Vid Min Faders graf.

Är det väl sant? Har du oss lämnat re'n O fader kär. Är det en dröm kanhända?

Ack landet är så mörkt i timma sen,

Och suckar följa tårar utan ända.

Vårt hjärta isas utaf töcknens djup Vid dödens mörka strand, där du oss lämnar.

Vi se så föga: mäst de mörka stup, Men för din blick en annan tafa rämnar.

Ej ens i döden du förfaras kan, Ej skräme stormen dig vid Jordans-stranden!

"Det går så lätt", du ropade oss an Från flodens midt—som vinkande med handen.

Och nu du, bärgad, skådar ner till oss.

Som famla än i dimmorna, i gruset, Och dina minnen tända re'n de bloss.

Oss vinka efter hem till faders huset.

Vårt "fadershus" i dubbel mening nu.

Se'n du gått före att oss rum bereda!

Din blick så mild, din bild så god och ljuf

Skall hjälpa oss att stegen hemåt leda.

Du är ej död! Du lever hos oss än

I dina sänger, i vår kärlek ömma. DET är vår stjärna uppå himmelen.

Vi se den klart, trots tårarna, som strömmar.

Du gaf ditt bästa för oss, bästa far, Dig någon ro du aldrig ville unna.

Beckymrens udd och präriens vind dig skar.

Att du oss brödet skulle gifva kunna.

Du stormigt hade här emellanåt.

Och ofta fick du junga sång i natten.

Men sörjde du, du dolde mest din gråt.

Oss gaf du glädjens vin—ej sorgens vatten.

Haf tack, ett sjufaldt tack, för allt du var

O make öm, o fader utan like! Fast häst vi velat dig få hålla kvar, Dig unnas gärna viljan i Guds rike.

Farväl, farväl! Ett långt, ett ömt farväl!

Din ande hvisekar tyst "farväl" tillbaka.

Hur ljuf oss kännas flakten af din själ!

Hvad tröst däri för barnbarn, barn och maka!

Och går din blick till jorden än ibland

Och ser vår fackla matt i natten brinna.

Så bed en bön att vi må nå DITT land.

Att vi i sällhet sist hvarandra finna.—Gustaf Frykman, in Salems blad.

OBITUARY

MRS. PETER LOFGREN.

Mrs. Peter Löfgren died at her home in Lake Lillian Thursday evening, May 18th, after a short illness at the age of 58 years. Mrs. Löfgren was a native of Sweden, but had lived at the farm home at Lake Lillian for thirty years. She had many friends who will sincerely mourn her death and sympathize with her bereaved family.

Mrs. Löfgren is survived by her husband, and seven children: Three sons in Canada; two daughters, Mrs. Renstrom of St. Paul and Selma at home; one son Albert, at home, and one Peter, living near Lake Elizabeth.

Rev. Peterson, pastor of the Lake Lillian Swedish Lutheran church, conducted funeral services at that church on Tuesday afternoon and the body was laid in its last resting place in the adjoining cemetery.

CHARLES ALBERT HEDLUND.

Charles Albert Hedlund of Lake Elizabeth died on Thursday, May 11th, after a week's illness. Mr. Hedlund was 33 years of age and leaves a wife and four children.

Rev. G. A. Schoberg conducted funeral services at the Swedish Lutheran church in Atwater on Sunday May 14th, and the body was taken to Kokato and placed in the family burial lot.

HORATIO P. GEER.

Horatio P. Geer, an old pioneer settler of Burbank died at Seattle, Wash., May 7th at the age of 77 years, 4 months and 23 days. Death was due to cancer and came as a relief after a period of illness lasting since Jan. 15th.

Horatio P. Geer was born in Bloomfield, Crawford county, Pennsylvania Dec. 14 1833. He came to Minnesota in 1864 and pre-empted a claim in Burbank the same year. He moved with his family the following spring to their new home.

In 1888 he moved to Crow Lake, Stearns County, and lived there until 1903, when he moved to Washington to find a climate with warmer winters. But he always loved Minnesota and came back to look after his farm interests and spent the summers with his son C. A. Geer of Colfax until 1910, when his health began to fail. He was a quiet man and loved the quiet of his home. He was honest and upright and believed in the brother-

Deaf People

We have just secured the agency for the AURIS, the new invention that is causing so much comment.

This instrument weighs only seven ounces and is the smallest, lightest, cheapest and by far the most effective instrument on the market, for the deaf.

We are now ready to demonstrate the AURIS any day to any one calling at our store.

To him it was the book of books and he had always studied it diligently. His well worn Bibles with their marked chapters and verses should be a comfort to those that mourn a kind and loving father. "This book is all that's left me now! Tears will unbidden start. With faltering lip and throbbing brow, I press it to my heart." A few of the more marked verses: Job 19:25 "For I know that my Redeemer liveth and that he shall stand at the latter day upon earth." Psalms 119: 105 and 127, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and, a light unto my path." Therefore I love thy commandments above gold: Yea above fine gold."

The funeral services were held at the Rosenberg parlors, Seattle, Wash., at 2 p. m. May 11th. Rev. Ateson officiated. The remains were laid at rest in the Lake View cemetery. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Besides the near relatives the old Minnesota neighbors that attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cartledge, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. J. A., J.
