Automobile, Motor Cycle and Bicycle Parade, Saturday afternoon, September 19, at 3 o'clock.

This will be the biggest spectacle of its kind ever seen outside of the larger cities. Every one of the fifty Willmar cars will be in line, some elaborately decorated. Many autos from other towns will be in the parade, too.

Lars Halvorson's "Queen" touring car will carry the Carnival Queen and her maids of honor, who will be dressed in elaborate gowns for this special occasion.

The parade will cover the main streets of the city.

Heaps of music. Bushels of fun.

A few new seats were put into the laboratory the latter part of last week.

Chester Ives returned home from a visit at Sioux City Tuesday, and began his school duties Monday morning.

The chemistry class began laboratory work Thursday.

Helen Sather, Margaret Martin, Agnes Haines, Hjalmer Swenson and Wallace Martin visited school Friday.

Miss Rude visited school with Hazel Lein Thursday afternoon.

William Stansberry began his High school work Monday morning as a Junior.

The attendance this year is the largest in the history of the High school.

Esabelle Alexander came down from Rockville to attend school here.

The Girls' Athletic Association met last Friday. The officers elected were: Esther Anderson, president; Hazel Elmquist, secretary and treasurer; Gertrude Soderling, captain of basket ball team.

During street fair High school will begin at 8 o'clock and dismiss at 1.

A Scrap at Yard Office.

Because he was refused his pay when he was discharged, R. Myland, a brakeman, tried to clean out the whole force at the G. N. yard office Monday afternoon.

But he tackled too big a job, and besides getting a few kindly taps from some of the office boys, he got a fine of $5.00 and costs, amounting in all to $8.50, when he was taken before Judge Muller yesterday.

"This ain't going to B. Myland much longer," was all he had to say, and he started to plan at once for going to the big cities.

Telephone returns from the various election districts received up to this morning show the result of yesterday's battle of ballots to have been as follows on the contested places:

N. O. Nelson defeats August Lundquist for county treasurer by a safe margin.

H. J. Ramsett retains his hold on the clerk of court's office, as far as the primary election is concerned, by a good majority.

Geo. H. Otterness is renominated for county attorney by a good majority over T. O. Gilbert.

Olof H. Dale ran like a prairie fire in a heavy gale and easily distanced all his competitors. The prohibition candidates and the lone democratic candidate are, of course, nominated, there being no contests on those tickets.

Full election returns will be given in a later edition of the Tribune, to be issued this afternoon.

Sons of Sweden Have Social.

Vega lodge of United Sons of Sweden in America enjoyed a pleasant social time last Monday evening, several invited friends being present.

A program was given, consisting of songs by N. S. Swenson with violin accompaniment by C. J. Collin, violin solo by Prof. N. B. Swalin and readings by Judge A. F. Nordin and Andrew Nordloef.

Prof. Swalin's numbers consisted of old Swedish folk music and they were greeted with enthusiastic applause.

After the program a genuine Swedish lunch—"kaffe och skorpar"—was served, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in matching stories which created a great deal of merriment.

The many friends of Mrs. Ernest Person will be glad to learn that she is now recovering nicely from an attack of typhoid fever. Her brothers, who have been ill with the same disease, are also improving.

Two Weddings.

While everybody around the city was working in feverish haste Monday evening to prepare everything for the "Best Ever" Street Fair, two couples plighted their vows in peace and quiet, away from the world's hurry and tumult.

At the office of "our own" Judge A. F. Nordin, Miss Hazel Canfield and Oscar Brandvold were united for better or for worse by the genial judge. The only people present besides the couple were Miss Pauline Brandvold, a sister of the groom, Miss Hulda Forsberg and Carl Struxness—and of course the judge, without whom the doings would not have been complete.

After the exchange of vows, the party repaired to the Saratoga restaurant, where a wedding supper was served. Mr. Brandvold is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Brandvold of this city. He is a cigar maker by trade, and is employed in the Person & Johnson cigar factory. He and the lady of his choice will go to housekeeping in the near future.

The other wedding of the day occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Birkeland in the First ward, when their daughter, Miss Julia, was made the wife of James P. Goode, a railway employe who came here from Ohio. The bride was attended by Misses Marie Botnen and Agnes Otterness, and the groom by V. Anderson and Ole Birkeland, while Miss Minnie Nelson played the wedding march. After the ceremonies a large number of friends of the contracting parties enjoyed a sumptuous wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Goode have already gone into housekeeping in the Abrahamson residence in the first ward.

Mr. and Mrs. John Costello Sr. went to St. Paul yesterday for a few days' visit. Mr. Costello was also invited to attend a reception to be given today by James J. Hill to some of his oldest employees. Mr. Costello has surely been a faithful servant of the Great Northern, for he has been in the harness ever since away back in the days of 1865.

Miss Katharine Spooner, Mrs. P. W. Barton, Mrs. H. D. Wheeler and R. O. Barrett went thru Willmar one day last week in a Mitchell roadster on their way to Minneapolis.

Mrs. D. D. Wilson and daughter Dora are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson.

BERG-ENBLOM

A Happy Social Event Took Place in the Town of Genessee Last Saturday.

Genessee, Sept. 14.—The Swedish M. E. church of Atwater was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, when Miss Almada Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Berg of Genessee, became the bride of Mr. George Enblom. The ceremony was read by Rev. Hultgren, and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and autumn flowers. Mrs. C. T. Starlund presided at the organ and played the Mendelssohn bridal music. Just before the vows were spoken Mrs. Andrew Nelson sang "Bid me to love."

Miss Emma Berg was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of pale green silk mull and carried an arm bouquet of white asters. Miss Tena Enblom and Miss Martha Berg were the bridesmaids. They wore dresses of white French lawn and carried white and pink asters.

The bride wore an empire gown trimmed with real princess lace. The tulle veil was caught up with tiny rosebuds, and she carried white sweet peas.

Joseph Jones, cousin of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Harry Berg and Albert Bengtson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The decoration scheme was carried out in white and green, and flowers were used in profusion thruout the rooms and in the large tent, where a bountiful wedding dinner was served to the two
