In thirty days' test she has produced 2,929.9 pounds of milk, 131,516 pounds of fat and 164,27 pounds of butter. There were three retests in connection with these records, in which time the cow was under constant watch day and night by different supervisors. Among those who watched the cow were Professor Alfred S. Cook of the New Jersey experiment station, who saw the cow give twenty-six pounds of milk six hours after a first milking. The milk also tested 4.70 per cent butter fat. W. D. Golding of the New Jersey experiment station was in charge of the tests.

A NEW MONROE DOCTRINE SEEN IN LODGE'S RESOLUTION

Held to Be Revision of Foreign Policy—Discussion Predicted. Maintenance Will Depend Upon the Country's Naval Strength.

WHAT the Lodge resolution demanding the exclusion of any corporation controlled by a foreign government from acquisition of any territory on the American continent the possession of which might menace the safety of the United States amounts to the enunciation of a new foreign policy is just dawning upon the minds of officials in Washington.

Instead of being a new expression of the Monroe doctrine it is, and was so intended to be, the declaration of a new doctrine in the international relations of the United States.

It was learned that President Taft had opportunity to have the new policy, if adopted, bear his name and to take rank with that of the president who first promulgated to the world the Monroe doctrine. Senators, it is understood, urged the president to accept this opportunity and let the declaration embodied in the Lodge resolution go before the nation bearing his (the president's) name.

Mr. Taft decided, however, that he would leave the matter in the hands of Senator Lodge, who has for a long time been plainly moving toward the enunciation of such a "hands off" policy regarding the American continent as he has now asked the senate to endorse.

Where Resolution Differs.

The policy prescribed by the Lodge resolution differs from the Monroe doctrine in that it commits the United States henceforth to prohibit acts by foreign corporations or associations which heretofore only foreign nations have been barred from doing. The Monroe doctrine binds this government to view as an unfriendly act the acquisition by any nation outside the western hemisphere of territory in the American continent or the colonization of these continents by any nation beyond the seas.

The Lodge resolution, on the other hand, would make it an unfriendly act even for any corporation in any measure controlled by a nation foreign to the Americas to acquire any harbor or other territory so situated that the occupation of it might threaten the safety or communications of the United States.

Arising out of the possibility of the shores of Magdalena bay falling into the hands of a syndicate controlled by the Japanese government, the Lodge declaration goes much further than this specific case and is so sweeping as very materially to influence the course of events in the region of the Panama canal.

In the opinion of diplomats it will cause individual widespread discussion in Europe.

Preventive Against War.

Senator Lodge holds that his resolution, if adopted, will serve not only as a preventive measure against war, but will relieve the United States of the possibility of an embarrassing situation arising in the future. The senator is convinced that the United States should profit by the lesson of the Magdalena bay incident and save itself trouble in the future by putting out notice as to what the United States deems necessary for the preservation of its vital interests in the western hemisphere.

It is well understood, of course, and frankly admitted by senators that such a policy as the Lodge resolution involves will, like the Monroe doctrine, be a policy of the United States only so long as this government is prepared and competent to maintain it by force.

There has been talk that the Lodge resolution is aimed at Germany. As a matter of fact it is aimed at no power in Europe or Asia, according to its author. The Massachusetts senator has declared that his resolution is not to serve as a chip on the shoulder of Uncle Sam or for the purpose of interfering with the progress of any particular nation.

It is a fact, though, that Germany is the one nation which in advance of any forbidding policy such as is proposed by Senator Lodge would be most likely to foster the acquisition by her citizens of a harbor in the vicinity of the Panama canal.

German ships are now one of the principal means of transportation of goods to South and Central America, which American manufacturers must rely on.

German Shipping Interests.

It must be expected that her ships will be most frequently seen passing through the Panama canal, as she has already developed a carrying trade on both coasts of the American continent to which the opening of the canal will give fresh impetus. It is equally well recognized that the only deterrent to Germany's acquisition of a base in this hemisphere has been the Monroe doctrine ever since the remarkable expansion of her merchant marine began, and the Lodge resolution if adopted will put a further limitation on Germany's ambition.

It is not claimed by any of those who are supporting the Lodge resolution that it has any specific sanction in international law.

Great Britain, it is pointed out, has long maintained that the coast of Belgium and the Netherlands should not be held by the same government which controls the coast of France. The preponderant power of the English navy has enabled Great Britain to maintain this policy and insist upon its observance by other powers.

The proposed policy involved in the Lodge resolution, it is declared, rests upon conditions precisely similar to this one of Great Britain, and its maintenance will depend, like that of the British policy, upon the naval strength of the United States.

VIRGINIA MAY GET FLAG BACK.

New Jersey has Banner Under Which "Stonewall" Jackson Fell.

Wilbur F. Sadler, adjutant general of the New Jersey national guard, surprised Lieutenant Governor Elyson of Virginia while the latter was visiting Governor Wilson at the capitol recently by showing him a flag which Mr. Sadler believed to be that under which "Stonewall" Jackson received his mortal wound.

Mr. Elyson was so impressed that on his return to Virginia he will try to identify the flag. If he succeeds both he and General Sadler will try to have it restored to the state of Virginia at a formal ceremony to be attended by Governor Wilson and a regiment of the New Jersey national guard.

The flag is a division corps flag and was captured at Chancellorsville, Va., by a New Jersey regiment the day after Jackson was shot. It has remained in the keeping of New Jersey ever since. Mr. Elyson expects to see Captain J. P. Smith of Richmond, Va., who was with Jackson when he was shot, and will attempt through him to identify the flag.

The flag is of fine silk, made, Mr. Elyson thinks, by women of Virginia, with diagonal bars of blue traversing it. Six stars are on each bar.

SEVERE TEST FOR AIR MEN.

Exact Requirements to Secure Master's License.

The first details of the requirements to be exacted of American aviators in qualifying them for brevet or master's license being arranged by the Aero Club of America have become known. They are declared by aviation experts to be more exacting than requirements of European aviators for similar licenses.

First tests in America for the master's license will be held on the Cicero field, Chicago, Sept. 10 to 20.

Following are the requirements for the new license as tentatively decided upon: Applicant must be twenty-one years old, must make a cross country flight of fifty miles, around a point twenty-five miles away; must fly to a height of at least 2,500 feet, shut off his motor there and glide to a point not more than 100 meters (328 feet) from a previously indicated spot and must have taken a physical examination showing him to be sound.

Other tests will be held in New York Oct. 10 to 20.

FIRST CHINESE JURYMAN HERE

P. C. Chiang on His Way Around the World Investigating Courts.

P. C. Chiang, who served on the first jury ever appointed in China and which, two years ago, convicted its man and had him sentenced for a long term, is in this country on his way around the world investigating the jury system and the courts under the English and the continental codes and will make an extended stay in the United States with the same object.

He said that he believed the jury system would soon become an established part of the Chinese code and that it was gaining favor every day. He spoke of the progress of his native land and admitted that that great country it had long needed the awakening that was now undergoing.

Kerkhoven Banner News.

Henry Hough, his wife, little girl and mother, all of Arden, were all injured last Sunday afternoon in a runaway accident. The elder Mrs. Hough sustained the most serious injuries, that of having her right wrist dislocated and both bones in right arm just above the wrist broken. She also sustained a number of severe bruises about the head and face. Owing to her age and the seriousness of her injuries it was at first feared she might not be able to withstand the shock and pain but she is now reported as getting along as well as could be expected. Mr. Hough's injuries consisted of having his collar bone loosened from the shoulder blade and a number of bruises. His wife sustained a broken collar bone and numerous bruises. The little girl escaped with nothing more serious than a number of bruises.

The accident happened as they were on the way to the home of a neighbor to attend a religious service, the team being frightened by a dog. D. O. Frederickson, of Calgary, Canada, arrived here the latter part of last week for a visit with relatives. He tells us there is good crop in vicinity of Calgary this year and that business of all kinds is good.
