

Closing Out Sale!

of Telstad's Stock

Known as "The Golden Rule Store" In Odd Fellows Building, on 5th Street.
This Grocery Stock with fixtures was sold at a forced sale to the highest bidder a few days ago. Our bid was the highest. We now own the stock and fixtures and want to dispose of them in the next four days, Sept. 22-25.

On Wednesday morning, Sept. 22, the store will be open for a grand closing out sale of the entire stock.

We don't intend to move a single article into our own store. Everything must be sold. In order to make the sale effective, the stock will be sold at about half of the regular retail prices. The stock consists of Groceries, odds and ends in Crockery, and a few odds and ends in Dry Goods.

NEXT SUNDAY IS FIELD DAY FOR ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

The Minnesota Anti-Saloon League has appointed next Sunday as a field day in Willmar, and on that day four representatives of the league will present the temperance cause in the various Willmar churches. The work of the league against the saloon has been both incessant and affective and no farce is so bitterly hated by the brewery and liquor interests. Most of the work is done through the churches of the state and the league has an able force of speakers in the field at all times.

Those who will speak here are P. J. Youngdahl, state superintendent, at the Swedish Lutheran church in the morning and at the Lutheran Synod church in the evening; C. W.
