WILLMAR, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 1912.

A call has been issued for a state mass convention to be held at the St. Paul Auditorium on Tuesday, July 30, to elect delegates to the Third Party National convention to be held at Chicago, Ill., on Aug. 5, also to nominate twelve electors to be placed on the Minnesota ballot by petition. The call is signed by sixteen of the twenty-four delegates to the late national convention at Chicago, and others. The Seventh District delegates, T. T. Ofstun of Glenwood and A. J. Johnson of Clarkfield, both signed the call, also Hon. J. F. Jacobson of Madison and Hon. S. Y. Gordon of Browns Valley. No reply was received from Senator Clapp who had been invited to sign. Hon. Henry Feig was in the city Monday in the interest of securing a delegation from Kandiyohi county to the mass convention. There was some loud talk at the court house when he interviewed the county officials. What success he met with at Willmar, we do not know.

William E. Lee, progressive republican candidate for governor, will not join the third party movement. Neither will he vote for Taft. He wants to see Taft defeated, but not the party destroyed.

Svea Creamery Scores.

The second educational butter scoring contest of the Minnesota Dairymen's Association was entered with no less than 274 tubs of butter. The best score in the state was made by E. O. Quenvold, of Hutchinson, with 97 points. In the Third District, which includes this and adjoining counties, the first prize was won by Oscar Lundquist of Svea by a score of 96. Oscar feels elated over his success, and no one can blame him. The winning of the prize is a good ad for Svea.

OBITUARY

The funeral occurred last Sunday. A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the late residence and at 1:30 o'clock the long cortege started for Spicer. The Saron church proved entirely too small to accommodate the large gathering of people who came to pay their last respects to the departed. The first verse of hymn No. 484 was sung; Rev. B. E. Walters of Tripolis offered prayer; Miss Helena Swenson sang the favorite song of the departed, "Flyg som en fågel till bergen." Rev. Christian Swenson, the pastor, made a brief discourse in Swedish in which he paid a tribute to the life of the departed. Rev. Walters also made an impressive address and Rev. Swenson followed with some remarks in the English language. Miss Olga Nelson sang "There Will be a Vacant Chair." Songs were interspersed by a trio composed of Mrs. Chr. Swenson, Miss Helena Swenson and Miss Olga Nelson, who also sang softly as the assembled multitude passed by the casket to take a last look at the well known features. At the close of these services the cortege proceeded in a drizzling rain to New London where another multitude had assembled at the Lebanon church. Here the second verse of hymn No. 484 was sung and Rev. Swenson spoke both in Swedish and English. The church choir sang "Smärtans stunder äro" and "Abide with Me." The casket was then carried to the churchyard where the interment was made in the family lot. Rev. Swenson officiated at the grave. As the casket was lowered the choir sang, "Jag skall sova men ej evigt." The flower laden casket was borne by the four sons and two brothers-in-law, V. E. and E. E. Lawson. The honorary pall-bearers were the following: William Peterson, Nels Boreen, John Nordin, Adolf Samulsson, Adolf Nelson and August Müller. Among the many and beautiful floral tributes may be mentioned the lovely star and crescent design from the Saron congregation.

SAD FUNERAL AT GROVE CITY
Three Victims of Auto-Railroad Accident are Laid to Rest Amid Impressive Services.

The coroner's jury which investigated the Grove City accident rendered the following verdict in regard to the death of the victims:

"We the jurors find that one and each of them came to their death by being struck by the engine of the Great Northern train was running at riding in an auto on the railroad crossing immediately east of the Great Northern depot, Village of Grove City, on July 7, 1912, between the hours of 7 and 8 p. m., and we further find that according to the testimony it was impossible for the driver or any of the occupants of said automobile to see the approaching train, and we further find according to testimony that the said No. 4 Great Northern train was running at a high speed of 32 to 45 miles per hour."

The victims of this awful accident were all members of the Swedish Baptist church. The Grove City Times gives the following particulars regarding the funeral which occurred July 10:

"The funeral which was held last Wednesday afternoon was one of the most impressive ever witnessed in our city. The bodies of the three victims lay in state all day at the village town hall, whither they had been removed and from where they were taken to the church. The services began at two o'clock. The services at the hall consisted of a fervent prayer by Rev. Bergfalk, pastor of the Swedish Baptist church of this city. The three caskets were then removed and placed in three carriages. As they were carried from the hall, "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by the pupils of the public school, schoolmates of Rosella. Her casket, a beautiful white one, was placed in a carriage draped in white. Mrs. S. M. Hawkins' came next, and then Mr. Nelson's. The latter two were black in contrast to the white one of the young girl. A great abundance of floral offerings covered all three caskets, an outward evidence of the heartfelt sympathy that had been aroused in all.

Led by the Litchfield band, which played the sw. et strains of the beautiful march, "At Rest," the procession started from the hall. Following the band came six girls, all dressed in white, honorary pall bearers to Miss Rosella, then the three carriages containing the caskets, each carriage being attended by six pallbearers and two groomsmen, then carriages carrying the mourners and relatives, and after these an endless throng of people. They marched east from the hall, across the ill-fated crossing on which the accident occurred, through the main street and then to the Swedish Baptist church. When the band reached the church they formed a column on each side of the driveway and as the caskets were borne between these into the church, they played, "Nearer My God to Thee."

"The services in the church were conducted by Rev. Hjerstrom of Co-ko, in an opening prayer, a talk in the English language by Rev. Alfred Peterson, of Fargo, N. D., a talk in the Swedish language by Rev. Bergfalk of this city, and Rev. C. E. Oberg of Willmar in a closing prayer. The services were supplemented by beautiful singing by the Sunday school and public school children, a solo by Mrs. A. A. Miller, and a quartette consisting of Miss Selma Swanson, Mrs. Haskel, Mr. Adolph Swanson and Mrs. Haskel. After a review of the remains they were carried to the cemetery and laid to rest on the hill overlooking the city.

"It was a sad funeral indeed. Friends from far and near were in attendance and never before have so many people been present at a funeral in our town. The sorrowful circumstances of these deaths were of such a nature as touched the heartstrings of all, and aroused sympathy and grief in all alike. As the sorrow stricken crowd wended its way to the church upon the hill, the tear-dimmed eyes of the multitude were cast upon the ground. The death of these three people, aged, middle-aged and young, as they were, found the sympathetic chord which responded in unspoken grief. We are tempted to ask why some things should be thus, but can only yield to the inevitable and resign our fate in the hands of One who arranges all things for our good. We can only supplement the sympathy so clearly in evidence today by expressing a tender word of condolence to the three families thus sorrow stricken.

"The out of town relatives who attended the funeral were: Henry Hawkins, of Springfield, Ill.; A. R. Hawkins, of Towner, N. D.; Mrs. Emily Bengtson, of Minneapolis; Mrs. A. W. Cathcart, of St. Paul; Mrs. Andrew Johnson, of St. Francis; Mrs. A. A. Cole, of Litchfield; and Mrs. P. E. Parson, Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. G. A. Stephens of Willmar; and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Johnson and daughter, of Sykeston, N. D."

CHRISTEN R. LARSON.

Christ Larson, a former well known resident of this city, died at Browns Valley last Wednesday, July 10th, after having been sick about seven weeks at the hospital there. He was operated on for appendicitis but was found in such condition that little hopes were entertained for his recovery. His remains were brought to Willmar on Thursday and taken to his parents' home on Twelfth street.

The funeral was held last Saturday afternoon, Rev. Michaelson officiating, with short exercises at the house at two o'clock and services at the Norwegian Lutheran Free church at three o'clock. The interment was held at the Fairview cemetery.

Christen R. Larson was born in Hesselager, Fyen, Denmark, on the 23rd day of January, forty-four years ago, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. Lars Rasmussen. When Christ was a boy of about thirteen the family came to America, locating in the St. Johns community, six miles east of Willmar. He was married about twenty years ago, and now leaves a wife and a daughter, Laurina, to mourn his untimely death. One daughter died seven years ago at the age of seven.

Mr. Larson was for several years in the employ of the Willmar Milling Company. During the last two years he has resided at Browns Valley, where he has been employed as section foreman.

Besides his wife and child he is mourned by his aged father and mother; and three brothers, Paul Larson, who is on a claim in South Dakota; Peter, a fireman at Willmar; Nels, section foreman at Beardley; and two sisters, Mrs. Gust Knutson and Mrs. A. G. Johnson of Willmar.

RAYMOND ALBION EDBLOM.

A local newspaper published at Eugene, Ore., contains the obituary of Raymond A. Edblom, the nineteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Edblom. The deceased is a nephew of Mrs. Andrew Ray of this city and Ole E. Erickson of Lake Lillian. He was born at Hankinson, N. Dak.

Pleasantly Surprised.

Last Saturday afternoon at the home of Henry Stephens, Miss Pernelle Stephens was tendered a surprise by the lady members of the Baptist church and a few of her immediate friends. The afternoon was spent socially in music and conversation. One of the pleasing features was a duet sang by two little girls, Cora and Stella Galiford. This was followed by the serving of delicious refreshments, the table being attractively decorated with carnations and roses. At the close of the pleasant gathering Miss Stephens was presented with a bouquet of roses and a basket containing a useful gift, each carried by the little Misses Nora and Judith Thyden, as a token of the love and esteem in which Miss Stephens is held in the church circle. The guests departed for their homes wishing the hostess many happy birthdays yet to come.

that department. Last year we paid the teacher $675, making a direct gain of $75. In addition to that, the pupils taught a model school, relieving the pressure in the overcrowded grades in the Central building; in fact, that department has for two years saved us the expense of an additional teacher, to say nothing of the saving to the parents who could keep their children at home while giving them the first year of a Normal course. Every member of the first class graduated from that course went out as first grade teachers last fall and got long terms at good pay, while otherwise they would have had to compete with the large number of second grade teachers for the shorter terms at less pay.

The school board, like other mortals, is liable to make mistakes occasionally. We did make one a few years ago when, in our anxiety to reduce taxes, we cut the special tax levy so low that we had nothing left for permanent improvements that have been forced upon us, hence we have to close this year with a deficit, which, however, will be practically covered by the state aid for the agricultural school. It was a mistake made with the best intentions, but it left us in an embarrassing position. The permanent improvement work for the coming year will be much smaller, and therefore, if the board be given time, it will probably be able to catch up without a heavy increase in taxation.

I have stated that the special tax levy for the year just past was the same as for the preceding year. It appears, however, that the total tax levy in mills is higher for this year than last, there having been a reduction in valuation of nearly $300,000. It appears also, that from 1905 to 1908 the state collected more than the necessary fund for the interest, and in 1909 and 1910 it collected less than required, using the surplus from preceding years. This year they again levied $24 more than required to pay the interest. As the levy for 1910 for that purpose was too low and the levy for 1911 too high, it makes an actual difference of $2,077.76, while there should have been no actual difference. In the end it will be the same, but coming when the state and city taxes were raised, and the valuation lowered, it made it hard for those who were properly assessed—perhaps over-assessed in proportion to others. It is something, however, for which the school board is not responsible.

Hoping the citizens of Willmar will dispassionately consider these matters, and stand by the board in its efforts to make our schools something we can be proud of, I remain,
Very truly yours,
A. O. FORSBERG.

Talked About by Everybody.

One of the largest and most talked of sales ever held at Willmar or in Kandiyohi County is now going on at Gilbert O. Sand Co.'s store. Last Saturday was the opening day, and preparations for this great sale had been made to receive a large number of eager buyers had come to the Sand store last Saturday the entire force of over twenty clerks and the management found themselves almost overpowered. At times there was hardly standing room, and it was with difficulty that the people could be waited upon. Mr. Sternberg, representing the R. Sternberg Sales System, tells us the opening days of the sale exceeded by hundreds of dollars their expectations. There will be greater values offered than ever before, as all summer goods must go and the cost of merchandise is absolutely not considered, as it means new goods at this store every season. In order to be waited upon more promptly make it a point to be there early in the morning, owing to the large crowds in the afternoon. For unmatchable prices see their advertisement on last page.

Prof. Swalin Surprised.

On Sunday, July 7th, Prof. Swalin of Willmar was made the object of a pleasant surprise at his old home near Solomon Lake. A number of his friends wished to show their appreciation of the many favors he has shown them from time to time. Prof. Swalin has always shown himself willing to assist when musical programs have been called for. A speech was made, after which a handsome sum of money was presented the Professor. Prof. Swalin in a few well chosen words expressed his appreciation of the gift. After dinner Prof. Swalin rendered some selections on his violin, which were greatly enjoyed by all. Various games were played and refreshments were served through the afternoon. All present, both young and old, enjoyed a good time.

Willmar Slaughters Belgrade.

Last Sunday afternoon the Belgrade baseball team journeyed to our city, confident of again defeating Willmar, and that night they returned to their home town literally slaughtered to the extent of 14-2. In this game the Willmar sluggers probably reached the pinnacle of their hitting career, forcing Belgrade to change pitchers three times and driving out 14 hits, including several extra base drivers.

The feature of the game was easily the batting of the locals and the batting stars of the day were just as easily the Johnsons of Willmar, "Melly," "Bob," and "Bill," who drove out 10 of Willmar's 14 softies between them, and made but one error together. A circus catch by Goodrich in left was the fielding feature of the game.

The locals started right off the bat to hammer the visiting pitchers. In the first inning Bill Johnson tripled, Bob singled and Melly doubled in quick succession. Then Carlson was hit, Lamb singled and another man was hit, thus netting 5 runs and finishing the first pitcher; without a man being out. The next pitcher to face our athletes did better and was only scored on now and then until the eighth inning, when the locals again got busy and gathered 5 runs more, thus driving another of Belgrade's "star" pitchers to the woods. At this juncture the slabsman who started the game for the visitors again took up the pitching burden and lasted the remaining inning simply because the Willmar boys were tired of running bases.

This game clearly demonstrates that we have a good team to represent Willmar which, with proper backing and support, ought to win almost every game. The boys believe their luck has changed now and all who care anything about baseball should come out and encourage them in this belief.

Willmar Slaughters Belgrade.

Last Sunday afternoon the Belgrade baseball team journeyed to our city, confident of again defeating Willmar, and that night they returned to their home town literally slaughtered to the extent of 14-2. In this game the Willmar sluggers probably reached the pinnacle of their hitting career, forcing Belgrade to change pitchers three times and driving out 14 hits, including several extra base drivers.

The feature of the game was easily the batting of the locals and the batting stars of the day were just as easily the Johnsons of Willmar, "Melly," "Bob," and "Bill," who drove out 10 of Willmar's 14 softies between them, and made but one error together. A circus catch by Goodrich in left was the fielding feature of the game.

The locals started right off the bat to hammer the visiting pitchers. In the first inning Bill Johnson tripled, Bob singled and Melly doubled in quick succession. Then Carlson was hit, Lamb singled and another man was hit, thus netting 5 runs and finishing the first pitcher; without a man being out. The next pitcher to face our athletes did better and was only scored on now and then until the eighth inning, when the locals again got busy and gathered 5 runs more, thus driving another of Belgrade's "star" pitchers to the woods. At this juncture the slabsman who started the game for the visitors again took up the pitching burden and lasted the remaining inning simply because the Willmar boys were tired of running bases.

This game clearly demonstrates that we have a good team to represent Willmar which, with proper backing and support, ought to win almost every game. The boys believe their luck has changed now and all who care anything about baseball should come out and encourage them in this belief.

We hereby extend our most heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and relatives who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.
