ABDUL'S REIGN ENDS; BROther ON THRONE

Old Sulten, Charged with Many Atrocious Crimes, Shorn of Power by Young Turks, Bows to Will of Allah.

Constitutions.—The reign of Abdul, the third and last of the last Turkish sultens, ended Tuesday with the deposition of the sultan, who had been in power for 26 years. The young Turks, who had been in the background, now assumed the power. The sultan, who had been in power for 26 years, now assumed the power. The sultan, who had been in power for 26 years, was forced to abdicate and hand over the reins of government to the young Turks, who had been in the background. The sultan, who had been in power for 26 years, was forced to abdicate and hand over the reins of government to the young Turks, who had been in the background. The sultan, who had been in power for 26 years, was forced to abdicate and hand over the reins of government to the young Turks, who had been in the background.