NORWAY LAKE NIBBLES
Norway Lake, Mar. 7.—The county option convention in St. Paul certainly was a stunner.

The Busy Bees met at Rustad's last Wednesday.

Henry Swenson has sent in his resignation as mail carrier on route 3 and will move on to the Norman farm now owned by Willie Larson.

Lars Hattiestad moves on to the old Slatium place.

Johannes Halvorson's wind mill suffered a down fall in the fiercely raging wind storm last Sunday. Oscar Mankel's wind mill also saluted and bent its head to the ground.

Miss Anna Swanson leaves today for St. Paul.

Mar. 8.—Freedner's auction at New London was well represented by Norway Lakers.

The Busy Bees met at Gunder Swensons last Wednesday.

The Misses Julia and Adella Sylverson entertained a bunch of their young friends for supper last Saturday night. A pleasant time is reported.

The Jens Skalrud young people visited at Ole Stene's place at West Lake last Sunday.

Services were conducted in the East Norway Lake church last Sunday by Rev. Sotendahl and in the Synod church by Rev. D. C. Jordahl. Olavus and Gilbert Reiersen and Hans Nelson returned from Bowman county last week where they had been filing on a quarter section of land each—a good move. Buying land in this county for persons with rather limited means is not a wise theory as the result means slavery for life, financially, giving the land to capitalists and keeping experiences themselves after many years' outlay of interest, taxes and other running expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Olof Railson entertained some of their young friends last Wednesday.

Sensible Savings Talks.

—IX—

A young man making application for a certain position was asked for his references.
He produced his bank pass book which showed him to be a systematic money saver.
He got the job.
The young man who is thoroughly imbued with the saving habit is too serious minded to indulge in bad habits. They don't go together.
The best prices in the business world are for those with stability of character. Nothing contributes more to the building of character than the self restraint practiced in money saving.
