Big Shorthorn Sale Tomorrow. John Rhodes' big herd of pure bred Shorthorns will be sold at auction tomorrow afternoon in a big tent placed on Litchfield avenue, opposite Kelly and Sanderson's livery barn.

Spicer-on-Green-Lake, Oct. 16—Miss Helen Campbell left for Willmar last week, where she will make an extended stay. Sam Garver of Harrison was seen in town Thursday with a brand new automobile.

Miss Anna Olson returned to Willmar last week, after a few days' visit with her folks west of town. Gust Hegstrom was a Willmar visitor between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. Andrew Melby and children who have been spending the summer at the home of Conrad Olsvik, left Friday for Vergias, Minn., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Clarence Field was a Spicer visitor Friday. Nels Olson was at the county seat between trains Wednesday.

Sander Anderson came here from Murdock Friday, on business, returning Saturday. Miss Florence Henderson who is attending the High School at Willmar came out Friday and visited with her folks until Monday.

Henry Ertzland disposed of his motorcycle last week, to Walter McKee, of Harrison. Miss Bertha Thorvig was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edw. L. Quam over Sunday.

Mrs. Fredolf Hultgren left for the cities Friday and was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith. She also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hendrickson before returning home on Monday.

Chas. Gustafson and family who recently arrived from Minneapolis, are now nicely located in the Kloster residence, opposite the depot. A new sign made its appearance in front of William Olson's land office last week. Mr. Olson believes that it pays to advertise his business.

Paul M. Peterson of Willmar came out on Saturday to spend the afternoon with friends at this place. Iver Graven, formerly of Carrington, N. D., visited with friends here from Thursday until Saturday, while on his way to the Pacific coast where he will spend the winter.

J. M. Spicer received a carload of tile last week which he will use in draining some sloughs on his farm east of the village. Mr. Spicer is of the opinion that it pays well to drain the low places and make every acre of land tillable.

Oscar Johnson returned from North Dakota on Saturday after an absence of a few months. While there he visited quite a number of places and he states that the crops were fairly good in some localities. Andrew Anderson has been doing some plowing for F. G. Field the past week.

The garage that is being built by William Nelson of Spicer is nearing completion. A. P. Rann and crew have been busy these days putting in a concrete floor. The building is neat in appearance and with Mr. Nelson in charge of this garage the automobile owners will receive first class services, as he is a machinist by trade and has had a great deal of experience with various kinds of engines. It became a necessity to have a garage at this place, owing to the many motor cars that are here in the summer time. And we wish for him success in his venture.

of Iver Jacobson last week. Miss Agnes Nelson of Eagle Lake is at present a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. Downs. Miss Julia Peterson visited at her parental home at Kandiyohi from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Willie Monson was the guest of relatives at Willmar a few days the past week. Miss Hattie Thompson left for the cities Saturday for a few days' visit with relatives.

Norway Lake, Oct. 16—Rain! Rain! Consequently threshing is progressing very slowly. A few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. J. Selhney from Twin Valley, Minn., visited in this neighborhood. They reported a very dry season up there, and wished they had some of the rain we have had here this summer.

Mrs. O. H. Negaard of St. Paul, and Mrs. E. Truedson of Puyallup, Wash., visited relatives and friends here a few days ago. Mrs. Truedson was quite a stranger here as she has not been in Minnesota since 1895.

M. O. Rusted lost a sheep the other day under peculiar circumstances. The sheep was grazing in the eastern part of the farm, and by the way, it looked as if some smart Aleek had been anxious to see how good a shot he was, hence the dead sheep.

The school in Dist. No. 104 is progressing nicely with Miss Thora Eljjer in the chair. In spite of all that has been done to give this district its death blow, so far they have not been able to wipe it entirely out of existence.

The sad news reached us last night that the Angel of Death has again visited the Gordhamer brothers' home, this time it took away their youngest brother, Fred, who died last Friday. Fred had for some time been afflicted with the dreaded disease tuberculosis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson who have lived in St. Cloud for the last fourteen months have lately moved from that city to take up their abode at their farm in the town of Aretander. We have been informed that Fred Amundson, who has for many years lived on the farm of O. W. Odell, is going to quit farming. Fred is a hustler and we predict for him a bright future in his change.

The writer recently had a talk with one of the Magner brothers, who are renting the Dr. Johnson farm. Last spring they planted 70 acres of corn on this farm and he was sure part of this corn will yield 60 bushels to the acre. These boys are experts in corn raising as they lived in the southern part of South Dakota before they came here.

A special school meeting was held in Dist. No. 25 last Saturday evening to vote upon the erection of a new school house in said district. We have not heard the result but hope these people came to an agreement now after years of debating and voting over this matter.

Death of Albin Johnson. The Angel of Death called at the home of Mrs. John Johnson on First street on Monday and took away her son, Albin, at the age of sixteen years, the cause of death being tuberculosis. Besides his mother he leaves two sisters to mourn his death, Misses Hilma and Naomi. They have the sympathy of a number of friends in their sorrow. The funeral takes place tomorrow, Thursday at one p. m. at the Baptist church, Rev. Oberg to officiate. The interment takes place at the Baptist cemetery at Kandiyohi.

License to Wed. Frank Markus to Mattie Ledevoer, Oct. 11th. Oswald Edwin Sunag to Alice Melvina Nerverson, Oct. 13th. Gustav Monson to Dora T. Johnson, Oct. 17th.

Svea, Oct. 16—Misses Ellen and Amy Lindberg entertained a few of their friends at lunch Monday afternoon. Mrs. N. O. Nelson from Willmar is now visiting here.

Miss Hildur Ryden spent the first of the week in Willmar. Several of the farmers of this vicinity attended the ditch meeting held at the Court House the past week.

Mr. M. E. Swenson and family visited at Jonas Monson's home Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Otto Lundquist will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society next Wednesday afternoon.

C. E. Nelsons' visited with Henry Bjelkengren's Sunday. Corn threshing is now the order of the day. P. E. Johnson is reshingling the barn on N. O. Nelson's farm.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the East Route will meet at C. A. Lundberg's Friday afternoon at three o'clock. It surely seems as tho the weather man took great pleasure in letting it rain these days.

The sad news has reached us that E. A. Lundgren, one of the pioneer settlers of this township, died at his home last Sunday evening. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

A lecture and school meeting will be held in School Dist. No. 55 next Friday evening the 27th next for the purpose of having a discussion on the matter of taking up new work. State Supt. of Public Instruction C. G. Schulz, of St. Paul, will make the principal address. There will be something of interest for all, grown folks as well as children, and for people outside of Dist. No. 55 as well as those living in that district.

Let everybody come out and hear the official head of all the schools of the state, a man who has done honor to himself as well as the people he sprang from.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. The Delicatessen opens Friday, October 20th. The Girl and the Girl King one night next week at Opera House.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnum are the happy parents of a little son born to them Oct. 6th. Have you read the book, then see the play next week of Thorns and Orange Blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rowat are the happy parents of a little daughter born to them Oct. 7th. The Epworth League of the M. E. church will give a Halloween social Thursday evening, Oct. 19th at the home of Rev. Parmeter. Everyone is most cordially invited to come.
