SPICER-ON-GREEN LAKE

Spicer-on-Green Lake, June 21—Next Sunday services with communion at 10:30 a. m. in the Swedish Lutheran church by Rev. Swenson. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Nordberg will conduct services in the Presbyterian church. Next Thursday evening student Lee, teacher of the parochial school here, will give a school entertainment and ice cream social in the pavillion. The Eagle Lake chorus will also be there. Mr. and Mrs. P. Wallquist and son Leroy left for Willmar last Monday after a visit with friends and relatives. Next Monday, the 4th, there will be a celebration at Norway Lake. The Spicer band will furnish music for the day. There will also be a celebration in the Ole Haverly grove when the Ladies Aid of the Green Lake church will have an auction sale. Several speakers will also be there. Mrs. Johanson, daughter and son, came back from their visit at N. D., last Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Johanson's sister, Miss Marie Strandness. Miss Hattie Johnson is visiting with the Brandt family at their cottage by the lake. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thorvig returned from their trip last Friday. We wish to correct an error in last week's items, where it said that a purse of $28 was given Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thorvig. It should have been $128. A baby girl came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Qiam a week ago last Wednesday. The sad news of the death of Mrs. John Tait of Diamond Lake was received here last Sunday morning. Mrs. Tait is the mother of Jack Tait and Mrs. Tom Nelson of this place. Miss Olive Hodnefield leaves today for Iowa after a short visit with relatives around here. Last Sunday morning she gave a very interesting talk at the Green Lake church; in the afternoon at the Spicer church and in the evening in the Long Lake church. After a visit in Iowa she leaves for China to continue her missionary work. Mrs. Healy entertained a few of her Spicer friends and a few from Grove City last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Kloster attended the Sverson-Johnson wedding at Norway Lake Sunday. Minnie Erickson spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ida Jacobson, last week. Miss Marie Wolf from Harrison is visiting at A. G. Mardin's this week. Mrs. Otto Overson is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Anderson, this week. Last Saturday afternoon the Little Girls' Society of the Long Lake church gave an ice cream social and auction sale of articles which they have been making at the G. Bratberg home. About $25 were taken in. Mr. and Mrs. Ewan Johnson from Hibbing are visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Samuelson, this week. Use TRIBUNE postcards.

MAMRE MELODIES

Mamre, June 27—Peter Swedberg resigned his position as clerk at the Mamre store last Wednesday. He will work for Hjalmar Johnson of Salem during the busy season. Mesdames Danielson, Ecklund and Johnson left on Saturday for a few week's visit with relatives and friends at Minneapolis and Red Wing. All who come are requested to bring baskets for a picnic dinner.

COLFAX COLLECTION

Colfax, June 27—A pretty wedding occurred at J. Kullander's last Thursday afternoon at two o'clock when Miss Ellen was given in marriage to Mr. Elmer Lundberg of Waubay, S. D. Rev. P. Schaffer performed the ceremony. The bride wore a white silk mull dress and carried carnations. The groom wore the usual suit of black. Misses Ida Johnson and Edith Harlander acted as bridesmaids and wore white. Elmer and Albin Kullander acted as groomsmen. A bounteous wedding supper was served to about fifty invited guests after which they enjoyed themselves thru the evening. They received quite a few nice presents. They will leave for Waubay, S. D., Tuesday, where the groom has a farm. Mrs. A. Anderson and two sons of Kandiyohi were up last week to attend the wedding of her sister, Ellen Kullander. Quite a few from here attended the midsummer picnic at New London. Mrs. J. Wohleen visited C. Larson's Sunday. The Carlson and Odland young folks attended the Y. P. S. at Stephen Olson's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Dahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundberg, Misses Ida Johnson and Irene Jensen, Messrs. Elmer and Albin Kullander enjoyed a picnic and steamboat ride at Lake Andrew Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Hallberg and children and Mrs. M. Thori of Murodock visited at E. Thimel's from Friday until Sunday. The latter will visit some days longer.

relatives and a large number of friends. The funeral took place last Saturday afternoon. The cortege left the house at half past one and services were held in church at three. Rev. Dragt formerly of this church but now at Silver Creek, conducted the funeral services. A beautiful song was sung by four of her young girl friends, "We Shall Meet but We Shall Miss Her." The surviving parents and members of the family have the sympathy of the community in their great loss. Many and beautiful were the floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. E. F.
