

If It's Here, It's Right

Pick a flaw, if possible, in our suits and overcoats. Turn them inside out--every little detail show the hand of the master tailor. No hurried work--no skimping--not a thing slighted. That is why they fit so perfectly.

They are cut and tailored to live long, and to keep their shape as long as they live.

We take an honest pride in our clothing, and you may be sure that we will not let you have anything that is not just right.

MAMRE MELODIES

DAHLMAN-BERGREN.

Last Wednesday a very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holman of township of Dovre, when the latter's brother, Mr. Fred E. Bergren was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Dahlman, daughter of Mrs. Christine Dahlman of Ironton, Sask., Canada.

To the tune of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal procession entered the parlor at two o'clock. Mr. Joseph Franklin presided at the organ. Rev. A. W. Franklin was the officiating clergyman. The ceremony was performed under an arch beautifully decorated with smilax and carnations.

The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of cream colored messaline silk and was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Dahlman, who wore a gray tulle and silk dress. The groom's attendant was Mr. Lars Bergstrom of Minneapolis.

After congratulations a bounteous wedding supper was served to the honorable guests, which numbered about forty. Messrs. Thor Dahlman and Amos Abrahamson acted as table ushers. The table was decorated with ferns and carnations.

The guests present from a distance were Miss Marie Eriksen of Willmar, Mr. Lars Ostlund and daughter, Mrs. Ida Bergstrom of Pennock, and Miss Dorothy Broberg of New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergren will be at home to friends near Nevels, Minn., after Dec. 1st, where Mr. Bergren owns and conducts a farm. We all join in extending congratulations and our best wishes go with them for a long, happy and prosperous union.

Miss Anna Johnson went to Kandiyohi on Friday, to be present at the wedding of her friend, Miss Tina Enblom, which took place on Saturday. Miss Johnson returned Monday noon.

Rev. F. E. Roslin from Monticello Minn., conducted services at Salem on Thursday evening and at the Lundby church on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Abrahamson attended the funeral services of old Mrs. Evenson at the Hauze church on Thursday afternoon.

Grandma Anderson of New London is now making her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Anderson of this town.

Mr. Hilding Nelson recently departed for Sitka, Alaska, from which place he is going to start a hunting expedition thru Alaska and Siberia.

Misses Edna and Hazel Lindgren visited with the O. Carlson girls Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bergren and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rodman were Sunday afternoon guests of Abrahamson's young people.

Misses Esther Krantz and Mabel Sorrenson were on the sick list a few days last week.

Miss Green returned to her home at New London on Wednesday evening, having spent a few days visiting with the Jones Johnson girls.

By rumor we understand that Ito Haldin and Aldrich Tingvall are going to jump the Mamre line for Dovre, where they are going to try their skill at farming on the new Soderholm farm. That's right, boys, go to it.

Miss Emma Gulbrandson visited F. O. Carlson's over Sunday.

Mr. Hott, Tingvall is working for J. O. Hagman.

Mrs. Christanson visited with Mrs. P. Rasmussen Thursday afternoon.

Services and Sunday school next Sunday afternoon at two and three o'clock.

Mrs. O. F. Johnson went to Willmar on Monday to see her mother, Mrs. Carrie Odell, who was quite sick.

Mr. O. P. Ecklund of Pennock, made a short call at his old farm home over one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Peterson of St. Johns entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Mamrelund church on Thursday, Nov. 7. Mr. Richard Danielson and sister, Edith, went to West Lake Sunday morning for a visit with relatives.

Mamre was unusually well represented at the Swedish Mission convention at Willmar Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Lee, county visiting nurse, visited at Raymond Saturday.

LAKE ELIZABETH LEAKINGS

LAKE ELIZABETH.

Lake Elizabeth, Nov. 11--The fine weather we have been enjoying has given the farmers time to catch up with their work pretty well.

Sam Edmund and wife of Hope Lake, visited relatives here last Sunday.

Mrs. Aug. Olson has been in the cities for two weeks visiting with a sister, who has been very sick.

Mr. Jaegerstrom, a former resident of our town, but now of Dakota, called on old acquaintances in this vicinity last week.

A very large crowd attended the Ladies' Aid society at Chas. Johnson's last Thursday.

A homecoming baby boy arrived at the home of Emil Hanson last Friday morning.

J. A. Forsberg, who has been taking treatments for his eyes at Willmar all fall, is now at home and is very much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Ekblad entertained a number of their friends and relatives last Sunday.

Frank Mattson and daughter went to the city last Thursday to consult a specialist about the latter's eyes.

Mrs. Z. Jones returned home the first part of last week from Hibbing, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Melin for several weeks.

J. P. Branton and Anton Bakke of Willmar were in this vicinity last Friday talking life insurance. They did a fine business in this community.

Quite an improvement was made in town last week. The stony south of the store has been tilled so it will keep dry and main street has been graded and made wider so there is much more room for traffic.

A few from here attended the wedding at Enblom's near Kandiyohi last Saturday afternoon.

Roy Bowman went to Willmar last Friday, where he will be employed during the winter.

Arthur Johnson has been mail carrier in route No. 7 for several weeks, while Roy Strong has been having his vacation.

M. E. Jackson is shredding corn at a lively rate these fine days.

Mrs. Axel Bjorklund is staying at the U. E. Jackson home at the present.

The great landslide for Wilson certainly was a great victory for the Democrats. We don't believe that people are very much afraid of hard times under Democratic administration or they would not have voted so strong for Wilson.

Nick Holmstrom of Atwater has been busy hauling his supply of hay from here; taking advantage of the good roads and fine weather.

We congratulate the Tribune upon the splendid section of the Agricultural Magazine. It was a really little paper full of good and splendid advice.

A number of citizens received their enlarged pictures last week which they had ordered a couple of months ago.

People who know of some news will confer a great favor upon us if they will tell it to the correspondent, but do not report any neighbors visiting each other, as we don't call that news and will not report it, but if you know of any outside people visiting in the vicinity, please report it to us. Remember the Tribune is widely circulated and goes into a number of states, as well as abroad. Our items may not always be of interest to our residents, as they probably know the news before they read it in the Tribune, but remember there are many former residents of this vicinity who have moved to other places and where we are sure the Lake Elizabeth items are read each week with interest.

Holm Hanson of Greenleaf, Meeker county, was here last week looking over the Peter Hanson farm with a view of purchasing same.

We understand that Chas. Bjorklund is thinking of selling his farm. People who are thinking of buying a farm should look over the farms for sale in this community before they pay a big price for land elsewhere. Good farms can be purchased here at $45 to $60 per acre with good improvements. We have some very good land here, but it needs to be farmed better than it has been.

The trouble is, the farms are too large and hired help scarce, and the farmers raise too much wheat, instead of raising more feed and feeding it on the place.

Andrew Norine was seen in our burgh last Monday. Mr. Norine has resigned his position at the farmers' store at Kandiyohi, and has not decided where he will make his future home.

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Carlson had the misfortune to have his leg broken a week ago. In some way he got under the wagon and a wheel went over him. Dr. Branton of Willmar was called and set the broken bones.

Miss Eva Sorenson, Normal teacher, and the Misses Florence Magnuson and Madelon Carlin, visited several of the rural schools last Wednesday.

KANDIYOHI CULLINGS

KANDIYOHI.

Kandiyohi, Nov. 11--Last Saturday afternoon at three o'clock the marriage of Miss Hilma Thulin to Mr. J. V. Holmberg was solemnized at the Ebenezer church, which was artistically decorated for the occasion. Miss Ruth Thulin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Hazel Nelson, bridesmaid. Joe Holmberg acted as best man and Gilbert Thulin as attendant. A reception was given at the bride's home to about 150 guests, where a bountiful supper and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Holmberg received some beautiful gifts. They will go to housekeeping in the Thulin flats. They have both grown up here and have many friends who join in wishing them a long and prosperous married life.

Hearty congratulations. Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Holmberg, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmberg, Mrs. Anna Nelson, Misses Hazel and Edith Nelson and Edmond Nelson of Willmar; Mr. Chas. Holmberg of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. F. Glader of Atwater, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Thulin of St. Paul.

Prof. Hauze enjoyed a visit last Tuesday from his brother, Melvin, who is a student at the Willmar Seminary.

A number from here are attending the Redy sale today.

Miss Myrtle Peterson, a student at Minnesota college, was home for a few days' visit and was a guest at the wedding.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson is at her parental home helping to care for her father, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Anderson were in attendance at the wedding of their brother, D. Downs, at Willmar last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoberg of Rockville, were here for their sister's wedding.

Miss Florence Kroona spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Amy Redy, who teaches at Watkins, Minn., is home for a few days' vacation and also took the wedding.

A medicine show has been in the village for the past week and drew large crowds every evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gustafson entertained company on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Peterson and daughter Nellie attended the Thulin-Holmberg wedding. Miss Esther Lundquist went back to St. Paul on Tuesday morning to continue her work as stenographer at Deere & Webber's.

The Ladies' Aid of the Ebenezer church had their meeting with Mrs. J. Lundquist last Tuesday. They will serve supper at the hall on Thanksgiving, commencing at five o'clock, after which they have a sale of their work. Everybody come and have a good time and help the ladies for they are working hard as they expect to raise enough money to get the bell for Christmas for their church.

Mrs. P. Burns entertained the Royal Neighbors on Tuesday.

Take Dr. G. D. Forsell's Massage Treatments for Liver and Kidney Trouble, Ulcer of Stomach and Bowels, Constipation and Rheumatism. Omnia Bona Block, Willmar, Minn.--Advertisement.

Mrs. C. O. Hedlund and her family returned to their home at Korkheven Friday, after a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Odell.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors who gave us assistance before and after the death of our beloved father and brother, for the many evidences of sympathy shown us. Especially do we wish to thank the donors of the beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Nels Anderson, Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mrs. Aug. Lundquist, Mrs. John Nelson.

ROSELLILLIAN ITEMS.

Rosellillian, Nov. 11--Hello, one and all. After a long nap, ye reporter has risen from the ashes and will again write a few items from this good old community.

Summer belongs to the past and soon threshing also. With a few more days of nice weather, all the small grain will be threshed, and the corn shredding will be well under way.

Mr. Chas. Foraman, while feeding a corn shredder last Friday, got his fingers in the blower, and now goes around with sore finger tips.

Wm. Lundquist leaves today for Jordan to seek medical treatment at the muco baths at that place.

John Bjornevik has been painting and paper hanging at Albert Rodelius' place for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson made a business trip to the county seat last Saturday.

Fishing seems to be a sport at Kanroed Lake lately.

Mrs. Richard Rudbeck is still at the Willmar hospital but the hopes are that she will soon be home again, hale and hearty.

That horses get sun stroke in November is something unusual but that was the case with a horse out here last week.

The Mrs. P. Lundquist sale last Friday brought some more around $4,500. Horses sold cheap, but the cattle brought good prices.

Aug. J. Johnson, going home from Olviva one evening last week, surely got surprised when he found himself and family and his auto in the ditch near Olviva, and had to go back to town to get help to get his car up. He blames it to the fact that the lights went out.

Wm. Renstrom is busy hauling rock, sand and lumber for the new school house in Lillian, known as the Dist. No. 106, near the new Lillian store.

The Y. P. S. of the Christiane church will meet at the home of John O. Erickson's next Friday evening, Nov. 15, and the Society extends a cordial invitation to all.

A little baby girl came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otaf Tattling last week and the Wm. Renstrom home has also been made happy by the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

OUR GREAT INTRODUCTORY SPECIAL SALE

OF PALMOLIVE SOAP and PALMOLIVE SHAMPOO

—AT—

Mossberg's Drug Store

HERE IS OUR WONDERFUL OFFER:

6 cakes of Palmolive Soap, regular price	60c
1 bottle of Palmolive Shampoo, regular price	50c
Total value	$1.10
Special for this Sale only, all for	49c

Sale Begins at 9 a. m. Saturday, Nov. 16, and Closes Saturday, Nov. 23, at 9 o'clock p. m.

We think this is the best way of bringing to your attention this new member of the Palmolive family. The best way of proving to you that PALMOLIVE SHAMPOO is just as necessary to your toilet and to every member of your family as you know Palmolive Soap is.

PALMOLIVE SOAP DOES MORE THAN SOAP

Palmolive is so new, so good, so totally different from what is generally called soap that to say it is soap seems incorrect; but Palmolive is so good, so more than soap,
