Creole Belle. "Throw Out the Life Line" Give the Kidneys Help and Many Willmar People Will Be Happier.

The kidneys need help. They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair.

Will cure any form of kidney trouble. Mrs. C. A. Peters, Sibley Ave., Litchfield Minn., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for backache and trouble with the kidney secretions and I am glad to say that they have brought about a cure."

My back and hips were so lame that I could hardly stoop and my kidneys did not do their work properly. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, I have been perfectly free from these troubles.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

KANDIYOHI CULLINGS

Kandiyohi, Sept. 26—A very pretty double wedding took place at the Tripolis church last Friday afternoon, Sept. 23, when Miss Minnie Klint and Mr. Elmer Tulin and Miss Anna Klint and Mr. Louis Norin were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. E. Walters in the presence of about 150 guests. The church was made very attractive for the occasion by decorations of garden flowers and autumn foliage.

Miss Ruth Tulin, sister of Mr. Tulin presided at the organ and played the Mendelssohn wedding march. The brides' attendants were their sisters, Misses Miriam and Ida Klint, who wore prettily fashioned gowns of pale blue and carried bouquets of white asters.

The brides entered one on either arm of their father and were met at the altar by the grooms. Mr. Tulin with his attendant, Mr. Oscar Tulin, entered from the right, and Mr. Norine and his attendant, Mr. Emil Norine, from the left.

The brides were gowned alike in white French lawn elaborated with Irish crochet lace. Their dainty tulle veils were held in place by rosebuds and their bouquets were of brides' roses.

A reception followed the service at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Klint. The rooms were beautifully decked. Red, green and white were the colors used and in the corner of the parlor, where the bridal party were grouped, a wedding bell of white flowers and feathery ferns was suspended. Dainty refreshments were served in the afternoon and later a bountiful wedding dinner was served in a large tent on the lawn.

Both Mr. Tulin and Mr. Norine are engaged in the merchandise business in Kandiyohi and will make their homes here. We join the friends of the newly wedded couples in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Miss Melvina Croonquist, who has been staying in Willmar since early last summer, is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hanson left for St. Paul the first part of last week.

Mrs. Norine, of Minneapolis, has been visiting at the home of her brother, Peter Tulin, for a few days.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson spent Wednesday and Thursday in Atwater with her sister, Miss Sadie Tait.

Mr. A. Redy, who has been quite sick for a few days, went to Litchfield Saturday to go thru an operation. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Amy Redy.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Anderson, of Willmar, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Anderson.

Peter Erickson was tendered a surprise party Saturday evening by a number of his young friends. He was presented with a sum of money as a memento of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Norine visited with relatives in Lake Elizabeth Sunday.

Ebba Lundquist, who has been a patient at the Swedish hospital in St. Paul for several weeks, returned home last Thursday. She has improved a good deal but has not fully recovered yet.

Mrs. C. O. Bergquist will entertain the west district of the Ladies' Mission society at the Tripolis church on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 28, and Mrs. C. G. Elmquist will entertain the east district on Thursday, Sept. 29.

The Young People's society of the Tripolis church will meet on Friday evening, Sept. 30, at 7:30. A program will be rendered and refreshments will be served by Mrs. C. G. Elmquist and Miss Emma Nord.

There will be Sunday school and services at the Ebenezer church next Sunday forenoon, Oct. 2, at 10 and 11 o'clock respectively; and at the Tripolis church in the afternoon at 2:00 and 3:15 o'clock.

Mrs. O. W. Kroona entertained the Ladies Aid of the Ebenezer church Saturday afternoon. It was very well attended.
