REV. LOU WALLACE GADE TO LEAVE PLATTSMOUTH A Pastor Who Has Won the Love, Confidence and Admiration of the Entire Community.

The people of Plattsouth will learn with regret of the forthcoming departure from our city of Rev. Lou Wallace Gade and his estimable wife. Rev. Gade came to this city two years ago from Cincinnati, Ohio, at a sacrifice in salary, believing that he could better serve the interests of his church, and during his pastorate here has added a great many adult members to the congregation of the church.

There has not been a pastor in the city for many years who has endeared himself to the citizens in general as has Rev. Gade; always pleasant to everyone he met and a friend to all he knew, and it is with regret that he leaves the city, but he believes a greater field of usefulness awaits him in his new charge at Willmar, Minnesota. Rev. Gade has a great reputation throughout the state as a pulpit orator and with his splendid personality and charm of manner will prove a tower of strength in whatever place he is placed.

Rev. Gade made the formal presentation of his resignation to the congregation at the morning services yesterday and it was universally received by the members with the greatest regret, as it will be a long time before as able a man as our departing friend can be secured. His personal work among the people here has greatly aided the church in attaining its present large membership and in maintaining the pleasant social relations between the members of the congregation.

With the business men of the city Rev. Gade was a man in whom they had the greatest confidence and a man on whom they could rely as a true friend of the city's best interests at all times.

The Journal feels a personal loss in the departure of Rev. Gade and his charming wife, as his relations with this paper have been most pleasant and we wish him success in his new field of labor in Minnesota, for which he will depart in October.—The Plattsouth Evening Journal.

What They Want.

Roosevelt hits the nail squarely on the head when he says that "Dissolution" is what the interests on Wall Street want. "Regulation" is the only thing they fear.—Breckenridge Telegram.

They see the "handwriting on the wall" and want the Roosevelt brand of regulation which will legalize the fraudulent capitalization and make it a perpetual tax on the people.

Hutchinson Bay Wins $1,000.

Thursday, when Hans M., a Hutchinson pacer, won the $1,000 2:15 pace, was the big day, the Great Northern alone carrying 111 people from here to see the big bay pull down the long green.—Hutchinson Leader.

Canning Minnesota Corn.
People who have not done so, ought to see the operation of canning sweet corn as it is now performed at Big Stone City, under the most modern sanitary methods. The factory is running from seven in the morning until midnight usually, sometimes later,—this week the plant being thoroughly illuminated by its own electric lighting system.

The capacity has been about doubled since last season. Two loads of corn can be unloaded at a time now and the new capping and soldering machine has a capacity of 120 cans a minute, with the old line in reserve, if needed. The cans this year are capped and soldered without stopping.

The husking machines are run by twenty-four people, two to a machine and their work is supplemented by that of two dozen more operatives who inspect the husked corn and take out any ears that are not up to the standard and remove any stray husks that may have been left by the machine. The corn then passes thru a stream of running water and is taken to the cutters in the third story, where it is cut from the cobs and goes to the mixers and from here to the cans. After canning the corn is cooked under steam pressure, 1,200 cans to a kettle, then cooled and packed away in the warehouse.

It is worth traveling some distance to see the factory and visitors are always courteously received.—Big Stone City Headlight.

Maynard News.

Miss Mabel R. Platen and Mr. Walter G. Lee, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Platen, southwest of town on Wednesday, Sept. 11, by Rev. Svare.

The dredge boat boss told us the other day that they dug out more than 20,000 yards of dirt during the month of August. They are about half done with big ditch north of town, No. 13.

Norman & Gerde have recently got hold of an untamed broncho and a wager was made that Ole Heen could ride it. The first fall went to the horse, time .001. The second round Ole got a half Nelson, scissors and strangle hold and refused to be jolted out of his seat staying out the time limit and winning the match.

John Mosen left on Wednesday for his home at Willmar, after a year's residence here as foreman for Contractor Bjorsell, of Willmar, during which time he had charge of the building of the Hanson store buildings, the Hazen and Thompson residences and the Presbyterian parsonage. John is a good mechanic and a nice fellow, and we hated to see him leave us.—Maynard News.

Banquet for Johnson.

Chas. S. Johnson, who has laid nearly all the cement sidewalks in this village, has been elected janitor of the Willmar group of public school buildings at a salary of $100 per month. Mr. Johnson is known as an industrious and conscientious worker and will prove highly satisfactory to the board and the schools.—Clara City Herald.

A Thousand Dollars a Minute.

The secretary of the treasury estimates that it will require $638,000,000 of tax money, to run the federal government next year. That's nearly 15 cents a week for every man, woman and child, white, black, red and Filipino. Of course, in addition taxes to cover all state, county and municipal expenses must be paid by the citizens.

The head of the family who has to settle for his whole flock can figure on about 75 cents a week being held out of his pay envelope each week by Uncle Sam.

And these taxes will not be measured by what a man's wealth is but by the size of his family and the state of the family appetite. For the federal tax is laid, through the tariff, on the things we eat and drink and wear. The baby doesn't know it, but her shoes and her petticoat are taxed and the steel in the wheels of the baby carriage have chipped in.

Added to the $638,000,000 running expense there will be $47,000,000 more for Panama canal work.

Of the $638,000,000 about $153,000,000, or about one quarter, will go to pay pensions—that is dad will have to pay about 18 cents a week for the war of long ago.

The army and navy departments will take about $282,000,000 more, or nearly a half of the whole, and father's weekly contribution to that fund will be about 35 cents.

Thus the total cost of war past, present and future, as paid in pensions and army and navy expense, is about two-thirds the cost of the whole show. The pensions, army and navy, will cost Uncle Sam about $1,200,000 per day, or $50,000 an hour, or pretty close to $1,000 a minute.

There are other things money is spent for too. The house and senate cost us about $13,000,000 a year. Unlucky figure. This isn't the money congress spends but the money it costs to pay the members and their hangers-on, including dead ducks, and $75,000 to $95,000 a year to Aldrich monetary commission.

The civic list also shows the spending of money to protect human life in the public health, marine hospital and life-saving services and in special fights against epidemic diseases. The total spent this is about $4,200,000, which, you see, is not quite 1 cent for life saving to each $1 for war. Also it is just about half as much as is spent in fees, mileage and expense by the United States courts (not including salaries). It might be fair to add to Uncle Sam's payment in the interest of public health the $2,500,000 that is used to hire meat inspectors whose duty it is to keep the beef trust from feeding us trichinae, tapeworm and tuberculosis.

In addition to all the above there will be an expense of about $260,000,000 for the postal department, which is about cancelled by postal receipts and so isn't included in the taxes—altogether making about $946,000,000 for the year.

The figures indicate that, with the taxes as they are, Uncle Sam will be about only $20,000,000 short of breaking even on the year.

Taken for all in all we are, as Uncle Joe Cannon was fond of remarking, "a darn big country, my boy."—St. Paul Daily News.

Belgrade Clippings.

Miss Bessie Skimland will again this year teach at Lakeville, Minn. Grandmother Hulberg of Willmar is visiting with the A. J. Lindquist family.

The lightning hit the home of A. N. Moen about midnight Sept. 3rd in North Fork Twp. The chimney and roof was somewhat damaged.

The Lars Hanson farm consisting of 240 acres was purchased by Mickelson Bros. & Glesne this week. The price was $22.75 per acre.

Mrs. Elias Johnson and daughters Mildred and Mabel of Denhoff, N. D., on their return home from the State Fair stopped off here last week for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.—Belgrade Tribune.

Depot Agent Loses Property.

Leo Schulte, brother to Geo. Schulte and at one time living here, had the misfortune of losing all his personal property by fire a week ago Sunday at Watson, this county, where Mr. Schulte is employed as station agent. The fire resulted from an explosion of a gasoline stove and although aid was quickly summoned the building and contents were soon destroyed by the flames. Besides the loss of all his household goods, Mr. Schulte lost $150 in cash which belonged to the railroad company. He was out in the country when the fire occurred.—Clara City Herald.

A Fine Herd.

F. L. Stone received this week four head of full blood and registered Holstein-Friesian cows. All of these cows took ribbons at the State Fair last week and two of them at the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines. Mr. Stone has now twenty-two head of Holstein-Friesian cows on his dairy farm in this city, all of them being full blood and registered. He is rendering this section of the state an invaluable service in bringing about a great improvement in the breed of dairy cows.—Benson Monitor.

Goes to Sea.

THE OUTRAGE OF THE ALDRICH PLAN

He Denounces Them for Indorsing Aldrich Monetary Plan

"In accepting the Aldrich so-called central reserve fund plan Friday, the American Bankers' association solemnly joined with Wall st. in the most daring and dangerous conspiracy against the welfare of the people of this country that has ever been cooked in the greed and avarice of high finance."

In these scathing terms, Alfred O. Crozier, financial authority and economist, denounced the action at New Orleans and called upon congress to save the people from the effect of "this evil compact."

"Shall the control of the public currency be public or private? That is the issue," he said. "The Aldrich plan offers the banks the most colossal bribe in all history. With less than $1,500,000,000 of clear assets, the combined banking institutions loan and collect interest on $14,000,000,000 of bank credits. It is a dangerously big business on a shoestring. It takes a pretty smart business man to run in debt ten times what he is worth and not go broke."

And now the Aldrich plan would take away from the government and give to the syndicate of banks as a Christmas present, $1,000,000,000 of public currency to put in their reserve so that with relatively no investment the banks can collect interest on and loan back to the people at a profit $10,000,000,000 more business credit—mere financial wind.

"I have too much faith in the intelligence of the American people to believe that they will permit this outrage. Aldrich has had his inning and the people will have their's now. Watch the opposition grow!"

"They say the Aldrich plan will stop panics. What it will do is stop depositors from being frightened by panics into withdrawing deposits and thus forcing banks to reduce profitable loans aggregating 10 times such withdrawals. The money combine wants panics if the high financiers can fix it so that panics will not hurt their banks, because their money will yield higher interest rates and buy twice as many securities and more property and labor during a panic. The people are the losers from price-depressing panics and they will lose doubly under the new scheme."

"In private hands the Aldrich central bank can be used to cause squeezes and panics by making money suddenly scarce. The plan is for banks and by banks. It can and will be defeated."—St. Paul Daily News.

Will Abolish Crew Crossing.

Another large grade of surveyors are now here laying the line for the double track to be put in on the Milwaukee road. We understand it is proposed to raise the track so as to pass over the Great Northern track.—Granite Falls Journal.

Says Kandiyohi County Land is Best

Preeciville, Sask., Sept. 6, 1912. Editor Willmar Tribune, Dear Sir:

Please change my address from White Hawk, Sask., to Preeciville, Sask.

My crop this year is heavy and looks very promising, but I can not say that prospects are good for a big crop. It will certainly be a heavy yield of very good quality if Jack Frost does not visit us before it is fully ripe, but the prospect of that is very slim, being so late in the fall as it is, and the field green and the kernels soft or in the milk yet.

I am surprised that it is not knocked out by the frost already. This is the first August out of the six I have lived here that the fields have escaped from being nipped by that northern king.

We have been having a very wet summer and fall and the last two weeks have been more than bad. Rain and thunder about every day, and bad hail storms on some places. The fields are so soft it is impossible to come into them with a binder. I have a fine field of barley all ripe, but can not touch it, at present.

Some farmers are cutting spring wheat. It is green and soft and will be shrunk and of low grade, but it is better to take it than to risk it any longer. I have no wheat. I have tried it four years, and that is enough for me. Will try some winter wheat next year.

To tell the truth of Western Canada, I believe there is only a small strip along the boundary line that is fairly safe for grain raising. The rest is under King Frost's domain, who takes a big share of the farmers' profit very nearly every year.

I will further say that a good many of the small well-to-do farmers in the east who sell their farms to go to the N. W. T. to get bigger farms make a mistake. They will regret it, unless they strike it more than ordinarily favorable. I must say, I value a small farm in Kandiyohi county more than any section of land I have seen here.

Yours respectfully,

T. L. SAUGMYHR.

Kiland's Accident.

Anton Kiland, one of the carpenters working on the new Lutheran church while nailing rafters fell thirty feet and broke the two bones in his forearm. Dr. McMahon, assisted by Dr. Branton of Willmar set the bones which were badly splintered. Kiland, who resides at Willmar will not be able to work for some time.—Raymond News.

Patrick Coleman and Casper Engh left on the way freight Monday night for Willmar, where the former stopped over until Tuesday morning when he continued his journey to the Twin Cities, where he expects to reside this winter. We understand Casper will be employed in Willmar.—Mardock Voice.

DAWSON SENTINEL URGES NEW DAILY

Wants a Thousand Men to Club Fifty Dollars Each and Publish a Paper to Give All the News.

You, who read the Philadelphia North American or the Kansas City Star, know that much of the real news the Twin City dailies dare not or will not print. Is a newspaper that respects the advertiser's and the mortgagee's order to suppress news more highly than it regards its duty to the public to publish the news, deserving of the support of the public?

There are Twin City papers that daily tantalize their readers by support of a candidate for President, to whom the readers of those papers are, almost to a man, opposed. Is the course of those papers directed by loyalty to its readers or by fear of the group of men who furnish the revenues?

The men who manage these papers are not to be blamed. In most instances they are, personally as progressive in their views as the great body of citizens. They are hired to conceal the truth—and usually they perform their task well.

But the public interests are not served. Minnesota needs an independent newspaper and it is up to its patriotic, public-spirited citizens to provide the means. The time is ripe. Are there a thousand men in Minnesota who will put up fifty dollars each to establish a free press?—Dawson Sentinel.

Atwater Clippings.

C. A. Kullberg, of Spicer, is taking the Nelson cure in bankruptcy before E. W. Campbell. He is in the ditching business. His liabilities aggregate about $32,000 and assets $20,000.—Litchfield Independent.

J. T. Hudson of Union Grove has sold his place, the old Jere Leaming place, to John Isaacson of Atwater. Mr. Hudson was to be sold, expects to move to Cass county, this state. The price, which included this year's crop, was about $65 per acre.

Among those who furnished exhibits for the Kandiyohi county booth at the state fair were the following from Atwater and vicinity: P. H. Peterson, B. F. Hovey, Elmer Peterson, Hjalmar Peterson, Andrew Pyle, M. Stoskopf, Wm. Tait, Louis Dahl, Gust and Chas. Kragenbring and Carl Honebrink.

Rev. A. G. Hultgren and family departed yesterday for Minneapolis, where they will visit with their sons before leaving for their new home in Ortonville. As yet no appointment of a successor to Rev. Hultgren for this field has been made but in the meantime the services will be conducted by Rev. Edwards of Minneapolis.—Atwater Republican-Press.

The Parcels Post.

After Jan. 1, 1913, people will be able to make use of rural mail carriers to send in out of the villages packages weighing up to 11 pounds at very reasonable rates.

The parcels post law will go into effect January 1st, 1913.

Any article is mailable if not over eleven pounds in weight nor more than seventy-two inches in length and girth combined, nor likely to injure the mails or postal equipment or employees.

Flat rate of 1 cent an ounce up to four ounces, regardless of distance. Above four ounces, rates are by the pound or fraction thereof, and vary with distance as follows:

Loebek's Report is Correct.

Hon. E. E. Loebek returned from the State Fair Saturday where he has spent several days in the interest of the prohibition party movement and also his own candidacy for the governorship. In respect to the Roosevelt affair he says that the enthusiasm for the Bull Moore was not so great as the St. Paul papers pictured it out to be. In fact in many respects it was a failure, and to one seeing the gathering personally it did not impress as of such great and spontaneous magnitude as reported.—Park Region Echo.

Raymond Wedding.

Miss Minnie Lembke, daughter of Henry Lembke, was married to Wm. Bruns, one of our prosperous business men, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Menno Bruns at 5 o'clock in the afternoon last Thursday by Rev. E. Beyer. The wedding was a very quiet affair and only some of the nearest relatives were present. The bride and groom are favorably known in this community.—Raymond News.

Notice.

The auction sale of Victor T. Peterson takes place at his farm in East Lake Lillian on Friday at 9 a. m. We have been requested to call the attention of the public to an error in the printed notices of the sale. The date which appeared in the terms of sale was made to read Nov. 1, 1912, when it should have read that time will be given until Nov. 1, 1913.

Miss Winifred Sherwood left last week for Northfield to continue her studies at the Carleton College.
