SEMINARY MUSICAL HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

The musical at the Seminary hall Monday evening was attended by a large and highly appreciative audience.

The young ladies, Misses Omsundson, Walberg and Hoglund, who made their musical debut that evening, played charmingly, not as amateurs but as professionals and showed themselves masters of their art. The future is bright with promise for them should they decide to devote the coming years to this study.

Miss Sherman sang with much expression and with a charming grace of manner. She has a beautiful voice and delighted all who heard her. Miss Ackerslund's violin numbers were excellent and were highly enjoyed. Miss Reed was the accompanist for the evening and handled the difficult accompaniments with ease. She is an accomplished musician and occupies a high place in the musical circles of the state. Supt. G. A. Foster made a few remarks before the close of the program speaking in the highest terms of the Ethel Reed School of Music and congratulating Willmar on having such a beneficial institution in their midst.

Mrs. Iverson fell forward on the ground and had both hands broken at the wrists and was bruised about the head. Mr. Iverson was also injured in the head, and wrenched his back, but not worse than he was able to come to Willmar Monday. A doctor was summoned who attended Mrs. Iverson and set the broken bones. ## OBITUARY

REV. J. O. LUNDBERG.

Rev. J. O. Lundberg, beloved pastor of the Svea church for twenty years, was stricken with apoplexy in the church of his new charge at Beckville, Meeker county, last Thursday morning, and after lying unconscious for more than three days passed away at one o'clock, Monday morning, May 29. Confirmation services had just begun on the morning mentioned. Ascension Day, the opening hymn had been sung, the pastor stepped into the chancel to begin the exercises when he was stricken. He was carried into the parsonage, but did not lose consciousness at once. He was privileged to speak with some of his dear ones before he lapsed into the sleep from which there is no awakening. The best medical aid obtainable was summoned but could do nothing. The sad news was received with sorrow in this county, where his activities as pastor and citizen for a score of years are greatly appreciated.

J. O. Lundberg was born at Ljusdahl, Halsingland, Sweden, Nov. 6, 1851, was ordained as Swedish Lutheran pastor at Red Wing in 1883, and became pastor at Svea in 1888. Besides Svea, he also served the Christian church for a succession of years. In a later issue The Tribune expects to publish a more complete biographical and character sketch. He leaves to mourn his sudden death his wife and ten children: The latter are Mrs. Ellen Westerberg of this city, Mrs. Anna Blomquist of Fahln, Oscar Lundberg of Stockholm, Minn., and Carl, Vernon, Herbert, Laura, Amy and Albertina. Another daughter, Mrs. Hulda Hegstrom, died five years ago. The surviving family has the deepest sympathy of the community in their irreparable loss.

The funeral will occur at Svea tomorrow (Thursday) at one o'clock. All the pastors of the Willmar district are expected to be present. Rev. C. J. Collin, former pastor of the district, will preach the funeral sermon and Rev. Peterson of Willmar will make the personal references. All the pastors present will participate in the exercises. Services are held at Beckville today, and the remains will be taken over land to Svea. There will be a large attendance of people at Svea tomorrow to show their respect for the memory of the departed churchman. The confirmation class so tragically bereft of their pastor was confirmed last Sunday by Rev. Linner of Litchfield.

The deceased was born in Redwing, Minnesota, on the 11th day of November, 1862, his parents were among the earliest settlers of Crow River community, this county, having come to Redwing after the Indian outbreak in August of that year. In 1869 they returned and here the boy grew to manhood, his father, Levor Nelson, dying when Andrew was 16 years of age. He has been a resident of Willmar for 32 years having conducted an extensive music business here. Jan. 13, 1890, he was united in marriage to Miss Sina Anderson, the wife who now mourns his untimely departure. ## SIXTEEN INNING BASE BALL GAME

High-School Team Still Keeps Brilliant Record of Eleven Straight Victories.

Yesterday afternoon, in the best game ever seen in Willmar the high school base ball team closed their season by defeating the Town team by a score of 4 to 3 in 16 innings. From the first it was seen that the game would be close as both pitchers were in great form and the support was fair.

The town team was the first to score, getting one run in the second on successive doubles by "Buck" Johnson and Downs. Then both pitchers went along until the sixth when the town team got a couple more bases on balls, a stolen base, a hit by M. Johnson and Rowell's long single to right center. The High School scored three in the seventh on a couple of hits mixed in between some errors and stolen bases. From then until the 13th there was nothing doing for either team, altho the High School had men on bases in every inning except the 9th. In the 13th "Dutch" Ives got to third with no one out and the next two men fanned and with two strikes on the next man he tried to steal home but the batter struck at the ball and was out before Ives scored. In the 16th inning with one out Carlson walked and went second on a passed ball, stole third and scored on a sacrifice to left field by Williams. The town team is newly organized and expect to have suits in the near future.

CONTRACT STATE HOSPITAL NOT AWARDED

The contract for the State Hospital to be erected at Willmar has not been let at this writing. Bids were opened on Monday. John Lorentzen of Fergus Falls bid some 214,000 odd dollars and appeared on the face of the bids to be the lowest bidder. This however was not so certain after the figures had been considered more closely, and at this writing, Wednesday afternoon, the matter has not been fully determined. The Board of Control will have a session with the architect tomorrow and come to a decision.

Olson-Fladeboe.

The home of Mrs. Erick Olson at Eagle Lake was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening when she gave her daughter Alma in marriage to John Fladeboe. Rev. O. E. Larson of the Eagle Lake church performed the ceremony which was witnessed by a group of relatives of the bride and groom. The rooms were effectively decorated for the occasion with spring flowers and an elegant supper was served after an informal reception. The bride was beautifully dressed in white and carried bride's roses. Miss Clara Olson was maid of honor. Her gown was of dainty white and white carnations were her flowers. Arthur Kleven was best man.

Monday Afternoon Club.

The annual outing of the Monday Afternoon Club was enjoyed on the Rectory grounds Monday. A tempting luncheon was served in the parish house and garden flowers decorated the table. After pleasant reminiscing "over the tea cups" an entertaining letter from Mrs. C. A. Birch of Spokane, a former member of the club, was read and many kind wishes were spoken for Mrs. Birch in her new home. The one thing that marred the pleasure of the occasion was the absence of the president, Mrs. Rice, who has been prevented by illness from attending the club for sometime. After the adjournment for the summer a beautiful bunch of carnations was sent Mrs. Rice accompanied by numberless wishes for her speedy return to health. Mesdames S. A. Qvale and W. J. Pinney and Mrs. Agnes Kingstons and Clara Dunn, were guests of the Club.
