ARRANGE FINAL SEPARATION

Insurgent Minnesota Woodmen Organize New Order at a Meeting in St. Paul.

The insurgent branch of the Modern Woodmen of America began final separation from the parent society when 100 delegates, representing 25,000 Minnesota Woodmen, it is said, met at the Hotel Ryman at St. Paul, organized the Northwestern Platinmen, elected temporary officers, several of them being prominent men of the state, prepared the required petition demanding separation and chose temporary headquarters at Little Falls.

The officers elected are: D. P. O'Neill, Thier River Falls, president; W. S. Glickerson, Minneapolis, vice president; George M. Peterson, Duluth, secretary; C. L. Swenson, Albert Lea, treasurer; and John H. Sundeen, Minneapolis, field manager. The directors, one being chosen from each congressional district, are: Mc D. Williams, Dodge Center; F. F. Ellsworth, Mankato; Mr. Grover, Glencoe; J. A. Larson, St. Paul; R. E. Braden, Minneapolis; E. P. Bacon, Pillager; G. B. Bjornson, Minnesota; C. M. King, Deer River, and J. G. C. Pease, Anoka.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Explosion Occurs While Victims Are Under Wreckage.

Samuel G. Gillespie of Minneapolis and Claud Clement of North McGregor, Ia., railroad conductor, were killed when an auto in which they were returning to Minneapolis from Medicine lake turned turtle near Glenwood lake and exploded while the two men were pinned beneath it. A third passenger, Morris Olson, Mason City, Ia., also a St. Paul road conductor, escaped with minor injuries.

He crawled from beneath the machine and ran for help. Just before he returned to the scene with several other men there was a terrible explosion and the car with the human beings beneath it was a mass of flames.

DROWNINGS ON IRON RANGE

One Fatality Near Hibbing and Another at Biwabik.

Drownings, storms with damage and intense heat were experienced on the Minnesota iron range.

George Nara, a miner, twenty-two years old, was drowned near Hibbing while bathing.

Near Biwabik, Arthur Elkmann was drowned in the Whiteface river.

CITY RETAINS ICE PLANTS

Cincinnati, However, Must Make Good Any Damage.

Cincinnati, July 4.—Legal complications were added to the grave situation created by the strike of ice making employes two weeks ago when the manufacturers of ice attempted to employ Mayor Hunt and the city of Cincinnati from operating eight nonunion ice plants seized and put in operation by city officials.

As a result of the suit brought in the common pleas court the city temporarily retains the plants it seized, but will be required to give bond to make good any damage.

BROKER RELATES STRANGE STORY

David Lamar Admits Impersonating Public Men.

BEARER OF SEVERAL NAMES

Tale of Misrepresentation, Impersonation and Attempts to Influence Wall Street Financiers.

Washington, July 3.—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of the congressional investigation, was unfolded before the senate lobby committee.

A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks," and admitted the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session.

With entire abandon he told of the impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street operations and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off congressional activity in Washington.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Rioridan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs of the Democratic national committee to telephone to Chairman Hill of the Republican national committee.

Morgan Lawyer Testifies.

Lewis Cass Ledyard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ledyard came to the witness stand armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer.

As he read the record of the conversations, in themselves unusual in their tone, Lamar, sitting near by, laughed and nodded, saying: "That's right," and slapping his hands with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to obtain reinstatement for his friend, Edward Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Members of the committee demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for reappearance. Edward Lauterbach, who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the "Anti-Trust league," was also subpoenaed to appear.

Lamar declared he prepared the resolution for the Stanley investigation of the steel trust; that it was given to Martin, who gave it to Congressman Stanley.

Subsequently he said it was introduced in the house by Mr. Stanley with but a few "technical changes" from its original form.

LAMAR'S STORY CONFIRMED

Head of Anti-Trust League Before Senate Lobby Probe Committee.

Washington, July 4.—Confirmation of David Lamar's claim that it was he who drew the congressional resolution under which the Stanley committee investigated the United States Steel corporation was given to the senate lobby committee by Henry B. Martin, head of a so called "anti-trust league."

Martin's testimony, less gripping and less startling than Lamar's, when the latter blandly told of confidential relations with Wall street leaders and his impersonations of congressmen, was corroborated and supplementary to Lamar's on several points.

He testified that after Lamar drew the steel trust investigating resolution he, Martin, induced Representative Stanley to introduce it. He did not tell Stanley that Lamar was its author, but didn't try to suppress the fact.

Persistent questioning by the senators failed to make Martin divulge what the "Anti Trust league" was, or who composed it. He declined to give names of members or tell of the disposition of thousands of dollars he said it had spent.

VILLAGE BURNS; 154 PERISH

Many Peasants Lose Lives in Russian Catastrophe.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—One hundred and fifty-four peasants were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the village of Astradamovka in the district of Alatur, according to a dispatch to the Novoe Vremya.

FIVE KILLED AT CROSSING

Philadelphia, July 6.—Five persons were killed and three injured, one probably fatally, when a fast train on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad struck a wagon containing a picnic party at a crossing near Quakertown, Pa.

CAR KILLS CHILD

St. Paul, July 1.—Six-year-old Dorothy Kaiser coasted to death in a little red wagon. With her bobbed hair flying in the wind, gay ribbons on her head danced, she guided her rattling play automobile into an oncoming car. She died in thirty minutes. Her friend, Florence Olson, escaped with slight injuries. Florence is eight years old.

WILSON AT SUMMER HOME

President Will Stay Several Days at Cornish, N. H.

Cornish, N. H., July 6.—President Wilson, in search of relief from the sizzling weather at Washington, found a temperature of 90 degrees in the shade awaiting him when he arrived at the Wilson summer home here.

The president said he would do no work while here, but if there came from Washington an intimation of public business he would return to the capital immediately. Otherwise he would remain here until Wednesday.

FLAGMAN KILLED AS HE WARNS OTHERS

St. Paul, July 2.—Crying a warning to his fellow workers on a steel gang at the approach of a fast freight Henry Gierzt, sixty years old, a flagman, was struck by the Burlington passenger motor and hurled to his death near the Oakland tower. The freight was going toward St. Paul on the St. Paul road and its noise covered the approach of the motor coming from the city and around a sharp curve.

WILSON'S TRAIN KILLS MAN

Bridgeport, Conn., July 5.—The fast train on the New Haven road, carrying President Wilson to Cornish, N. H., struck and instantly killed an unidentified man near the depot.

In Colonel Martin M. Mulhall's alleged exposure of the part played by the National Association of Manufacturers in the lobby operations at Washington the confessed king pin of the "third house" speaks of James E. Watson, a Republican representative from Indiana, in a manner that may involve that gentleman in the investigation to be made by congress.

MISS WILSON TO BE BRIDE

Engagement of President's Second Daughter Announced.

Washington, July 3.—The president and Mrs. Wilson announced the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre of Lancaster, Pa. The wedding is expected to take place next November at the White House. Mr. Sayre is at present an attorney in the office of District Attorney Whitney of New York.

Miss Wilson is twenty-four years old and was educated at Goucher college, Baltimore, and specialized in political science.

GREAT REUNION AT GETTYSBURG ENDS

Veterans of Blue and Gray Return Home.

Gettysburg, July 6.—Over the Emmetsburg road, in the heat of a July sun, the veterans of the armies of Meade and Lee marched toward home, tired by four days of a reunion.

In the five provisional field hospitals maintained by the government in the great camp now about to close only a few patients are left. The hospital cars that were sent here for the transportation of the sick veterans will go away empty.

At the emergency hospital erected by the state in the town of Gettysburg the same situation is reported. Several patients who are too ill to go home were taken to a Harrisburg hospital in a hospital car.

STRIKING MINERS RIOTOUS

Many Killed and Injured at Johannesburg, South Africa.

Johannesburg, July 6.—The rioting gold miners continued their depredations here by robbing all gunshops in town. Six men were killed and seventy-five wounded.

Early in the evening the strikers attempted to hold a mass meeting in the market place. The police broke it up and that started the trouble.

The miners struck several days ago, but were quiet for a time. After the differences with the police they ran riot throughout the town. Buildings were burned and all railroad trains held.

FEARFUL LOSSES IN BALKAN WAR

Servians and Bulgarians Appear Worst Sufferers.

BELGRADE GETS BAD NEWS

Semi-Official Statements Intended to Prepare the Public for Toll of a Disaster.

London, July 7.—After ten days of fighting, more severe and deadly in character than anything in the last Balkan war, a little light begins to break upon the hitherto obscure operations. In the first place the Servians have lost more men than in the whole previous campaign and semi-official statements issued at Belgrade have the appearance of an intention to prepare the public for news of a disaster.

Desperate fighting, with fluctuating fortunes, is proceeding along the Vardar and Bregalinitza rivers, which seems to be in favor of the Bulgarians. Important news has been received of the Bulgarian invasion of Serbia through Belogradzha, about forty-five miles northeast of Nish, Serbia's most important fortified town. No indication is given of the strength of the Bulgarian column at this point, but the Bulgarians claim to have defeated the Servians and captured five guns and other war material and by the occupation of the passes to have opened the road to Nish.

Losses Appear to Be Terrible.

There is heavy fighting also between the Servians and Bulgarians to the south of Istip and in the neighborhood of Kotchana. About 200,000 men are engaged and the losses on both sides appear to be terrible.

Bulgaria's strategy appears to be to hold the Greeks in check, probably with comparatively small forces, while she deals with Serbia.

This assumption, if correct, would explain the victorious advance of the Greek army.

Saloniki dispatches continue to report Greek victories. The Greeks are said to have captured sixteen guns at Doiran. Evidence of desperate fighting is found in the arrival of 8,000 wounded at Saloniki, taxing the town's accommodations and resources to the utmost.

A conservative estimate of the killed or disabled in last week's fighting fixes the number at from 30,000 to 40,000. Thousands of destitute refugees from the scene of fighting are pouring into Saloniki.

BIG LOCKOUT IS THREATENED

Due to Jurisdictional Disputes at Chicago.

Chicago, July 3.—The building material interests threaten to lock out their 20,000 employes within ten days if before that time the building trades unions do not settle the jurisdictional strikes which resulted two weeks ago in the lockout of 30,000 men by the contractors. Construction work on improvements valued at $30,000,000 has been tied up for two weeks.

A lockout by the material interests would bring the total of men affected by the labor trouble in Chicago up to 50,000.

HENRI ROCHEFORT.

Important Figure in French Political Life Passes Away.

HENRI ROCHEFORT IS DEAD

Noted French Editor, Politician and Duellist Passes Away.

Aix Les Bains, France, July 2.—Henri Rochefort, for many years one of the most important figures in French political life, died here from a complication of maladies at the age of eighty-three.

Henri Rochefort, editor, pamphleteer, duellist and critic of everything, from art to politics, was one of the most noted characters in France for more than half a century. He had the most sparkling wit and one of the keenest intellects in all France and the fearlessness and scathing sarcasm with which he attacked every kind of sham and bung was made him a dangerous opponent in the realm of politics.

LAY CORNER STONE FOR PERRY SHAFT

Thousands of Persons Witness Imposing Ceremonies.

Put-in-Bay, O., July 5.—Sweltering in a temperature measured at 100 degrees in the shade thousands of persons witnessed the opening of the Perry centennial and the laying of the corner stone of the Perry shaft which will be erected on this island by the half dozen or more states taking part in the centennial.

Festivities of the Ohio day of the celebration concluded with a banquet given by the Ohio commission to the interstate board.

The event of the opening day was the laying of the corner stone of the $1,000,000 monument. A procession measuring more than a mile in length marched to the site and listened to addresses by Colonel Henry Waterson of Louisville and former Senator John M. Whitehead of the Wisconsin commission.

The actual corner stone laying was performed by the grand lodge of Ohio Masons.

RAILWAYS ENTER NOT GUILTY PLEAS

May Ask That Red Wing Indictments Be Quashed.

Arraignments on five indictments returned against the railroads operating in Goodhue county, charging those corporations with violation of the 2-cent passenger rate law, came before County Judge Anderson at Red Wing. Two indictments were returned against the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway company; two against the Chicago Great Western Railway company and one against the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad company.

Two warrants were served upon Red Wing agents of the St. Paul and the Great Western roads, T. A. Thayer and C. E. Wright respectively. The summons were not served upon the Northwestern road, but L. L. Brown of Winona agreed to appear for the corporation and was present.

Attorney F. M. Wilson appeared for both the St. Paul and the Great Western roads.

Both attorneys waived the reading of the indictments and to each plea of not guilty were entered, with right to withdraw the pleas on July 15 and to enter motions to quash the indictments or to demur to them, or both. These motions, to be submitted to the court on July 15, will be argued on Sept. 10.

Attorney A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota and Attorney A. Schaller of Hastings appeared for the state. County Attorney Mohan having been enjoined from acting in the case.</
