KILLED BY AN ENRAGED BULL

Sad Fate of Prominent Lady of Roseville Township Last Saturday.

A fearful tragedy occurred in the township of Roseville last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Johanna Winther, wife of Mr. Ole Winther, was attacked in the dooryard by a bull and fatally injured. Last Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock a terrible event took place at the Winther homestead, in the town of Roseville, four miles southwest from Paynesville. The cattle broke out from the pasture and came into the dooryard near the house. Mrs. Winther, who was about 65 years of age, went out with a broom to try to drive the cattle back. The head of the herd, a large four-year-old bull, became enraged and attacked Mrs. Winther, cruelly mauling her body. Mr. Winther, the husband, came to the rescue, and the bull took after him. Mr. Winther was saved from injury by the daughter who arrived on the scene and set the dog on the bull, drawing his attention away from his victims. Mrs. Winther passed away an hour and a half after sustaining the fearful injury. The Winthers are among the most highly respected families of Roseville and Irving townships. Among the children are Dr. Conrad Winther, a dentist at Paynesville; Miss Olga Winther, a milliner at Paynesville; and Sigurd Winther of Montana. The funeral occurs this afternoon at the Nordland Norwegian Lutheran church of Irving, at which the deceased was a loyal member. Rev. E. M. Hanson, of New London, the pastor will officiate. OBITUARY.

ANDREW M. EKLUIND.

Mr. Andrew M. Eklund was born in Evaryd parish Blekinge, Sweden, May 20, 1831, and died Oct. 4, 1913, at Winnipeg, Canada, at the age of 82 years, 4 months and 14 days. He emigrated to America in 1854 and came to Kandiyohi county in 1858. He was married to Hanna Erika Wicklund in 1860. Their matrimony was blessed with five children, of which four, together with their mother, have gone before to the eternal rest, leaving only one son, Andrew, to mourn the loss of the dear ones that have gone before. After the Indian outbreak Mr. and Mrs. Eklund settled down on Section 2, town of Lake Elizabeth. A few years later they moved to Kandiyohi Station, where he engaged in business. From there they moved west where they located at South Bend, Wash., and later in Kingsburg, Calif. The last months of Mr. Eklund's life was spent at Winnipeg, Canada, with his son, Andrew.

The funeral took place at Oak Park

M. E. church Monday afternoon, Oct. 6th. The pastor, L. G. Edgren, officiated with aid of Rev. E. Magnuson of Atwater and Rev. Theo. Livingstone of Willmar. John Wicklund gave a few remarks recalling the former days of Mr. Eklund's life as one of the pioneers in both religious and every day life. Mr. Eklund was a true Christian and a charter member of Oak Park M. E. church.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The church was decorated for the occasion. The choir sang two songs and the male chorus rendered a song at the grave.

The pallbearers were John Wicklund,

Peter Wicklund, Charley Peterson, C. A. Broman, Andrew Anderson and Frank Broman.

The remains were brought here from Winnipeg, Canada, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eklund and Miss Duere from Winnipeg and Mr. and Mrs. Aber from Minneapolis, Minn.

The remains were laid to rest in the family lot at Oak Park cemetery. May peace be with his memory.

L. G. EDGREN.

MRS. JONAS D. LÖNN.

Mrs. Lönn, the aged mother of Chas. W. Lönn and Mrs. P. A. Nelson of this city, died at the home of her son early last Sunday morning, after a week's illness caused by the influenza epidemic, at the age of 83 years, 6 months and 24 days.

Mrs. Anna Lovisa (Håkansson) Lönn was born at Fagering, Hvitland parish, Jonköpings län, Sweden, March 11, 1830, where her youth was spent. In 1857 she was united in marriage with Jonas D. (Isakson) Lönn.

With family they came to America in 1855, first locating at Altona, Ill., the following year moving to Andover. In 1870 they came to Minnesota and located at Tripolis, where they experienced all the trials of pioneer life.

About fifteen years ago they moved to Willmar. Five years ago the husband and father passed to his reward. Six children were born to them, of which four died in infancy. The parents were tenderly cared for in their old age by their surviving son, Chas. W. Lönn, and daughter, Mrs. P. A. Nelson, whom with the grand-children and other relatives are the survivors to mourn the death of their mother and grandmother. They have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The deceased was a lifelong member of the Swedish Lutheran church, and a devout Christian lady. In America she was successively a member of the congregations at Andover, Tripolis and Willmar.

The funeral occurs this afternoon.

Brief services are held at the house at 2:00 p. m. At 2:30 services are conducted at the Bethel Lutheran church, Rev. W. E. Pearson officiating. The interment takes place in the family lot at Fairview.

MISSIONARIES REV. AND MRS. ROBERT PORTEOUS ARE SAFE

Last Report From China Indicate That Willmar Missionaries Are Safe From Harm.

Mr. and Mrs. Anders Forsberg have received a letter from their daughter, Mrs. Robert W. Porteous, from the China Inland Mission at Yuan-chow, KI-China, dated Aug. 26, 1913, which shows that up to that time the civil war in China had not affected them except to make their work more difficult. Mr. Porteous had given surgical assistance to a number of the wounded soldiers. Bodies of marching troops pass through their home place and the necessity of furnishing them food is a hardship to the people. We take the liberty to reproduce the following passages from the letter.

"It is now several weeks since we received any letters or papers from home. No doubt the internal strife of this country is the cause. We hear that the South has lost a battle and that Li Tutuh and his soldiers are expected to come through here tomorrow on their way to Hunan, the next province. There were two wounded soldiers here today and Robert dressed their injuries. They were very thankful. Poor men! They were wounded near Kiuksiang and had dragged themselves all the way to this place. For the past two weeks soldiers have passed nearly every day. It is hard for the people of the city for they must furnish food to them. Today they butchered some hogs for the soldiers. Our daily prayer is that this war will soon be over. It is a great hardship on the poorer classes of the people as well as the soldiers. The people here are inclined to give in to the North, but Li Tutuh will not, but insists on continuing the struggle. Both the North and South have issued strict orders that the missionaries must not be harmed. We have faith that the Lord will protect us. Do not worry about our safety. Pray for these poor people."

"I have just now been assisting

Robert to dress the wounds of a number of soldiers. "P. S.—We have received the news that the North has taken possession of the Capital City without any battle, and we expect that peace will soon follow."

Hog Cholera Spreading.

The pest reaches us as we go to dress the hogs in the neighborhood of the waters farm have become ill with cholera, says the Atwater Republican Press. We understand that those on the John Peterson place are effected. It is the common belief that dogs are largely responsible for the spread of the disease and every precaution should be taken to keep them from running at large during this epidemic. J. S. Anderson reports that his loss of hogs from hog cholera was some over a hundred.

Birds are also said to carry the contagion from farm to farm. Post a guard whose business it is to keep all kinds of visitors away from your hog pastures.

Reckless Hunters Should be Punished

Hunters who maliciously destroy farm property not only brand themselves most unfavorably but create prejudice against those hunters who act as gentlemen. We understand that two young hunters were caught shooting out the windows on Henry Howell's new barn the other day. Mr. Howell's dislike to make trouble for a neighbor's family will probably give these culprits a chance to make settlement out of court, but it seems a pity if an example will not be made of them by giving them the limit of the law. That would be the quickest manner to put a stop to the malicious recklessness of many of these armed deprecators.

REMEMBERED BY CHURCHES

Rev. M. B. Michaelson Given Two Surprises at Willmar and Pennock.

The Willmar and St. Johns Congregations of the Lutheran Free church carried out successful surprises on their pastor, the Rev. M. B. Michaelson, last week. Last Friday evening the Willmar gathering took place. The Young People's Society had taken the initiative in the matter and were given cordial support from among the older people of the church. At eight o'clock the church parlors were filled with a throng which taxed their capacity to the utmost. The lights were dimmed while the committee went to the parsonage to ask the pastor to come down on some pretext to the church basement. When the party arrived at the church doors and the pastor was ushered into the church, the lights were turned on, the congregation arose and sang a familiar hymn. Hon. T. O. Gilbert presided at the meeting. Prayer was offered by Mr. Isaac Bassebo. Judge Gilbert then made some remarks expressing the good will, love and esteem in which the members of the congregation hold their pastor, and presented him with a handsome silk bag containing the sum of $186.65 as a visible token of their feelings. Rev. W. E. Pearson of the Bethel Lutheran church expressed the esteem and respect of a neighboring congregation, and Mayor E. C. Wellin voiced the kindly feelings of the city as a whole for the progressive interest the pastor has evinced in civic matters. Finally Rev. Michaelson was given the floor and made a heartfelt response, extending his thanks to all. Musical numbers were given by Misses Berg and Holt. The rooms had been tastefully decorated in honor of the event. Refreshments were served to all present by the ladies of the church. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, and everybody went home enthused and in a happy frame of mind over the success of the gathering.

The second surprise occurred at the St. John's church at Pennock on Sunday. At the close of the morning services, Nels Nelson, the old cantor of the church, became the spokesman of that congregation in an expression of their love and esteem and presented the pastor with a purse of $75.00. A lunch was served by the ladies, and a pleasant social hour was spent. Rev. Michaelson has served this pastorate during a period of eight years.
