Found.

St. Cloud.—Are there still richer and greater iron deposits in Minnesota than the vast underground stretches of ore in the Mesaba and Vermillion ranges that have made hundreds of men wealthy and endowed the north star state with millions for generations yet to come? Is the so-called Mesaba range really an extension of the Mesaba and does the ore deposit become deeper as it runs from the great workings at the northwest end to the yet undeveloped south-west?

Such is the opinion of D. H. Freeman, who has located an iron find of undoubted richness between Randall and Fort Ripley, on property owned by himself and his associates, mostly St. Cloud men.

The new find begins at Randall, a small station on the Staples cut-off of the Northern Pacific, fourteen miles from Little Falls, and extends to Fort Ripley on the east side of the Mississippi.

It is a continuation of the so-called Cuyuna range, but as Mr. Freeman asserts, is really the extension of the Mesaba, the richest iron ore range in the world.

This newly discovered underground mineral belt ranges in width from forty to sixty acres and extends for a distance of fourteen miles, with a few short breaks. The ore is found at a distance of from 80 to 100 feet from the surface.

Governor Johnson Armed.

St. Paul.—It was an ugly looking six-shooter, probably made at about the time of the civil war, that Frank A. Day, private secretary to Gov. Johnson, received in an express package from Arizona. It is considerably the worse for wear and disuse, but that does not reduce its value, which is based on the fact or belief that it once belonged to the notorious Frank James, one of the gang of bandits who raided the Northfield bank back in the seventies.

The "cannon" was received from Cleve Van Dyke, formerly executive clerk in the governor's office, and is a gift to Gov. Johnson. In a letter from Warren, Ariz., Mr. Van Dyke stated that while in New Mexico he recently he was given the revolver by Dr. Howard Cretcher, who had received it from Peter Bedell of Mexico, Mo., a member of the Jesse James gang, which made the famous raid in Northfield. He states that the pistol was carried in that raid by Frank James.

Swept Thru Culvert.

St. Paul.—Swept thru a culvert by a rush of water, Henry Lynch, 12 years old, has had a remarkable escape from drowning. The boy lives at 167 Eaton street. His mishap was witnessed by several employees of the department of public works, who reported the incident. The boy was swept thru an 18-inch culvert running under State street, between Plato and Florida streets. The culvert is a pipe about 100 feet long, yet such was the rush of water that the boy was borne thru without being harmed.

The water bore him head first to the tunnel so quickly that, as he afterwards said, he did not know what struck him. A moment later the struggling form shot from the other end of the pipe and rolled over in the water and sand.

The boy was quickly picked up and sent to his home near by, unharmed.

Ralphs Nearly Drowned.

Crookston.—While returning with her husband, Mrs. George A. Ralph of Crookston, and daughter Dorothy, met with a peculiar accident between the Roseau river and Lancaster, Minn. Mrs. Ralph had been visiting at Badger, in Roseau county, with friends, and was lured by the fair weather to brave the difficulties of the Roseau river, and made the trip down with Mr. Ralph. Between Caribou and Lancaster they were thrown into a large pool of water by the breaking of the rear seat by the narrow escape from drowning. Mrs. Ralph came into Crookston with her daughter.
