ARCTANDER-ARROWS

Arctander, Aug. 8—All the sheaves are gathered in in this locality at this writing.

Otto Swenson assisted Hans Henjum during stacking.

Peter Lundemo, Alfred Ellingson, Christ Gunderson and Gerhart Swenson are spinning around on motor cycles this summer, and there is danger of their spreading the "motor cycle fever" for it is very contagious. Even mail carrier Lind has proven himself susceptible to the disease which means quicker service to his mail route.

Mrs. L. Njös left for Minneapolis last Monday for a short stay with her daughter Mrs. A. Roisum. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hauge left for Marshall county last Sunday in response to a telegram announcing the death of the latter's father, Ole Jelle, who died at his home the preceding Saturday at the age of 93 years. They returned the following Thursday.

Mr. Fritz, a hired man who worked for Lotsberg, was the victim of a serious accident some days ago, which resulted in his death. He was loading a load of grain at the time from which he fell, breaking some bones in the neck and injuring the spinal chord, thus producing total paralysis. He was to be taken to the cities for medical aid but died on the train on the way down. We understand he leaves a wife and three children who will mourn his sudden and sad departure.

Norvald Lesteberg passed thru here with his new auto last Sunday. We should be pleased to have you come over and renew old acquaintances by giving us a ride, Norvald.

Arctander suffers from the loss of another highly esteemed lady thru marriage and departure. This time it is Miss Syneva Henjum who has entered into the holy bonds of matrimony. She was married to Mr. Mons Gjerd, an attorney of St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin. We wish them a happy and prosperous future.

Ludvig and Betsey Boe took in the Y. P. S. meeting at P. A. Gandruds' place Sunday afternoon.

The East Norway Lake Y. P. S. will give an ice cream social next Sunday, Aug. 14 afternoon and evening in the Martin Aasen grove near West Lake. All lady members of the society are requested to bring cake.

Will Marry South Dakotan.

The friends of Miss Hannah Almen in this county will be interested to learn of her approaching marriage to Mr. Joseph Benson of Crooks, S. D., which will take place at the home of her parents at Carthage, S. D., on the evening of Aug. 18th. The bride to be is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Almen, who for a number of years lived at New London. She has many friends there and elsewhere in this county who will wish her a life of wedded bliss.

A Delightful Program.

The young people of the Free Lutheran church had arranged a delightful program for their meeting Friday evening. The numbers were all pleasing. The address of Martin E. Tew on "The Norsemen," which he closed by reciting Longfellow's "Skeleton in Armor," was especially entertaining. At the close of the program delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Erick Holt and Miss Mabel Strand.

The Willmar friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ziesemer, who resided here at one time, will be interested to know that they are to leave Litchfield, where they have lived the past three years, about the first of September and make their home in Merriam Park. Mr. Ziesemer having been promoted by the Northwestern Elevator Co. to the position of Superintendent of line elevators.
