WILLMAR, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1912.

James A. Peterson, progressive candidate for U. S. senator from Minnesota, last week addressed a telegram to Hon. Knute Nelson, asking him if he intended to file for reelection. This for the reason that Peterson wished to know whether Nelson's record would be an issue or not in the campaign.

At the Democratic State Convention of Iowa, it was asserted that Woodrow Wilson is a county optionist, much to the consternation of some of the members of the party.

To Bury the Gold.

A press dispatch relates the following interesting item: Washington, July 27.—A steel-reinforced, indestructible, five-story vault, sunk in the earth beneath the United States assay office in New York and capable of holding $2,000,000,000 in gold, is planned by Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department.

Lynn Haines, of Minnesota fame, is now at Washington where he has been engaged at probing the record of the thirty U. S. senators whose terms expire next spring. His new book is called "The Senate From 1907 to 1912," and gives the principal public acts of all these senators whose records will be an issue in the coming campaign.

West Lake, July 29.—Mr. Erick Paulson of New London is looking after his farming interests near West Lake this week.

WEST LAKE NEWS

Rev. D. C. Jordahl conducted religious services at the East Norway Lake church last Sunday. The Young People's society held a coffee social after the meeting.

James Manahan, the gallant fighter for the public interests in the railroad rate cases, will be a candidate for Congressman-at-large. He will no doubt draw a heavy vote from the progressive element.

Miss Eliza Rood visited with Mrs. W. L. Aasen Sunday afternoon. Mrs. M. H. Aasen went to Kerkhoven Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Hon. Peter M. Ringdal, head of the State Board of Control, railroad commissioner under Gov. Lind and all-around progressive, has filed for the democratic nomination for governor but will make no campaign for the nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Orred were Paynesville visitors Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Quam and children visited at the John Thorvig home over Sunday.

Fine Lutheran Church.

One of the finest modern church buildings in Kandiyohi county is being erected by the German-Lutheran St. Johns congregation in Raymond village. Contractor John Skoolheim of Willmar is doing fine work and expects to have the church completed by the middle of September.

Bemidji taxes have been boosted $80,000 over last year. The business men are very indignant and threaten to quit business unless their valuation is cut down.

Miss Bertha Johnson visited with Mrs. L. O. Netland last week. Farmers in this vicinity started cutting oats last week. Alfred Sampson is working for Mrs. Ole Stene at present.

Minnehaha Academy.

The Veckobladet published yesterday contains a cut from the architect's drawing of the Minnehaha Academy, the new college to be built by the Mission Covenant near Minnehaha Falls at Minneapolis.

Prof. P. M. Magnuson may become a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. He would make an ideal candidate for a progressive ticket, and would make a good showing against Eberhart.

John E. Anderson and Miss Julia S. Fodness were united in marriage last Saturday evening at the First Methodist parsonage. The young people will be at home on 5th street this city.

If your boy gets drunk in a saloon, will it make any difference to your feelings if that saloon is owned

G. P. Karward and R. W. Stanford spent Saturday at Henderson lake and returned with strings of about 60 fish.

PLANNING FOR THE BIG FAIR

Sept. 18-21 to See Greatest Event Yet Put On Within Kandiyohi County.

TAKE NOTICE, EVERY BOOSTER

Chance for Everybody to Help Make the County Fair One of Surpassing Credit to the Community.

The Board of Managers of the Kandiyohi County Fair Association held an important meeting at the Commercial Club rooms last Saturday afternoon. A premium list was gone over and approved, and the total of the same will be not far from $1,500.

A new departure this year will be an extensive live stock department. The horse department will be under the management of Peter M. Burns of Kandiyohi, one of the board of directors. Prizes will be given for draft horses and driving horses. One feature will be an exhibit of gentlemen's drivers. It is expected that this will take place on some street near the fair grounds. One of the points on which the drivers are to be judged will be the speed.

The cattle will be under the supervision of C. L. McNelly. Prizes are offered for various breeds of beef animals and also for dairy cattle. The swine and sheep department will be under the direction of John Swenson of St. Johns. Liberal prizes have also been fixed for this department. The poultry department will be under the direction of the Kandiyohi County Poultry Association. The horticultural department will be in charge of G. J. Bjornberg, who was elected superintendent in place of C. C. Selvig, who could not serve. Peter Bonde was elected superintendent of the flower show and will assist Mr. Bjornberg in his department. Mrs. James Sanderson will again have charge of the domestic department and Mrs. M. T. Sandbo of the fancy work department.

Another new feature this year will be the industrial competition between all the schools in the county. $100 in prizes will be given. It was also decided to appropriate $25 for prizes for the best township exhibit. It is hoped that it will be possible to interest the different townships to make a showing of their resources at the county fair.

The entertainment part is not being neglected. There will be an abundance of band music, some first class vaudeville performances, fire works, etc. An attempt will be made to secure some celebrity to make an address each day of the fair.

Wednesday, Sept. 18, will be the day on which the exhibits will be received. On Thursday will be horse and cattle day. In the morning the cattle parade and judging will take place. In the afternoon the horse judging will take place. Saturday will likely be designated as industrial day, when all the industrial exhibits of the schools will be made a special feature.

The people of Kandiyohi County should now all rally to the support of the board of managers to help make the first annual county fair the success that the progress made in this county during the recent years will justify. Let everybody boost the project, talk in favor of it, and do everything they can to push it along. Let no croaker or knocker attack this project without silencing him. We all take great pride in our county and its resources and the county fair is the place to show the faith that is in us. Therefore, boost, boost, boost! Anyone in the county may become a member of the county agricultural society for this year by payment of a fee of $3.00. This will give him an annual season ticket which will admit himself and wife, or any two members of his family at any time. Every member of the board of managers can issue these tickets. The best way at this time to boost the county fair project is to see your nearest member of the fair board and enroll as a member. Every progressive farmer of the county should take pride in having his name on this roll.

The following are the officials elected to have charge of the twelfth annual fair at Willmar, which will be the first under the auspices of the new Kandiyohi County Fair Association: V. E. Lawson, president; E. C. Wellin, vice president; Wm. O. Johnson, secretary; O. B. Berkness, treasurer. The following are the Board of Managers:

John Ahlstrom, Spicer; Ed. Benson, Willmar; Selmer Berg, Willmar; Peter Bonde, Willmar; P. M. Burns, Kandiyohi; Henry Eddy, Willmar; Rt. 3 Howard Frye, Willmar; Rt. 5 P. J. Haley, Willmar; Rt. 3 John E. Johnson, Svea; Rt. 1 C. L. McNelly, Willmar; Albert Noring, Svea; John Swenson, Willmar; Rt. 4 L. A. Tjosvold, Willmar.

The Young People's society of Eagle Lake will give an ice cream social at the home of Andrew Berg next Saturday evening, Aug. 3. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Mikado is Dead.

Tokio, July 30.—Mutsuhito, emperor of Japan, died today at 12:43 a. m. Acute nephritis was given as the cause of death. The Crown Prince Yoshihito has succeeded to the throne. Mutsuhito was born Nov. 3, 1852, and succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, Feb. 3, 1867. The streets of Tokio continued thronged from the moment that the first bulletin of the ruler's critical situation appeared. The mikado is a semi-sacred personage in Japan and though the old belief that he is something more than human is gradually disappearing, the older Japanese still adhere to it, and it has much hold even on the younger generation. The occasion had thus a spirit of solemnity such as would be impossible in a western country during the last hours of a sovereign, however much beloved. Voices were hushed, street sounds silenced, tears were shed and a general atmosphere of sadness and tragedy filled the ordinary cheerful, bustling city. When the bulletin was finally posted informing them that their monarch was no more, the watchers turned sighing away, and, on their queerly clicking clods, clamored sadly to their homes.

COLFAX COLLECTION

Colfax, July 29.—Mr. Claus Naas has returned home from a visit with his brothers in North Dakota. Mr. Edward Larson will leave for Belgrade, where he has accepted a position as rural mail carrier. INSPECT THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Public Improvement Committee Makes Their July Inspection of Residence Property.

The public improvement committee of the Willmar Commercial Club made their second tour of inspection of residence properties in the city last Monday morning. The committee consists of Dr. J. M. Rains, Joseph O. Estrem, C. B. Carlson and V. E. Lawson.

The first inspection for the year was made in June and there has been a marked improvement in the appearance of the streets and boulevards as well as the residence premises in general since that time. It is an inspiration to make such a trip and see what pains people are taking to beautify their property and at the same time benefit the appearance of the city. The prize money given by the Commercial Club this year will be divided by wards.

In First Ward there are eighteen different places which are being scored by the committee. There are a good many others, however, that are worthy of credit, but owing to the fact that they lack some of the features which are scored by the committee they will not enter into the contest. For instance, one may have a very beautiful lawn, and well-kept boulevard, but might lack the trees, shrubs and flowers, and in that case, while the place might be entitled to much credit for its appearance, it could not be scored in competition with those having flowers and landscape gardening.

During the first trip in June the roses were in bloom and we think it is safe to say that never before in the history of Willmar has there been such a beautiful array of these blossoms. We recall especially a visit made on Russell Spicer's handsome grounds. There were entire hedges of the most beautiful roses and numerous specimens of all the different varieties and different colors of these flowers. On this month's trip thru First Ward the committee made a stop at the Tallman property and the gardener, Mr. N. P. Jorgenson, took us thru these beautiful premises. Mr. Tallman has a very finely kept garden and has made a good start with an orchard. The premises all thru are nicely laid out, and are well kept in spite of the fact that the Tallman family spend the summer months at their summer home at Crescent Beach. Such pains as Mr. Tallman takes to keep up these premises assist materially in enhancing the beauty of the city to all visitors. None of the premises where a gardener is employed are entered in competition for the ward prizes.

There are many other properties in First Ward that are entitled to mention. Mr. I. T. Cramer's home is very beautifully kept, being especially profuse with flowers. Mr. Christ Peterson's little place is kept up very nicely with a beautiful hedge and flowers. Mr. Peterson has taken one of the prizes in former contests and will make a close run this year. The beauty of his little place illustrates what can be accomplished even with a small lot and a very modest house.

In Second Ward the committee scored no less than twenty-three different premises all nicely kept. Second Ward has a large number of well kept lawns and beautiful boulevards. N. P. Jorgenson's corner lot with its neatly trimmed hedges and evergreens and profusion of all kinds of blooming plants, must be seen in detail to be fully appreciated. Olef Brogren and Ole Lien are sustaining the reputation their premises have made in the past. The court house yard is coming into its usual summer glory. Sheriff Bonde set out no less than three thousand plants this season. The yard is a beauty spot which receives favorable mention from all visitors.

Third Ward has fourteen contestants scattered out thru a large territory. The Borgan property up in Ferring's Addition shows a great deal of painstaking effort. Litchfield Avenue East is sustaining its reputation as a fine residence section, although the building operations involved in the erection of the fine new August Hoglund home and the rebuilding of Judge Qvale's home temporarily detracts from the same. The railroad park looks fine and reflects credit upon the gardener, Mr. Ole Gilbertson.

There are eleven different premises on the list in Fourth Ward. Fourth Ward is at a disadvantage in appearance at the present time on account of the placing of the new sewer which also made it difficult for the auto party to make its rounds. The most delightful spot in the ward from the standpoint of painstaking care of premises is the intersection of Monongalia Avenue with Third Street. The Oscar Sattergren, Jens Pederson, Anders Jonsson and Anton Sunburg properties show up very fine at the present time with well kept boulevards and profusion of flowers.

The next tour of inspection will take place some time in August.

S. Morrell of New York City is visiting at the home of his son, Henry Morrell, and also is here in interest of the New York 5 and 10 cent department store.

Miss Almada Sjoquist resumed her duties at the Ladies' Store Monday, after a two weeks' visit spent at Eagle Lake.

John Brandt of Murdock was a Willmar visitor on Thursday.

Grubworms Destroy Crops. P. R. Solberg of Lake Andrew, reports extensive damage done on his acres by the grubworm. Twelve acres of barley were completely destroyed and worms are so thick under the sod of the lawn near the house that the grass has turned white. Mr. Solberg says he has never heard of nor seen anything like it before. Hundreds of the grubs may be picked out from a few inches of sod. He invites those interested to come out and investigate this new pest. None of his neighbors are afflicted as yet.

Miss Amy Olson arrived Saturday night from St. Paul to spend her vacation visiting at the home of her cousins, the Misses Elfrstrum.
