Reception for New Members.
The First Presbyterian church of this city will hold a reception for all the new members which have been received into the church since the coming of Rev. Gade to the pastorate. This reception will be held on Thursday evening, February 26th, in the church parlors at 8:00 o'clock. The members of the church and congregation and all the new members are cordially invited and urged to attend. A short program will be rendered and refreshments will be served. On a recent Sabbath, twelve new members were welcomed into the fellowship of the church. All were adults, and all were heads of families but one. Since assuming charge here a little more than a year ago, Rev. Gade has received into the church considerable over a hundred members. Forty-three persons have been received on the new church year.

This reception will be informal, and a most delightful evening is promised.

Assessment Law to Be Explained.
There will be a meeting at the court house next Wednesday, Feb. 25, at 10 o'clock a. m., of all the assessors in the county and all others interested for the purpose of explaining the new classified assessment law passed by the last legislature. One of the members of the Minnesota Tax Commission will be present to explain everything fully and answer questions. All assessors, especially, should not fail to be present.

Scotton Will Speak.
Rev. Thomas Scotton will conduct services next Sunday, February 22nd at the following places: Penneck at 11 o'clock a. m.; Priam at 3:00 p. m.; and at Whitefield at 7:30 p. m. Everyone welcome to these services.
