Johnson of Willmar and has a position on the state grain inspection force at Willmar. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home to their friends at 812 Third street, Willmar, after Feb. 1. Had a Bad Fall.

Last Wednesday evening when going out to feed his horses, Mr. Martin Jorgenson opened the cellar door, thinking it the one which led outside and fell down the cellar. He struck his head against the corner floor and the fall rendered him unconscious for a few moments. He was confined to his bed until Monday. Since then he has been able to sit up in a chair, and it is expected that he will recover from his mishap without any more serious consequences.

A Great Musical Comedy.

Willmar playgoers will have an opportunity to enjoy one of the most famous New York musical successes when on Friday evening, Dec. 19, "Princess Chic," the dazzlingly bright and tuneful opera comique by Kirk La Shelle and Julian Edwards, in a brand new production made under the same direction that had in charge the original New York presentation, will come to The Willmar Opera House for an engagement of one night. The piece is too well known from its metropolitan runs to make necessary detailed reference to its crisp comedy, engaging plot, wealth of really great musical numbers and graceful dancing. It will bring to this city the celebrated Juvenile Bostonians Opera Co., entirely reorganized and enlarged but with the old favorites "Thom" Hellen, "Patsy Henry," "Billy" O'Neill, Daisy Henry and Ina Mitchell still in the cast.—Adv.
