SPICER-ON-GREEN LAKE

Spicer-on-Green Lake, Mar. 6—Remember the Y. P. S. program and social at the Sw. Luth. church basement Thursday evening, Mar. 9th.

Mrs. Overson and little daughter and Miss Lena Carlson returned to Willmar Wednesday after a few days' visit with relatives and friends west of town.

Mrs. C. M. Lawson of New London visited with her daughter, Mrs. F. O. Swenson, a few days' last week.

Lawrence Bergeson of Willmar canvassed Spicer last week with the aluminum cooking utensils.

Mrs. H. F. Winblad accompanied Mrs. Ida Martin to the cities Friday where the latter went for medical aid.

Mrs. N. Quam of New London visited at the home of her son, E. L. Quam Thursday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hillman took the train for Murock Saturday to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Hillman's folks.

Mrs. John Jacobson has enjoyed a two weeks' visit with her sisters, Mrs. Louise House of Brainerd and Mrs. Christine Swenson of Superior. Mrs. House left for her home Tuesday and Mrs. Swenson Saturday.

The Ladies' Society of the Sw. Luth. church will be entertained by Mrs. John Nordeen Thursday afternoon and evening of Mar. 16. All are cordially invited to come for coffee and lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson and family spent Sunday at the home of Oscar Jacobson south of town.

The teacher and pupils of the Lincoln School Dis. 28 will give a program and basket social next Saturday evening. Two good plays, miscellaneous pieces and songs will be given. Those partaking have been working diligently for some time and a good evenings entertainment is sure to be the result. Let as many as possible reward them by being present.

The Ladies Aid of the Green Lake church meets at Ole Haverlie's Wednesday afternoon.

Sunday school and services will be held at the Sw. Luth. church next Sunday afternoon at 2 and 3 o'clock respectively instead of the following Sunday which is the regular Sunday. The reason for the change is that Rev. Swenson will not be home at the latter date.

The Misses Brooks returned to Henderson, Minn., last Saturday after a week's visit at the home of Emmy Hoyce.

Claud Doty and family Sundayed at John Jacobson's.

The Spicer boys who have been West with the Peiffer ice crew at Loon Lake, Wash., and Marion. Mont., returned Monday after a month's absence. They were all looking well, and pleased to get home to the place they enjoyed their trip and realize it a big treat to have had an opportunity to see a part of Uncle Sam's great mountain country. Several of the boys took a trip to Seattle from Spokane.

Dr. and Mrs. Healy returned from a several days' visit in the cities Monday.

Miss Emma Boreen returned to her High School duties at Willmar Monday after spending Saturday and Sunday with her folks here.

Miss Mary Johnson has spent a few days at her home in Nest Lake. She took the train for Willmar Monday where she is keeping house for her brothers attending the Willmar Seminary.

Charles Jake was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends Saturday evening.

Miss Maggie Swenson of Waconda Beach has been staying with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, the past week.

J. Mekhouse of Olivia was around buying stock last week for the firm. He was paying good prices for stock and hogs.

J. E. Johnson took in the Swedish concert at the Carlson Hall at Willmar last Friday evening, and says that it was very good.

Rev. Peterson and A. M. Hedin returned home last week from Stillwater, where they had attended the meeting of the Swedish Lutheran Conference.

J. E. Johnson had a letter from Albert Rodelius of Palacios, Texas, last week, and it stated that Mr. Rodelius will leave the Texas paradise on the 10th of March for good old Minnesota, Kandiyohi county, Lake Lillian township. He has disposed of his farm down in the cow boy state and will come here to again run a farm. We will give him a cordial welcome.

Rev. Peterson conducted a funeral at Fridsburg Saturday.

Dame Rumor has it that we will soon have a store near the Christine church, and we say: Success to the promoters! A store and a creamery are badly needed out here, as we have ten miles to the nearest creamery. Why not build up a cream station, too, at the same time?

J. C. Dale Retires.

J. C. Dale, one of Willmar's prosperous grocers, has decided to make a change and last week disposed of his stock and good will to Messrs. P. L. Sorenson, Selmer Berg and John Fladebo, who will take possession about the 15th.

Mr. Dale, with his wife and little daughter, expects to leave for the West in about a month on a pleasure and also a prospecting trip. As yet he has no decided plans for the future. It is to be regretted that one who has made such a success of his business in Willmar should decide to locate elsewhere.
