BINDING TWINE SCARCITY LIKELY IN THIS COUNTY

All Local Dealers Are Short With Little Prospects of Immediate Relief.

The binding twine scarcity situation may become quite acute in Kandiyohi County, although the situation is not as bad as in many places in the Northwest. A canvass of the Willmar dealers resulted in ascertaining the fact that they could sell from twelve to fifteen thousand pounds more binding twine for the grain harvest than they can get. An international man at Willmar today said he could sell five carloads of twine between the cities and Benson at once if he could supply them.

The situation is that the farmers have depended upon an inexhaustible supply and have not purchased their supplies in time so the dealer could gauge the demand. The sale of prison twine is also a discouragement to the dealers from putting in big stocks of twine. The wheat crop is estimated to require from one-fifth to two-fifths more twine than in ordinary years and a number of farmers will run short with the supply they have already put in. It is to meet this late demand where our dealers figure their shortage. It is thought that there will be no difficulty in securing ample twine supply in time for the corn harvest.

One dealer suggested that some farmers have purchased more than they need for the grain harvest, and might be willing to help the situation by dividing with their less fortunate neighbors.

Prof. Stomberg Was Here.

Prof. A. A. Stomberg of the Swedish department of the State University paid a visit at Willmar last Friday and drove out to Svea in the afternoon. He was delighted with the action of the school meeting at Willmar in deciding to take up Scandinavian languages in the public schools this year. As far as the language being recognized in the State University is concerned, he stated that it is now recognized for all practical purposes. There are only two or three departments, the medical and engineering, where standings in Scandinavian are not advertised to be accepted in lieu of other foreign languages. In practice, however, such standings would be accepted in both these departments. The text book question has been receiving attention and there will be no difficulty after this in securing suitable textbooks for the public schools.

Pastor Is Surprised.

Last Saturday evening Rev. Theo. Livingstone of the Swedish M. E. church was made the object of a very pleasant surprise at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Johnson at 625 Sixth St. The members of his church and a number of other friends gathered to show their appreciation of the good work that he has done in the church. Rev. Livingstone was presented with a sum of money. The evening was spent socially. Refreshments were served and all, old and young, enjoyed a good time.

Mr. Vik Not to Blame.

In a report of a collision in our last issue, the Willmar Tribune stated that Elliott Vik ran his auto into N. H. Nelson who was on a bicycle. We learn later that Mr. Vik was not to blame, and Mr. Nelson so admits. The latter was coming from the hospital where his being hurt had just been taken after being hurt, and was not keeping a very close lookout.

Will Auction Privileges.

The grounds committee of the County Fair consisting of W. O. Johnson, L. A. Tjosvold and Ed. Benson will lay out a plan of the grounds shortly and will dispose of all locations for privileges on the grounds to the highest bidders. The date of the sale will be announced later.

County State Fair Exhibit Under Way.

Supt. John Ahlstrom of the County Exhibit at the State Fair, was in the city this week making some preliminary arrangements. He has enlisted the assistance of Peter Bonde and E. E. Lawson in the designing of the booth. Kandiyohi county has been assigned the same booth that it had last year in the Agricultural Building of the State Fair.

OBITUARY

PETER LINDQUIST.

Peter Lindquist, whose death was briefly mentioned in our last issue, was born in Sifferbo, Gagnef parish, Dalarna, Sweden, January 19, 1851. He spent his youth in Dalarna, receiving the common school education. He arrived in America in June of 1868. He located in Lemont, Ill., but in the following year he went into the great northwest and selected a homestead in section twenty-four of what is now the township of Roseland. His was the first homestead to be filed on within the limits of the present Roseland township. His brother, Olof Lindquist, filed on a neighboring tract in the fall of the same year. Since his arrival the deceased has taken an active interest in the development of the community, and has seen it grow from a wild prairie to a progressive community. Where formerly his little claim shanty stood there now stands a large comfortable residence and several barns and store houses of ample size. During the first winters, bodies of friendly Indians would camp on the island in the lake nearby, and around the low spots where were ponds of water were found large quantities of the bones of the American bison, which formerly ranged over this prairie, which in the Indian language was known as "place-which-makes-buffaloes."

Mr. Lindquist was a very methodical and painstaking man. As evidence of this are the records he has kept every year since he settled in the country of crop yields and other information. He has served his township as supervisor both in the first Whitefield organization and later in the township of Roseland, and was for many years the treasurer of the school district number 64. He was a man of a quiet and peaceful disposition and of a sound judgment. He was married in 1873 to Miss Breta Olson, also a native of Gagnef parish, Sweden, who survives him. The marriage was blessed with eight children who are: Mrs. C. E. Nelson, Mrs. Peter Strandberg, Mrs. Henry Bjelkengren of Svea; Mrs. Oscar Olson of Winfield; Albert Lindquist of Cheney, Wash.; and Oscar, Fred and Ruth who live at home. About a year ago the deceased was taken ill with cancer of the stomach but was able to be around to within four weeks of his death, which occurred on Sunday, July 21st.

The funeral was held Thursday, July 25th, at the Christine church. All the children were present at the funeral except Albert. Among other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olson of Dassel, Minn., Revs. Alex. Peterson and A. J. Ryden spoke and the last sad rites were performed by Rev. A. J. Ryden. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes contributed by relatives and friends, and there was a great turnout of people to pay their last respects to their esteemed neighbor whom they had known so well as one of the fathers of the prosperous settlement. The pall bearers were Messrs. Ole Olson, John Erickson, P. S. J. Johnson, H. P. Olson, John Erickson and M. Walner. The remains were laid away for their long rest in the adjoining churchyard.

"Vil dem, som redligt det ädla velat, det rättas sökt och det milda tänkt."

ADOLPH NORMAN

The sad news of the death of Adolph Norman was received in this city Monday. He died at Bethesda hospital at St. Paul Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The deceased is a former Mamre boy, having grown to manhood in that town, and is well known in many places as buttermaker.

Per Johan Adolph Norman was born in Los Parish, Hälsingland, Sweden, on March 4th, 1868. When only three months old his parents moved to America. After spending one year at Taylor's Falls they came to Mamre township, where Adolph grew to manhood. Then he learned the trade of buttermaker in the Litchfield creamery and became the buttermaker in the Mamre creamery when organized. Later he took charge of the Hub creamery at George Lake, and later was in business at Spicer. Since then he has been employed in a number of creameries and last he was employed at Finlayson, Minn. About a month ago he was taken with internal hemorrhages. He was taken to the hospital at St. Paul about a week before his death and seemed to be improving nicely. His wife had come down to spend last Sunday with him and at that time had no idea that the end was so near. The deceased was married to Miss Albertina Norman, daughter of Rev. Noren of Benson, who with the two children, Chester and Ruby, fifteen and twelve years old, are left to mourn a devoted husband and kind father. The deceased also leaves his mother, now Mrs. Anders Ryden of this city; and three sisters, Hannah, now Mrs. Fred Engstrom, and Clara, now Mrs. Chas.

A Parcel Shower.

Miss Thora Peterson, a bride of next month, was the honored guest at a variety parcel shower given at her home at 1021 Campbell Avenue Monday evening. The rooms were decorated for the occasion with garden flowers and little red hearts. Various games, music and a delicious luncheon contributed to the pleasure of the evening. The guests numbered about thirty.

Social at Homewood Park.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church will have a meeting at Homewood park, Thursday, Aug. 8th, and the following lunch will be served from 4:30 o'clock until dark. Sandwiches, cake, pickles and coffee, 10c., ice cream and cake, 10c and comes, 5c. Free rides will be given to and from the park to all who desire refreshments.

A Large Wedding.

A large double wedding takes place at the home of County Commissioner C. J. Swenson in Kandiyohi township this afternoon to which about 400 guests have been invited. His daughter, Miss Amy, becomes the bride of Carl A. Adolfsen and the daughter, Miss Ida Marie Josephine, will be married to Hans Edward Nelson. We expect to have a full account of this interesting social event in our next issue.

A Kimball Tour.

Last Sunday a tour of thirteen autos from Kimball, Minn., made a trip thru Willmar, making a brief stop here. The editor of the Kimball Kodak, Frank E. Smith, is a former Willmar resident and later editor of the Raymond News. He was piloting his home people thru the city.

John Ahlstrom has the thanks of the editor for a mess of fine strawberries, samples from his ever-blossoming variety, which attracted so much attention at the State Fair. The plants are now beginning to bear in earnest and will continue until frost prevents.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mullen last Friday morning, July 26.

Personal and Otherwise

Verner Nyberg of Ironwood, Mich., is a guest of Hugo and Hildur Hoglund.

George Piereth of Two Harbors was a guest at the Olof Berkness home over Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Green returned home the latter part of the week, from her visit with relatives at Belgrade and Alexandria.

Miss Helen Hornbeck of Superior, Wis., went to Green Lake yesterday to be a guest of Miss Marion Gratz at Crescent Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McNeess and daughter, Blanche, and son, Junior, left this morning for a visit with relatives at La Valle, Wis.

Mrs. Herbert Feig and little son returned to their home at Tower, N. D., today, after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Feig.

A number of Willmar people were guests at the dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Tallman at their summer home at Crescent Beach last Friday evening.

Mrs. Alvin Campbell entertained several young ladies at her home on 7th St. last Saturday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Sylvia Thorgrimson of St. Paul.

Hopeful Rebekah Lodge No. 146 held a special meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall last evening, when the officers for the ensuing year were installed. After the business session a dainty luncheon was served and a good time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bjornberg entertained a large company of relatives and friends at their home in Fabun last Sunday. The guests from Willmar were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bjornsell, Mr. and Mrs. William Bjornberg, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bjornberg and Miss Minnie Eckvold of St. Paul.

Granlund, both of Spring Park, Minn., Anna, now Mrs. Fred Anderson, residing on the old home farm in Mamre; and one brother, August Norman, manager of the co-operative store at Svea. The bereaved ones have the deepest sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

The remains were taken from St. Paul to Mamre yesterday (Tuesday) by his brother, August Norman. The funeral will occur tomorrow (Thursday). The funeral party will leave the old home at two o'clock and are expected to arrive at the Mamre church at three o'clock, where Rev. G. Peterson will officiate. The interment will take place in the nearby churchyard.

THE SIMON DYKEMA RESIDENCE BURNS DOWN

Roseland Township Scene of Hot Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

The old pioneer house on the Mrs. Greitje Dykema place in section 6, town of Roseland, burned to the ground yesterday afternoon, together with a good share of its contents. The fire is supposed to have caught from a stove as the family washing had been done there during the day. The fire was discovered at about two o'clock, the whole house being ablaze, and the alarm was sent thru the country by telephone, nearly the whole settlement arriving on the scene of the fire. The wind which was erected last year, but this was saved by the efforts of those present. Since the new house was occupied the old house has been used for storing purposes and contained a quantity of corn and other supplies. The damage to the house is estimated by Mr. Joseph Feifarek at $700. It was insured in the Willmar Farmers' Mutual.

Creamery Manager Skips.

When the patrons of the West Lake Lillian creamery came with their cream last Wednesday morning they found the creamery locked and no buttermaker to receive their cream. Coming again on Friday the same condition existed. It was learned that Soren Hansen had taken French leave and in a letter to one of the patrons stated that he was going north to some friends to get funds to settle up with. He owes the patrons of the creamery for June and July business as well as some for May. Checks issued to the patrons drawn on the Bird Island State Bank were not paid for want of funds.

Benefit Performance.

Manager Crosby of the Willmar Opera House has donated the proceeds of the performance to be given at the Dreamland Theater next Friday night for the benefit of Grover Krumstick, the fireman whose serious injury we mentioned last week. The performance is under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Elks lodges. Besides the pictures put on by Mr. Crosby there will be vaudeville and a number of extra numbers. It is hoped that as many as possible will turn out to help the worthy cause. The admission will be 25 cents. We understand that no less than 700 tickets have been sold at this writing and it is hoped that this may be greatly increased.

Notice.

Mr. Foster would like to meet at his office, on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, as many as possible of the Seventh and Eighth Grade students who were conditioned in any of their subjects, and who desire to remove such condition before the opening of school.

Benson Motorists Here.

The sociability tour of the Benson Auto Club arrived at Willmar last Friday morning at a little after nine o'clock. There were 43 cars from Benson, including some from DeGraff, Murdock and Kerkhoven. The tour was met by members of the local motor club at the brick yard, where a halt was made in order that the autos could enter the city in a continuous line. The local motor club had also arranged for refreshments on the court house grounds. A neat stand had been erected, decorated with flowers and shaded by an immense United States flag tied between two trees in the yard. The tables were nicely decorated with flowers and lemonade was served to all participants in the tour, which numbered no less than 200. The pilot car was driven by Frank Thomson, the president of the club. While at Willmar the sad news was received of the illness of editor Woodburn of Benson and Mr. O. Soland dropped out of the tour and returned to Benson on that account. After a few minutes stop the tour started on its way to Olivia. They were joined at Willmar by Dr. H. F. Porter, who was accompanied by his brother, Dr. Leslie Porter of Atwater; and Dr. E. H. Frost, who was accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ackerman and Harrison and Winnifred Sherwood. They made the entire balance of the trip and had a very interesting time. From Olivia they ran to New Ulm and from New Ulm up the Minnesota river to Granite Falls and Montevideo, returning by way of Benson Sunday morning. The visitors were pleased with their reception at Willmar. Photographer Simons managed to get a good picture of the line-up of autos on Litchfield Avenue, including the refreshment stand. A very handsome 40 page booklet with cover was distributed by the touring autoists.

Benson Editor is Dead.

This issue of the Times is completed after its editor, T. W. Woodburn, who began the preparation for it, had passed away, so sudden was his death. For several months last summer and fall he gradually ran down in health and strength and during the winter and early in the spring was confined to his bed and room. He recovered very slowly and shortly after leaving the paper last May he went on a visit to his sisters in Monmouth, Ill., and when he returned after the Fourth was believed to be better. But ten days ago he had another relapse and at the time of his death, which occurred Friday afternoon, he had been confined to the house again for a week. For a couple of days before that he was believed to be gaining again, but when he awoke Friday morning he was found to be failing rapidly, passed into unconsciousness shortly before noon and the end came about a quarter after three o'clock. The funeral services were held from the house at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by the Rev. A. Coffin of the Episcopal church.

T. Wylie Woodburn was born in Bloomington, Ind., the son of James A. and Martha Woodburn, his father being one of the professors of the state university. A couple of years after his death, which occurred when Wylie was yet a mere boy, he began to learn the printer's trade, which he followed all his life. During that time he was for two years one of the publishers of the Swift County Advocate, printed here in Benson; for four years editor of the Atwater Press, and for a while one of the proprietors of a paper in Shoals, Ind., before coming here eleven years ago, since when he has been foreman of the Times until he leased it three months ago. He was the possessor of an unusual mind and memory for facts and figures and especially things political. He was honest and his word good. He was married to Ella Lovell in Fond du Lac, Wis., 25 years ago, whom he leaves to mourn his loss, together with three sisters and a brother; Mrs. W. A. Foland of this city, Mrs. J. H. McMillan and Mrs. Chas. Torrance, of Monmouth, Ill., and Prof. J. A. Woodburn, of Bloomington, Ind. Peace to his ashes.—Benson Times.

Visitors From North Dakota.

Editor H. S. Reariak of Cooperstown, N. D., and his brother-in-law, A. O. Lee of Genessee, made a call on Willmar friends yesterday forenoon. Mr. Reariak was a former resident of the town of Irving. His father, Rueben Reariak, is also down visiting old time friends in the county. Mr. H. S. Reariak was for a number of years editor of the Grove City Times and is now editing a paper at Cooperstown, the Griggs County Sentinel. He is also a candidate for county auditor of his county, and his Kandiyohi county friends hope that he will be successful in landing the place. Mrs. Reariak is a daughter of Andrew Lee of Genessee and they are sojourning for a few days at her parental home.

SIXTH PARTY IN MINNESOTA IS ORGANIZED

Roosevelt Supporters Meet at St. Paul and Name Presidential Electors and Delegates to National Convention.

The state convention of Roosevelt men to organize a third party in Minnesota was held yesterday with an attendance of about 500. The number coming in from the country was disappointing to the promoters. Eight of the twelve electors named are those nominated for electors for the republican state convention May 16, they having resigned from the Taft ticket. Judge M. D. Purdy was the chairman of the convention and made the keynote speech in which he denounced both the old parties and closed with an eloquent peroration in which the patron saint of the new movement, Theodore Roosevelt, was lauded to the sky. One encouraging feature for the Rooseveltites was the conditional pledge of James Peterson, candidate for United States senator, for support to the new movement. This support will hinge on the nature of the convention at Chicago and the platform it adopts. None of the LaFollette leaders and supporters of the state went near the convention. The following are the electors and delegates selected:

ELECTORS.

At large, J. W. Wright, Litchfield; Emil G. Holm, New Ulm; Ole Canestorp, Elbow Lake.

By districts: E. H. Smith, Austin; L. C. Churchill, Windom; W. B. Douglas, St. Paul; W. T. Coe, Minneapolis; E. E. McCrea, Alexandria; A. V. Rieke, Fairfax; W. T. Magie, Duluth; W. A. Marion, Crookston; C. A. Rohrer, Henderson.

DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.

At large, Hugh T. Halbert, St. Paul; P. V. Collins, Minneapolis; C. W. Gilmore, Pipestone.

Alternates: James F. Spencer, Rochester; M. S. Norelius, Lindstrom; W. L. Dickey, Wazata.

First district, Henry W. Libby, Winona; alternate, T. H. Kelly, Owatonna.

Second district, George W. Patterson, Worthington; alternate, Paul F. Dehnal, Worthington.

Third district, J. C. Applegate, Cannon Falls; alternate, O. J. Parker, LeSueur.

Fourth district, Albert O. Stark, Harris; alternate, Charles Villaume, St. Paul.

Fifth district, Milton D. Purdy, Minneapolis; alternate, Dr. J. Warren Little, Minneapolis.

Sixth district, T. J. Sharkey, Staples; alternate, A. M. Welles, Sank Center.

Seventh district, P. G. Jacobson, Madison; alternate E. F. Sell, Fairfax.

Eighth district, James Saari, Duluth; alternate, Charles Moose, Cromwell.

Ninth district, F. L. Farley, Red Lake Falls; alternate, N. S. Hegness, Argyle.

The new movement does not intend to bolt the Republican state ticket, if its candidates are favorable to the progressive party. Just how this will work out will be interesting to see. The test of "progressiveness" is going to be applied by the "bull-mooseers" to all candidates on the Republican ticket. Party regularity will be thrown to the winds.

Foiled the "Cheap Guys."

Crookston, Minn., July 30—Jimmie Ward, the aviator, who grew to manhood in Crookston, refused to fly here Sunday when a crowd of 5,000 gathered outside the fair grounds fence for a cheap peek at him, while the total admission paid was only $62. After his manager delivered a red-hot roast to the crowd, the $62 was refunded and "Jimmie" headed for Regina. He made a beautiful flight Saturday, remaining up in the air 25 minutes.

No doubt many of the five thousand strongly "disapproved" of the idea of a flight on Sunday. They were perhaps related to those whose "conscience" would not permit them to go to a circus but who greatly enjoy the street parade and free acts outside of the tent.

Attends Funeral at Yankton.

Mrs. J. A. English went to South Dakota last week to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Butler of Vermillion that state, who died Wednesday of last week in a sanatorium at Hudson, Wis. The funeral took place at Yankton last Friday, Mrs. English returning home Saturday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marguerite Stockwell.

Social at Eagle Lake.

An ice cream social will take place at H. J. Berg's place at Eagle Lake tomorrow (Thursday) evening, for the benefit of the Long Lake church. All invited.

Mrs. A. Palm returned home from Diamond Bluff, Iowa, Friday.

Mrs. A. Palm returned home from Diamond Bluff, Iowa, Friday.
